Tax Certificate Test Case.

The directors of Providence Hospital have filed a bill in equity against the commissioners of the District of Columbia and James W. Hyatt as treasurer of the United States. The bill is brought to secure the cancellation of certain tax certificates against Providence Hospital, valued at $1,158.17, and the plaintiff avers that in 1886 the commissioners decided that Providence Hospital was exempt from taxation, and directed the cancellation of the certificates, but, in violation of said order, the clerk in charge of the assessment division refused and still refuses to cancel them. The certificates are now deposited in the custody of James W. Hyatt, as treasurer, as a part of the sinking fund of the District.

DROPSY OF THE HEART.

Causes the Death of Vice President Potter of the Pacific Road.

The death of Mr. Thomas J. Potter, vice president and general manager of the Union Pacific railroad, occurred at Wolcker's Hotel at 11:30 a. m. yesterday of dropsy of the heart, aged 38 years. He came here from Omaha a fortnight since accompanied by his family, and his physician, Dr. Ransom. He was on his way to Florida to recuperate his health, but had become so enervated by the long journey that it was found necessary to stop over here in order to afford him complete rest. Instead of rallying, however, he gradually grew worse until the final sleep of death came over him.

Vice President Potter was undoubtedly one of the most prominent railroad managers of this country for his years. Prior to his connection with the Union Pacific he was at the head of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy system, with headquarters at Chicago.

His remains were taken to his old home at Burlington, Iowa, in a special car, at 10 o'clock last night.

OPPOSITION is what it wants. That will make it solid; we mean Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It has entered the lists and come out far ahead. In the ranks of legitimate household remedies for the cure of coughs and colds, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup stands first. Price 25 cents.

To Remove Cloud from Title.

Hetty Ann Key, by her solicitor, H. J. May, yesterday filed a bill in equity against Annie G. Hume and her six children to remove the cloud from the title to certain real estate. The bill states that the defendants are the widow and children of the late Thomas L. Hume; that in 1875 Mrs. Key purchased a certain piece of property in Georgetown from the said Thomas L. Hume and Annie G. Hume for $16,000 and received a deed therefor; that she occupied and improved the property up to the present time; that within the last thirty days she has been informed that owing to the fact that the seal was not affixed opposite to the names of grantors in said will as required by law her right to the property is clouded. She therefore brings this suit to have the cloud removed and the title made perfect.

The $10,000 house—Potomac Fair.

Only Nominal Damages Obtained.

A verdict for 1 cent damages was given for the plaintiff in circuit court No. 1 yesterday in the suit of Joe Rosenbaum against Kate S. Tarpin for damages in a replevin case. Defendant claimed that she leased a house on Tenth street from one Allen, agreeing to pay $1,800 for the furniture; that she refused to sign a deed of trust, but signed a paper, believing it to be a lease, but found afterward that it was a deed of trust to Rosenbaum. On the part of the defendant it was claimed that plaintiff fully understood the transaction, and not only signed the paper in question but a number of notes covering the amount due.
