SALVATION ARMY CHRISTMAS TIDINGS.

The Salvation army throughout the United States, will as usual celebrate Christmas by making a feast for the poor.

Last year 150,000 poor people were given dinners on Christmas day.

This year a greater effort than ever before is being set forth to supply the demand on this occasion.

In New York city, Madison square garden has been secured for the occasion. In this building nearly 30,000 people will be seated at the table for Christmas dinner at one time.

Each of the seven hundred corps in the United States, of which Guthrie is one, are going to do their part in this effort.

The local corps in Guthrie is commanded by Captains Breeding and Le Comet, who, with the soldiers and friends, are going to arrange the dinner.

Suggestions as to families who are in need of help in any way will be promptly attended.

In addition to donations of cash and food for this effort, second hand clothes will be received by the officers in charge for distribution among the poor.

The dinner will be given in the Army hall on Division street and basket dinners will be sent out to those who, on account of sickness or for other reasons cannot attend.

Solomon, Kas., Dec. 14.—George Hoffman, a non-union Santa Fe agent, was visited by a crowd of toughs last night, threatened with violence, and ordered to leave town.

"TWO MARRIED MEN."

All London and New York has laughed at Geo. Ederson's new comedy, "Two Married Men," which will appear at the Brooks theater next Monday evening. It is brim full of mirth provoking situations, bright and sparkling dialogue, novel specialties and pretty girls. The company contains such well known comedians as B. S. Simpson, W. J. Parker, Wm. Brunnage, Jack Elliott, Joe Harkins, Alexander Henry and among the clever lady artists are Miss Kittie Ridgeway, Mable Clark, Sisters Myers, Anna Houck, Janet Cleveland, May Towne, Edith Lyale and Hattie Westcourt. All the scenery and paraphernalia used in the production are carried by the company.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are dainty little pills, but they never fail to cleanse the liver, remove obstructions and invigorate the system.

"TWO MARRIED MEN."

One of the funniest scenes in "Two Married Men" is the initiation of Carnaby Fix into the Mystic Order of Red Fellows. Everybody can appreciate it and to many it will bring back fond recollections of the night they "rode the goat." The characters in this merry comedy are all well drawn and are interpreted by a company of actors especially adapted to farce comedy. They come highly recommended by the Eastern press and will no doubt repeat here the success which has attended them in the Eastern cities. The comedy will appear at the Brooks theater on next Monday.
