IOWA'S HONORED SON

LESLIE M. SHAW, SECRETARY OF TREASURY, TO SPEAK AT GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Great Financier to Be in Ottumwa on Monday Evening, October 26—Was a Poor Boy—Walked to College—How He Began Speaking.

On next Monday evening at the Grand Opera house the citizens of Ottumwa and vicinity will have the opportunity of listening to a speech by an honored Iowa citizen that will be reported in every great newspaper and closely read not only by every statesman in every state of the union, but will be closely perused by statesmen of foreign nations. This address will be delivered by a man who as the son of an Iowa farmer was so poor that he walked from his home town to Mt. Vernon to obtain the rudiments of a college education ,but who now as secretary of the treasury of the United States controls without doubt the greatest financial interests in the world.

Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw, who is to deliver this address, came to Iowa thirty years ago. He had a hard struggle to win an education but he did it by alternately teaching country schools and going to school himself when he had money enough to carry him through a term. He was admitted to the bar finally and in time became interested in a bank at Denison.

Prominent in a Day.

Like Senator J. P. Dolliver, Secretary Shaw sprang into prominence as one of the nation's most effective speakers almost in a day. In 1896, when the free silver agitation was at its height Banker Shaw was called upon by the county chairman to go out and make a speech. Shaw hesitated but finally agreed.

Shaw had no experience at public speaking and the story of how he trained himself for this speech was told by himself to Hon. A. W. Buchanan of this city, some years ago. He secured a big school black board and with a supply of chalk and a long wooden pointer he went down into the basement of his residence. Between writing and figuring upon the black board he worked out his speech and then began to practice speaking.

"Have You Gone Crazy?"

Mrs. Shaw heard the unusual sounds coming from the basement, searched them out and burst in upon the practice with the startled exclamation: "Leslie Shaw! Have you gone crazy?" Shaw expressed some doubt about the matter himself but after an explanation and discussion upon the matter between themselves he was allowed to proceed. The result was that when the speech was delivered his reputation was instantly made and within a few weeks he was considered one of the ablest and most effective speakers of the nation.

Meet Roosevelt.

His speaking tours took him through the east and in one of these he met and became personally acquainted with Theodore Roosevelt, then assistant secretary in the navy department. The acquaintance grew into friendship and in time to the highest confideuce on the part of the coming president in the ability of the brilliant Iowan. After the series of rapid and unusual changes which placed Roosevelt in the presidential chair and which left an opening for a new head of the treasury department this friendship and confidence led to the appointment of Mr. Shaw, then ex-governor of the state of Iowa, as secretary of the United States treasury, a post of the most supreme and vital importance. Not only to the government itself but to the welfare of every individual under its authority.

Leslie M. Shaw stands as one of the greatest financiers of the world today. He has spoken but few times in Ottumwa and the occasion of his speech in the Grand Opera house on next Monday evening will afford another splendid opportunity to hear one of the great men that Iowa has furnished to the nation.

ROOSEVELT AND SHAW.

President Denies Rumors of Differences With Secretary.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—President Roosevelt authorized the statement that there is no truth whatever in the rumors of differences of opinion between himself and Secretary Shaw or among members of the cabinet growing out of the report which has been made to him by Charles J. Bonaparte and Holmes Conrad of their investigations into the charges affecting the postal service.

FALL WHEAT IS PROFITABLE.

Farmers of Fremont County Will Sow Big Acreage This Year.

Sidney, Oct. 20.—A large acreage of fall wheat has been sown. The weather has been especially favorable for the wheat and it is looking fine. More small grain is being sown in this section every year on the highlands. One reason is to renew the ground which has been weakened by continually growing corn on it and another is that the crop of small grain on high land is generally profitable. According to present prospects the acreage next year will be a big one.

ROCK ISLAND CUT-OFF.

Reported That Right of Way Had Been Fixed.

Belknap, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—The right of way of the much talked of Rock Island cut-off has been permanently located between Laddsdale and Drakeville, according to what appears to be an authentic rumor in circulation here. From this source of information it is learned that the line will pass through Floris three quarters of a mile north of Belknap and will connect with the old road at Drakeville. The new line, it is said, will cross the Wabasn road by means of a viaduct that will also cross the wagon road. Workmen are now at work repairing the depot and platform here.

A VETERAN'S STORY

ESCAPED WAR'S PERILS AND FELL A VICTIM TO THE GRIP.

The Influenza Left His Blood so Thin That Anaemia Resulted—Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

In the employ of the American Bridge company at Pittsburg, is a man whose life story is a thrilling one. For three years during the great civil war he served his country as a member of Company E, Sixty-third Pennsylvania Valunteer Infantry, and then completed his war service in the Seventh Connecticut. This man is Mr. James A. Clowes, of No. 319 Forty-fourth street, Pittsburg, Pa., and he tells in his own way how he escaped a greater danger than he faced on the field of battle. He says:

"An attack of the grip in 1898 left me in a low state of health and in a short time I found that I was a victim of anaemia. Any exertion tired me and made me short of breath. My heart would stop beating at times. I was nervous and weak, and had no desire to eat and there was constant pain in the small of my back. My kidneys, liver and stomach became affected and I was about as miserable as a man can be.

"One day I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People mentioned in the paper and concluded to see what they would do for me. The first box helped me and seven boxes cured me entirely, making me strong and energetic again and in as good health as before my sickness. My son and his wife and many of my other relatives have also used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with the best results and we all recommend them on every possible occasion."

Hundreds of Civil war veterans, both Union and Confederate, whose health was broken by hardships in the army, as well as hundreds of others run down by overwork, worry or excess of some sort, owe their lives and happiness to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Acting directly on the blood and nerves these pills have cured many stubborn cases of nervousness, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, rheumatism, sciatica and all forms of weakness, whether in male or female. If you are sick you owe it to yourself to give them a trial.. But remember that you cannot try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills by taking "something else" which may be offered as a substitute. Be sure that every box you buy bears the full name. Sold by all dealers in medicines, or sent postpaid at fifty cents per box, six boxes for two dollars and fifty cents, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

TODAY'S MARKETS.

Daily Market Letter.

Furnished by the Donovan Commission Co., of St. Louis, W. E. Pilling, broker, rooms 18 and 19 Leighton Building, Ottumwa.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Wheat—Further covering by December shorts and reports of a quite heavy export business having been worked late yesterday and today, put the price of wheat up a half cent early in the session, but a weak cash market in Minneapolis where the spot article was off ½c reassured those of the local crowd who are bearishly inclined and their selling helped out the advance and a little more. Receipts continue less than a year ago, being 101 here today with none contract grade. Northwest were 570 against 515 last week and 472 last year. Clearances were small, 119,200, but reports from seaboard said 35 loads were worked for export and Duluth reported 22 loads taken. The May option was the strongest today, buying by St. Louis houses, Champlin, Pringle Rankin and Sickel-Roberts being on a large scale. Bartlett-Frazier, Ware-Leland, Clement, Curtis were the best sellers, principally of December. December closed lower and May a shade higher. Primary receipts were 1,161,500, against 1,428,000 last year, and shipments 594,500 against 512,000 last year. Estimates for tomorrow, 80 cars.

Corn—Corn was entirely a local market and generally steady. The assumption that prices are about right is gaining ground. Local receipts are moderate, 298 cars, with nine contract, and are hardly sufficient to meet shipping requirements. There are some reports of disappointing husking returns, indicating that corn may be following the course of wheat and oats when final results are considered as compared with the harvest promises. We advise keeping off the short side. Clearances, 172,600. Primary receipts 596,200, against 427,800 last year. Shipments 483,100 against 279,500 last year. Estimates for tomorrow, 310.

Oats—Oats were firm most of the session. The May in particular was in good demand and the buying suggesting the reinstatement of long lines. Receipts are moderate. Shipping inquiry fair.

Provisions—The buying of lard at the opening for foreign account was the principal feature for the day. The packers bid the market up and were the best sellers at the best prices. There has been a little improvement in the cash trade, but do not consider this a bullish argument as this is the time of the year when stocks should be small and cash demand the best. Toward the close there was a good deal of selling from scattered source and not much demand for product, causing a very weak market. Sixteen thousand hogs for tomorrow.

Stock Letter.

New York, Oct. 21.—Today's market agreeably contradicts the pessimistic predictions made ibefore the opening and the collapse of the Federal bank of Pittsburg had very little effect. There was some selling of stock at the opening and prices receded a little from last night's closing, but there was no pressure made. The undertone of the market was firm and the buying in a number of stocks was good. The strength manifested itself speedily and an upward movement supervened. During the forenoon session the market was consistently strong. Lower London prices did not suffice either to induce liquidation or heavy se...ng. London, however, was a seller for a time and part of the short interest held off temporarily. At the end of the first hour London ceased to sell and a short covering movement began, which further strengthened the market. Sugar is well bought and strong. The steel stocks are firm and the industrial list reflects no weakness. The railroad granger stocks are well taken and the whole list shows an effective resistence to all bad news. It seems evident that some of those who sold on the advance and on apparent good news are buying on what seemed to be exceedingly bad news.

S. C. DOWELL, REAL ESTATE BROKER abstractor of titles, rental agent. Taxes paid for non-residents. Walnut Ridge, Ark. Lawrence county is the banner general agricultural county of northeastern Arkansas. Grains, cotton, tame grasses, fruits, and vegetables of all varieties are successfully and profitably produced. Horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry are raised in large numbers for the northern market, and no other county in the state exceeds ours in volume of shipments. Various valuable minerals also abound in the western part of the county. Our surface is gently rolling, with a general east and south slope. Its natural drainage is good and our section is one of the most healthful in the South. Finest of drinking water is secured at moderate depth by means of drive wells. Walnut Ridge, the county seat for the eastern district of the county, is a beautiful, rapidly growing city of more than 1,200 population, located near the junction of three independent railway systems, which give her direct and quick communication with all points in all directions, at rates forced down to the lowest possible figure by fierce and uncompromising competition. For Free Book containing a large number of bargains in improved farms, orchards, stock ranches, wild and timber lands, city property, health resorts and pleasure resorts, write to S. C.
