SCIENTISTS IN SESSION.

Interesting Paper Read Before the Society by Prof. A. Graham Bell.

The Academy of Science, in executive session yesterday morning, elected three new members. They are Prof. G. Brown Goode, naturalist, of Washington; Albert Michelson, physicist, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Prof. S. C. Chandler, astronomer, of Cambridge, Mass.

The scientific session commenced shortly after the noon hour, the first paper being read by Prof. A. Graham Bell, of this city, on "Apparent elasticity produced in an apparatus by the pressure of the atmosphere, and the bearing of the phenomenon upon the hypothesis of potential energy." Prof. Bell's paper commanded the deep thoughts of his learned auditors, and it was fully illustrated by an elaborate apparatus. It was discussed by Prof. Newcomb, Prof. Abbe, and Maj. Powell.

After a recess for lunch, Prof. H. A. Newton presented his paper on "The orbits of aerolites," which proved particularly interesting to the astronomers present. Another paper on "The action of chemical compounds on animals" was read by Prof. Wolcott Gibbs.

The sessions will be continued to-day.

In Favor of the Herdic Company.

A verdict for defendant was given in circuit court No. 2 yesterday in the suit of E. C. Manning, as administrator, against the Union Transfer Company for $10,000 damages for injuries causing the death of Benjamin Manning by being knocked down by a herdic coach belonging to that company on March 4, 1884.

SAD STORY OF A WIFE.

Wants Divorce on Account of Her Husband's Cruel Treatment.

Mrs. Mattie W. Brown, through her solicitor, Mr. D. W. Glassie, has petitioned for divorce from her husband, David Henry P. Brown, on the ground of cruel treatment, and asks for alimony, and that she be permitted to remain in possession of the premises she now occupies. She puts up a strong bill of complaint, and until the other side is told will bias public opinion considerably against Mr. Brown. She avers that he is a clerk in the surgeon general's office, receiving a salary of $100 per month. When he was out of employment, and to assist in maintaining the family, she started a house for boarders and kept furnished rooms, did the washing and took in sewing. The receipts, besides going to their support, were applied to paying off old debts which had been contracted by her husband. Her statement shows that she went further than this, and to provide Mr. Brown with funds she permitted him to pawn her jewelry. In return for her self-denial, generosity, and industry she charges that she has received very cruel treatment from him. Not only has she been abused, but struck violent blows, been choked and beaten, and had not her sister interfered she believes that she would have been killed.
