We are authorized to announce the name of JESSE WAY, Sen., as a candidate for ASSESSOR of Whitewater Township.

Sickness in the editor's family and the indisposition of two of our typos is our apology for the non-appearance of the usual amount of reading in this issue. We will be O. K. next week.

Capt. Riley, 8th Indiana, is at home on furlough. He is well and in good spirits. He returns to his regiment in about ten days.

Capt. Bonebrake's company left this place for Camp Wayne on Tuesday morning, where the 69th is to be re-organized.

The United States forces have re-captured Harper's Ferry, and H. Seig has purchased Wash Hill's interest in the Main Street Tailoring establishment. Mr. S. has a fine assortment of Fall and Winter goods for Gentlemen's wear, to which he invites the attention of all who want good material at fair prices. He warrants his work to give entire satisfaction. Call and see him at his store in Helms's Block, Main Street. Read his new advertisement.

The number of men to be drafted in this County is 46, to be furnished by three townships, viz: Jackson 19, Greensfork 19, and Nettlecreek 8. The draft will be made on the 6th of October. Would it not be well for these townships to fill their quotas at once with volunteers and thus save Old Randolph from the disgrace of a draft?

John Ross has been receiving more new goods. Wonder what he does with so many? Guess he must sell them at astonishingly low figures.

Lieut. H. Carter and L. L. Moorman are authorized to raise a company for the 12 months' service. Those desirous of joining this company will report to either of the above named gentlemen. This is the last and only chance to volunteer.

Another Feast.

Doubtless many persons remember the soldiers' dinner had at Huntsville just prior to the organization of the 69th Regiment; yet another feast, equally as sumptuous and good, was given on the 20th inst., by Dr. John Botkins and lady, at his residence, which we do not wish to remain unnoticed.

A goodly number of Captain Ross's company (D) were present and participated in the festival and merriment. The many "blue coats" and military caps presented, somehow, a pleasing appearance, especially when the bright sun emitted his last rays of evening upon them.

And the ladies! It seemed that they were all, all there. All the luxuries of the season were prepared, and none seemed fastidious.

The supper over—then came the music and the merry dance; and we might say, with propriety, that "bright the lamps shone o'er fair women and brave men." We could not help comparing this scene of the soldiers with that of three short weeks ago, near Richmond, Ky. Captain Ross, whose personal appearance has been greatly changed by whiskers, blouse and cap, made one of the party, and with his colloquial and humorous nature, added interest to the social pastime by many good laughs.

Many thanks and kind wishes are due Dr. Botkin and lady, and their neighbors for this pleasant entertainment.

E. A. CROPPER.

A CLERGYMAN ON THE RAMPAGE.—Rev. Mr. Anderson, chaplain of the 3d California volunteers, was requested to pronounce the benediction at the close of a celebration on the 4th of July. He proceeded as follows:

"And now may the God of Washington, the God of Foote, Halleck, McClellan and Lincoln nerve, guide and surge this whole nation till Richmond is taken, Charleston burnt, secession annihilated, and slop-shop Union men turned out of existence. Amen."

The New Gymnastics,
FOR MEN, WOMEN, AND CHILDREN.

With a translation of Prof. Klauss's Dumb Bell Instructor and Prof. Sieveers Pangymnastikon.

BY DIO LEWIS, M. D.,

PROPRIETOR OF THE HUNT STREET GYMNASIUM, BOSTON.

With Three Hundred Illustrations. One Vol. Price $1.50.

No recent Magazine paper has excited more general interest than the articles in the August Atlantic, on "The New Gymnastics." The present work is a complete exposition of the system of which that article gave a synopsis.

The author of of this work has been for many years engaged in teaching Gymnastics. The book describes and illustrates his New System of Physical Training.—This system has had the practical test of long and varied use. It comprises exercises with Dumb Bells, Rings, Wands, Clubs, etc., all of which are made perfectly clear by full explanations, while many are illustrated by pictorial representations of the position of the body required to perform them.

The Dumb Bell Instructor, connected with this work, is of the highest interest and importance. It is designed for home use, and gives a great variety of Dumb Bell Exercises, together with a carefully selected progressive series for every day practice.

The Pangymastikon is a very simple, useful, and cheap piece of gymnastic apparatus, upon which all gymnastic exercises may be performed, and which can be introduced, at small cost, into any private house. It is fully described and illustrated in this volume.

The "New Gymnastics" should be read by every family in the land where exercise is valued as a means of health. Ladies, especially, will find it a great variety of Easy, Simple, and Invigorating Exercises, all of which may be practised in their own homes.
