WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS TO BE ASKED IN HIS BEHALF.

NOW IN THE PENITENTIARY.

WILL ENJOIN THE CONSTRUCTION OF A PROPOSED SEWER.

Police Arrest a Man Who Threw Away Counterfeit Coins—Difficulty Experienced in Getting Jurors—Held Up on a Bridge—Other News of Interest.

Attorney W. G. Holt, of this city, will go to Topeka to-day to make application for a writ of habeas corpus in the supreme court to secure the release of Charles Pascall from the penitentiary. The suit will be directed against Warden Lynch, of the penitentiary.

Pascall and Jeff Wheeler were arrested in January, 1890, on the charge of burglary and larceny. It was claimed that they broke into the home of W. H. Smith, No. 832 Oakland avenue, and stole a large amount of jewelry and clothing. When arraigned in the district court they pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary in the second degree and larceny. They were sentenced to the pen for twenty years each.

Justice Sims went before the state board of pardons and succeeded in getting Pascall's sentence reduced ten years. It was shown at the hearing before the board that the prisoners pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary in the second degree and larceny. The maximum penalty for a burglary charge is ten years, and for the larceny, five years. The justice claimed that the sentence was illegal. The board of pardons reduced the sentence to five years on the showing made. Now Attorney Holt claims that Pascall is illegally restrained of his liberty, because of the sentence pronounced upon him by the court. He says in the petition that if the sentence was void in the first place, no act of the state board of pardons could legalize it.

SLOW WORK.

The County Attorney Is Experiencing Difficulty in Obtaining Jurors.

The county attorney is having an exceedingly difficult time in securing jurors to try liquor cases in the common pleas court. There are thirty-three cases of the kind on the docket. Tuesday afternoon the first liquor case was called for trial. The defendant was John Flannery. The attorneys worked until evening and they only succeeded in getting about half a jury. Yesterday morning the work was resumed, and at noon the regular panel of jurors was exhausted and the jury was not completed. A special panel of forty jurors was drawn in the afternoon and last evening the jury was still not completed. It will probably take until noon to-day to get a jury in the first liquor case.

THREW AWAY SPURIOUS COINS.

The Police Arrest a Man They Believe to Be a Counterfeiter.

Patrolman James Walsh arrested a man about 35 years of age on Minnesota avenue last evening. The name given him was James McGlenn, but the police believe his name is Eugene Scott, and suspect him of being a counterfeiter. He bought a cigar of Robert Furgeson, who attends a stand for J. R. Barnes, at No. 405 Minnesota avenue, and in payment gave a half dollar. Fergeson gave him the change, but soon saw the money was counterfeit, and called the man back. A settlement was made. The stranger passed along the street, but was soon in the hands of Officer Walsh, who had learned of the transaction.

While taking him to jail the officer discovered he was throwing away money. At the station sixteen half dollars and three silver dollars, all imperfect in pattern and apparently composed largely of lead, were found in his pockets. He told several different stories and the police believe he is a dealer in counterfeit coins. He says his name is McGlenn, and claims to reside at Moberly, Mo., but papers in his pocket bear the name of Eugene Scott. His home is probably at Carrollton, Mo., judging from papers carried by him. He was locked up at police headquarters last night and will be held for investigation.

TO SUE ON WARRANTS.

An Attempt Will Be Made to Collect Policemen's Salaries From the City.

Suit was filed yesterday in the district court against the city in behalf of Larson & Lundberg, to recover $634, the amount of twelve warrants issued to policemen for salaries during the first quarter of the present year. Several members of the police force sold their warrants at a discount, shortly after the present board came into power, at which time there was no money in the police fund to meet the warrants. Lundberg & Larson have failed to realize on the warrants, hence the suit. At the present time the police commissioners are able to meet the running expenses of the department, but have no way to take care of the warrants issued during the stringency. If the plaintiffs win their suit against the city the judgment will have to be paid out of some other fund than the police fund.

DON'T WANT TO BE TAXED.

George Hoersman Will Seek to Enjoin the Construction of a Sewer.

George Hoersman will to-day file an injunction suit against the city to enjoin the construction of the sewer in district No. 1. The contract was awarded to E. H. Klea by the council recently. The cost of the sewer would be about $2,000, and the taxpayers, who are protesting against this work, claim that the taxes would be too heavy.

An additional list of jurors was drawn yesterday for the present term of the common pleas court. The names drawn are: Henry Winn, P. H. Diter, J. F. Aigler, F. A. Arnold, M. P. Foster, H. S. Salts, Peter C. Sims, S. Regan, J. F. Smith, G. W. Walters, Ed Haren, Charles Ebert, R. J. Dunning, C. E. Demas, A. Swinkovitch, T. J. Koch, William Dunning, A. D. Downs, A. F. James Hamilton, who claims that he is a Kansas farmer, was found in a patch of weeds near Wood street yesterday morning in an unconscious condition. He was removed to No. 2 police station by Sergeant Dick Wilson, where he was cared for until the patrol wagon arrived and took him to Bethany hospital. When first found it was thought that he had been assaulted and robbed, but after being taken to the station he regained consciousness and stated that he suddenly became sick and fell in the weeds.

The outside entries are beginning to come in, and there will probably be a very large number of the best amateur riders in the state present at the time.

ARGENTINE.

An Effort Is Being Made to Secure a Pardon From the Penitentiary for Jacob Myers.

Jacob Myers, who is now serving a term in the Kansas state penitentiary for grand larceny, is making an effort to secure a pardon. He is being aided by friends. Myers was arrested in the fall of 1893 on a charge of stealing about $75 from a safe in the office of Jerome Russell, the ice and coal dealer, of Metropolitan avenue. He was tried and convicted in the common pleas court of this county in November of that year, and is now serving a six year sentence. His wife and eight small children reside in the West end addition. The winter following Myers' conviction the entire family was in extremely destitute circumstances, and were threatened with starvation, but were furnished relief by the city and by neighbors. Mrs. Myers made application for divorce from her husband and the suit is now awaiting trial.

Indignant Citizens.

There were some very indignant citizens about town yesterday. At a recent citizens' meeting, W. W. Anderson, chosen secretary, and was instructed to present the petition adopted to the city council. The petition was in regard to the resolutions passed by the council reducing the police force and abolishing the fire department. The expression of the meeting was in opposition to the council's action. When the council met Tuesday night the petition was not presented and the council did nothing regarding the matter. Now people who attended the citizens' meeting blame Anderson for not having the petition before the council.

The church was crowded.

INDEPENDENCE.

A Boy Confesses That He Is a Member of a Gang of Juvenile Thieves—Preparing to Go to Mexico.

Walter Boley, a boy 12 years of age, was placed under arrest yesterday for petit larceny. He was charged with stealing several articles of small value from W. S. Ratekin, a farmer who lives east of Independence. Young Boley, when arrested, broke down completely and confessed that he was the youngest of a band of boys leagued together to steal. Four other boys were in the gang and he said they led him into trouble. Their favorite method of getting away from home was to organize a coon hunt to quiet the suspicions of their parents. They had a rendezvous in the cliffs along the Spring branch road. Boley gave the names of his companions yesterday to the police and stated that they were preparing to run off on a trip to Old Mexico. Young Boley's story caused some surprise to the police, for all of the boys are of good parentage, but have been allowed to run the streets after night. Farmers interested in the capture of the thieves believe they can now account for the disappearance of small articles in the community east of Independence.

In the Circuit Court.

Susan H. Waldron was awarded $300 damages yesterday in her suit against Kansas City for the grading of Agnes avenue. M. N. Selvey was given a judgment against G. M. The amount involved was $150.

The damage suit of W. S. Madison against the Missouri Pacific railroad for $5,000 on account of a defective crossing on the Franklin farm was called yesterday. The case has been dragging through the courts for several years. At a recent trial Madison secured $2,000 damages, but a new trial was secured by the railroad. Madison attempted to drive a team on the railroad with a load of hay. The wagon turned over and his ankle was crushed. The case will be resumed to-day.

Died at the Age of 105 Years.

Jerry Collins, a colored man, died at the county farm Tuesday night at the age of 105 years. He was credited with being one of the oldest of his race in Jackson county. Two months ago, too decrepit to make a living any longer, he was admitted to the farm. Jerry soon grew to be a favorite with the stewards, for the story of his past life would equal fiction. Born in old Virginia, he was carried across to the Mississippi river to work on a plantation. Not being satisfied, he managed to escape, but was recaptured. He was then sold and fell into the hands of a kind-hearted master, with whom he stayed until the war made him free. For the past forty years Jerry has made his home at Westport.

Burglars Steal Wine and Cigars.

Joseph Poggenphol, a dispenser of drinks on the north side of the square, was busy yesterday estimating the cost of a raid made by thieves on his wines and liquors Tuesday night. Between the hours of 12 and 6 o'clock some one managed to effect an entrance through a back entrance into the saloon. The cigar case was broken and about the till rifled, but the amount of quite a quantity of fine liquors were taken.

An attempt was also made to enter the store adjoining Poggenphol's saloon. Here the thieves cut through the rear of Knepper & Nagle's, but failed to get in.

An open meeting of the Commercial Club will be held to-night, and the citizens of Independence who are interested in sewerage are invited to be present. Hon. E. D. Gates, John A. Sarsfield, Paxton and W. S. Flournoy will be the speakers of the evening, and these gentlemen will come prepared with facts relative to the sewerage question. There has been much discussion of late as to the manner and cost of building district sewers, and the meeting promises to be a lively one, with the people of Independence on this subject.

Will Have a Hunting Ground.

The lakes at Lake City, which have been a favorite place for sportsmen to hunt during duck season, have been leased by the Independence Shooting Club which hereafter will have a monopoly of the sport in that particular locality. A lease has been secured for five years and will be posted. The club has sufficient funds at its command to prosecute trespassers. The place is a favored spot for hunters all over the county.

Bullard, superintendent of telegraphy for the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad, to-day recovered a valuable gold watch which was taken from him by train robbers at Blackstone switch, I. Mr. Bullard's chain is in the possession of the United States court at Fort Smith, Ark., having been found on one of the captured bandits, and it will be returned to him after the trial of the train robbers.

NEWS FROM LEAVENWORTH.

THE TRIAL OF CAPTAIN KIRKMAN BY COURT-MARTIAL CONTINUES.

Charges Against Him Said to Be of a Serious Nature—Answer Filed in the Medill Will Contest—Miscellaneous News.

The court-martial of Captain Joel T. Kirkman, of the Tenth infantry, was resumed at Fort Leavenworth yesterday behind closed doors. To a Journal reporter who presented himself for admittance the judge advocate explained that ordinary court-martials were open to the public, there being no desire whatever on the part of the military to muzzle or abridge the rights of the press, of which he spoke in the highest terms.

The case being one, however, where the members of the families of two army officers were deeply concerned, it had been deemed for the best interests of the service that as little publicity as possible should be given to the proceedings and General Merritt had so ordered.

While the general may have taken this position in the premises, the army in general and the public at large are extremely interested in the proceedings and the Journal reporter made every effort to get at the bottom facts and the testimony given.

Although he was denied the privilege of seeing the formal charges and specifications against Captain Kirkman by Captain Barrett, of the same regiment, he was authoritatively told that they were of the most serious nature and that Mrs. Littell, wife of Lieutenant Littell, of the Tenth infantry, was the party toward whom Captain Kirkman is charged with conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman.

The scope of Captain Kirkman's alleged discourtesy was at Fort Reno.

Mrs. Littell is spoken of in the highest possible terms and not the breath of suspicion attaches to her unfortunate connection with this case.

Captain Kirkman, the defendant, is a brother of Vice President Kirkman of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, and has other very influential friends.

The alleged disturbance by Captain Kirkman in the Captain Barrett houses had to do with the civil courts and there is now pending before the United States commissioner in Oklahoma a case charging Captain Kirkman with burglary and he has given bonds for his appearance at a preliminary hearing in said court.

The witnesses for the prosecution finished their testimony yesterday and the defense was commenced. It is probable that the proceedings will be concluded to-day.

The usual form of sending the final proceedings to the secretary of war for approval will have to be observed and it will be some time before the result of the trial will be known.

Made Answer.

In the district court yesterday afternoon Sherman Medill, as executor of the estate of James Medill, deceased, made answer to the suit brought by his sister, Nana Medill, to break the will of her father on the ground that he was of unsound mind when the instrument was drawn.

All the allegations of the plaintiff are denied and it is shown that the entire estate bequeathed by Mr. Medill did not exceed $80,000, instead of the $300,000 claimed in Miss Medill's contest proceedings. It also shows that Miss Medill acknowledged receipt of the $17,000 left to her, together with the family residence on Fifth avenue, and it is charged that she wrongfully sold and appropriated to her own use certain articles that did not belong to her by the terms of the will. Lucien Baker, William Dill and Jesse George appear as attorneys for Sherman Medill.

WHEAT EXCITED AND ERRATIC

IT OPENED STRONG BUT WEAKENED AND CLOSED 1-8c LOWER.

Corn Was Dull, Losing 1-8c—Oats Were Featureless and Unchanged and Provisions Finished With Slight Declines.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Wheat went up with a whirl and down with a thud to-day, closing 1c lower for December. Shorts were scared by last night's bulge on the curb, but the advance tempted longs, whose realizing resulted in the closing break. May corn lost ½c, May oats closed unchanged and provisions declined slightly.

Wheat showed decided strength most of the session, but weakened at the finish. The bulge started on the curb yesterday afternoon on a dispatch from London, saying that Russia was now offering very little wheat, the current shipments being wheat sold some time ago for September and October shipment. A good deal of this strength was left over and affected the market at the opening and there were a good many orders from the outside brought in by the news of the advance which went out last night. The fact that the Northwest deliveries were only about two-thirds of what they were yesterday and less than they were a year ago also tended to strengthen the situation, as did stronger Liverpool cables. Shorts were much alarmed at the situation and there was a free covering while the scalpers got bullish and bought for the long account, and the offerings were for a time rather meager, but later there was a cable from Liverpool saying that the world's shipments last week of wheat were over 100,000 bushels, instead of a little over 7,000,000 bushels as announced yesterday, and the market began to weaken. Lucky Jones began to realize profits and there was free short selling, under which the price went off 1½c from the high point, when the liberal shipments from the interior checked the decline and sent prices up again. December opened at 69 cents, held for a time at 69¾c, broke to 69c, back to 69¼c, and at noon was 69½c.

The market turned extremely weak during the last hour, for no especial reason that realized, unless it was that our cash markets generally tried to sell at once to overcome shippers quickly from 50c to 2c and thus weaken values.

Corn was dull and weak when relieved from the pressure of a few days ago, but in the wheat it was weak and generally lower and a shade higher, but the values were all just about somewhere towards the close. May kept within the range of 29¾c and 29¾c and was last around 29¾c, or 1c lower than yesterday. The latest trading in May was 29¾c. The day's range in December was 29¾c to 29¼c, and the latter was the closing figure, or ½c lower than at the close of yesterday. Receipts were a little larger than yesterday, as well as shipments. Statistically, at Chicago, Minneapolis and Milwaukee, there was a decrease in the visible supply of wheat of 1,000,000 bushels, and a decrease in corn of 1,000,000 bushels. The provision market presented a quiet appearance and did not get far away from the figures of yesterday. There was much of a little movement, but it broke down in the end, the prices being lower than they closed yesterday. Pork is 2½c lower, and unchanged for October and 2½c lower for January and ribs 2½c. Lower for October and 5c for January.

Indian Remains Discovered.

Coffeyville, Kas., Sept. 25.—(Special.) Three Indian skeletons were unearthed here yesterday afternoon by the workmen on the water works trenches. They were about three feet below the surface and were surrounded by large flat stones. Brass buttons, pieces of blankets and moccasins were found with the remains. The latter still had a large number of beads on them. Some of the bones are unusually large and must be the remains of a man of gigantic stature.
