DR. FAIRCHILDS DEAD

ONE OF THE OLDEST PRACTITIONERS OF THE COUNTY PASSES AWAY.

HAD LONG BEEN IN POOR HEALTH

GRADUATION EXERCISES OF THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL TO BE HELD.

A Baby Falls Into a Cistern but Is Rescued From Drowning by a Brave Boy—Blunk in More Trouble.

Dr. Chauncey R. Fairchilds, aged 77 years, one of the best known physicians of this city, died last evening at his home, 411 Minnesota avenue. The cause of his death was general debility. Dr. Fairchilds has been in poor health for the past three years and has been able to practice his profession out little during that time. About three months ago he began to break down and he gradually grew worse each day until relieved by death yesterday. The funeral arrangements have not been completed, but the services will likely be held Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Chauncey R. Fairchilds was born in Chenango county, N. Y., February 4, 1818, and was one of three children of Agur and Betsey Fairchild. At the age of 18 years he began studying medicine, which was his principal object of attention during his after life. He graduated from the Pittsfield, Mass., Medical college and in 1841 began the active practice of medicine in Hancock county, Mass. He came West in 1866 and located at St. Joseph, Mo., but soon after came to this city, where he afterward lived.

During his residence here he had an enormous practice in all parts of the county and was acquainted with nearly every prominent citizen of the county. He was for a number of years the proprietor of a private sanitarium located in this city which was a successful institution. Mr. Fairchild was married to Miss Almira Paddock, of Essex county, N. Y., January 28, 1842. They were the parents of six children, two of whom died at early ages. He leaves an aged wife and four children to mourn his death.

BLUNK SUED FOR DIVORCE.

Two Court Orders That Seem to Conflict—Habeas Corpus Case.

Charles Blunk and his wife are having trouble again. A few days ago Blunk had trouble with his wife across the state line and was arrested. After the trial Mrs. Blunk came to this side and began action for divorce against her husband. The suit was filed about 11 o'clock in the district court. She charges him with cruelty and failure to provide. She asked for an absolute decree and the custody of the three children. She also got an injunction preventing Blunk from interfering with her or the children while the case is pending.

Soon after noon Blunk, through his attorney, J. A. Smith, filed application for a writ of habeas corpus in the probate court for the custody of the children. The writ was filed before service was secured on him in the divorce suit. In the application he charges his wife with being an unfit person to raise the children and he wants the probate judge to give him them. Argument on the writ will be made to-day. The orders of the two courts somewhat conflict and the question of jurisdiction will likely enter into the argument on the writ to-day. Judge Alden, of the district court, has issued an order restraining Blunk from taking the children while the ex-jointkeeper is seeking in the probate court to get them.

Christian Endeavor Societies.

The various Christian Endeavor Societies of this city will hold a pre-convention rally to-night at the Central Christian church, corner of Seventh street and Tauromee avenue. The meeting is called for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the annual convention of Endeavor workers of the state, to be held at Wichita, May 23. A special car over the Santa Fe road will be fitted up with banners bearing the name of the Kansas City, Kas., delegation. A half fare rate has been secured for the round trip.

Carey Was Not Released.

Charles Carey did not secure his release from the county jail yesterday as he expected. Judge Alden refused to grant his release on a writ of habeas corpus. The hearing took place in the morning. No witnesses were examined, as the matter hinged on a law point. Carey's attorney, J. A. Smith, argued that the action of the justices in binding the defendant over to the next term of the district court instead of the term then in session was illegal. The county attorney argues that the action of the justices was lawful. Judge Alden decided for the state and Carey was ordered back to jail to await trial during the June term of court.

KILLED BY A CAR.

George V. Gillman Meets Sudden Death in Cypress Yards.

At an early hour yesterday morning George V. Gillman was thrown from the platform of a passenger car in the Cypress yards of the Missouri Pacific and run over by the coach and almost instantly killed. A wheel passed over his chest and his head was also injured. Daniels & Comfort, undertakers, took the body to their morgue, where it was viewed by the coroner. Gillman was 58 years of age. He leaves a wife and three children at the family home, 916 South Seventh street, in Armourdale. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

RESCUED BY A BOY.

A Baby Saved From Drowning by a Heroic Child.

Little Joe Cookley, aged 2½ years, fell into a cistern Wednesday night at his parents' home, at the corner of Short and Seventeenth streets. The male members of the family were absent from home and the child's mother was badly frightened, but her son, John, aged 13, came to the rescue. He slid down a board into the cistern and saved the child from drowning.

Grammar School Graduates.

The graduating class of the grammar schools of this city will hold commencement exercises this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, corner of Seventh street and Nebraska avenue. The exercises will begin promptly at 2:30. The class this year is unusually large. The programme to be carried out to-day is as follows:

Central school class—Essay on "Washington and Lincoln," by Miss Lydia Balgin.

Armourdale school class—"Address to the Mummy of Rhiomsis," by Will Hudson.

Lincoln school class—Chorus and recitation by Frank Kennedy on "Tans Saint L'Onverture."

Morse school class—"An Easter Parepa," by Miss S. Woodward.

London heights school class—Chorus and recitation by Miss Hattie Jones on "Mrs. Bunker's City Shoppin'."

Riverview school class—Recitation, "A Little Girl's View of Life," by Miss Mercellus.

Long school class—Recitation by Miss Laura Martin on "The Picture on the Wall."

Everett school class—Essay on "The History and Literature of Bells," by Miss Sadie Hovey.

At the close of the entertainment the graduates will be given their certificates of promotion.

Death of a Venerable Woman.

Mrs. Harriet Havens, an aged lady of this city, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Bartlett, 510 Oakland avenue. She was born in Westport, Essex county, N. Y., May 16, 1806, and was 89 years old on the day of her death.

She was married to Amos B. Holcomb July 31, 1825. He died March 6, 1844, and on October 26, 1852, she was married to Asahel Havens, who died February 10, 1869.

She was the mother of eight children, six of whom survive her and reside in this city, with one exception, Mrs. F. W. Lee, of Detroit, Mich. She came to this city in the fall of 1869, where she has resided with her children, beloved and honored.

She had been an active member of the Baptist church for sixty-seven years and became a member of the Third Baptist church of this city on its organization. Her church was emphatically her home, where she was known as "Grandma" Havens.

Funeral services will be held at the Third Baptist church at 2:30 this afternoon.

Fallen Heir to a Snug Sum.

J. O. Agnew, who for the past three years has been operating a small confectionery establishment at 1318 North Fifth street, will, in all probability engage in business on a larger scale in the near future. This is due to the fact that he has fallen heir to $8,000. Yesterday he received word to the effect that his sister, who lived in the southern part of the state, had died and left an estate valued at $16,000. This is to be divided between Mr. Agnew and a child of the deceased. The estate is to be equally divided between the two heirs. Mr. Agnew will remain in this city and engage in larger business pursuits.

Delaware Township Assessment.

W. C. Dodson, assessor for Delaware township, yesterday returned his books to the county clerk and reported that he had completed his work. According to his books the personal property in that township is valued at $78,060. There are 521 horses, 550 cattle, 160 mules, 34 sheep, 639 hogs, 1 goat, 485 farm implements, 144 wagons, 56 pleasure carriages, 25 gold watches, 41 silver watches, 5 pieces of plated jewelry, 7 pianos, 30 organs, 3 fiddles, 1 bass viol, 1 mandolin, 1 horn, a bass drum and an accordion in the township.

Federal Prisoners Bound Over.

The preliminary hearing of Richard Roberts, who is charged with passing counterfeit coin on J. O. Agnew, a Fifth street merchant, was held before United States Commissioner Perry yesterday. The prosecution was represented by Assistant United States Attorney Rankin Mason, of Topeka. The defendant was bound over to the United States court at Leavenworth in the sum of $1,000, in default of which he was committed to the county jail.

Benefit Entertainment.

Granite Camp No. 1412, M. W. of A., will give an entertainment and social at the Fifth Street opera house on the night of May 27. The entertainment is given for the benefit of a member of the order, who has been confined in the hospital for the past nine months. A fine programme will be rendered, after which ice cream and cake will be served.

ALTAMONT

Means high mountain. This is the name of a beautiful addition on the South side, between Woodland and Garfield, and 30th and Linwood avenue. This addition has been tastily named and considered one of the high grade additions in the city. It is only one block from the Linwood school, one block from Woodland avenue electric line, close to church, surrounded by fine homes, city water, gas, etc. Lots fronting 50 feet on lot from $25 to $50 per foot.
