Failed to Display His Prices.

The case of John French, owner of an eating house in the Center market, charged with violating the laws governing such places in not keeping his prices displayed, was begun in the criminal court yesterday. Mr. Joseph Shillington appeared for the District and Mr. E. A. Newman for the defendant. The case is based on the testimony of Mr. E. M. Hewlett, the colored lawyer, who went into the defendant's place and got something to eat. On calling for his bill he thought he had been overcharged, and asked to see the prices, but it is said none were shown. The trial will be finished to-day.

NO MONEY TO FOOL AWAY.

She Will Not Contribute to the District Treasury.

Mrs. Annie Schzl has a combination saloon and grocery store at the corner of M and Second streets southwest, and yesterday she was brought into Judge Miller's court to answer to two charges, selling to minors and selling beer on Sunday. She denied being guilty of either, and said that she sold beer to one neighbor as a matter of accommodation, but had not sold to any boys. The evidence of the woman's guilt was conclusive, and Judge Miller imposed a fine of $20 or imprisonment for thirty days.

"Give me my bundles," said the defendant to a woman who held what looked like bundles of clothing, which Mrs. Schzl, it would appear, wanted to wear if sent down to the farm.

"Do you want to take an appeal?" asked the judge.

"No, indeed," answered the defendant, "I've got four children and I've got no money to fool away."

The woman then walked into the dock and down to the cells, preparatory to taking the van ride.

6,000 Pairs Lisle Hose.

Yes, we hope and think the qualities offered at below-mentioned prices will double our hosiery business.

4,800 Pairs Cotton Hose

When we write the best values ever offered by the Palais Royal, does it not mean ever offered in Washington? You can judge if you will.

THE PRICE—25, 35, AND 48c.

The 25c Hose come in many styles. Those with black feet and ankles, with uppers in the new blues, grays, browns, tans, &c., are 35c quality, so are those with fancy striped feet and ankles and unbleached tops. The plain colors, tans, browns, grays, black, and navy, with white split feet, are 35c quality. You'll say so when you examine them.

The 35c Hose, ribbed and plain, with fancy striped and boot pattern effects. We know you'll examine them, and it would be foolish to exaggerate and thus disappoint you. WE DELIBERATELY STATE THEM TO BE WORTH 50c A PAIR, AND NOT TO BE PRODUCED ELSEWHERE UNDER 50c.

The 48c Hose—When we have to quote from nearly 100 styles, 'tis wisest to quote none. Your tastes vary. We can suit all in style and surprise you all in qualities for 48c a pair.

Lord & Taylor's Black Hose.

These hose, though not included in our late great purchase, are the best values in town, and because of the qualities offered at following prices:

Cotton—20, 40, 55, 75c, $1.
Lisle—55, 75, 85c, $1, $1.25.
Children's—From 20c to 60c pair.

☞ During the special sale the 29c quality for 25c pair.

This notice is conspicuous on the display of these Hose in the store: "If these Hose stain the feet, or do not wash a perfect black, return them, and we will promptly refund the money. A. LISNER."

English Balbriggan Hose

Ladies who habitually wear plain Balbriggan Hose are generally good judges of values. The following come in heavy and light weights, with and without silk clocks, and are EXTRA VALUES:

25, 35, 50, 55, 68, 75c.
Extra sizes—39, 50, 68, 98c.

☞ We are direct importers of English and Irish Bal. Hose, and offer as good values as procurable in the country.

☞ Many of the Hose quoted above if bought in the usual way could only be offered at double the prices. This is only one illustration of what our prompt-pay system has done and is doing for us in a dull wholesale market. Swiss Ribbed Vests at 29c is an illustration in our Underwear Department. Expect many and great surprises in other departments, and which will be advertised each evening in the "Star."
