The coal mines at Henryetta, I. T., have resumed operations. A number of miners are at work, and more are being employed. Henryetta is on the extension of the Frisco south from Sapulpa, and is said to be in the best mining country in the two territories. The coal is from three to six feet thick, at a depth of thirty to 150 feet. The Frisco will encourage coal mining business at that place.

The Vinita Chieftain thinks the earthquake in Oklahoma was a reaction of the South McAlester convention. The Chieftain will keep on rubbing until General Hartford will go over on the "Half" shore for and snatch somebody bald-headed.

Are You Worried?

At this season, with the details and daily perplexities of your Christmas shopping?

Is there a feel of constant "at sea" feeling about meeting your expectations and intentions with the work in hand?

Are you continually being disappointed by that uncertain "I don't know" feeling?

If so, we have a remedy which has been tried and which we feel, in your present mood, will not be found wanting.

The largest stock of everything for the Christmas trade ever brought to Oklahoma. 'Nough said. Respectfully, your friends,

Never had so many toys and never had toys at such little prices.

Toys that "go" have the call.

The rag doll and the painted hobby horses, that satisfied us in our childhood days won't satisfy young America.

He or she must have toys that "do something." The "do something" kind are here in great abundance.

Locomotives that run.

Motor cars that you can hardly stop.

Bears that jump.

Dogs that bark.

Mules that balk.

Watches that go as long as you wind them and so on; all kinds and prices of toys.

The time between now and Christmas is short. Better buy now while the selection is full. It is easier and then it is off your mind.
