IRREGULAR BUT HIGHER.

WHEAT MADE A GAIN OF 3-8c, HELPED BY BETTER CABLES.

The Corn Market Was Firm, Closing a Fraction Lower—Oats Were Higher for September, and Provisions Advanced.

Chicago, Ill., July 29.—Wheat was irregular today but higher, but fluctuations were not wide, helped by the cables and a liberal speculation. Some many more shorts were lowered, comparatively speaking, by purchases made at Atlanta. The wheat trade was confused in and that on Argentine shipments for the week, beginning of some under. Cash business was fair, but in one cash point received, and there was a good demand for a quick business. The wheat trade was in the September, for wheat, it had been [illegible] from the start from Chicago to the Southwest.
