SENATE VOTE TO IMPEACH ARCHBOLD

VOTE STOOD SIXTY-EIGHT TO FIVE FOR CONVICTION

GUILTY ON FIRST, THIRD, FOURTH COUNTS; NOT GUILTY ON SECOND

Charged With Soliciting Favors From Erie Railroad; Wife Present at Trial

(By Associated Press)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—A verdict of guilty was voted by the senate on the first impeachment charge against Judge Archbald of the commerce court. That he had wrongfully influenced the Erie railroad officials to grant him an option on the Gravel refuse coal dump, owned by a subsidiary of the railroad. Consideration on the remaining charges filed against him will not be necessary to remove Archbald from the bench. The vote on the first count was recorded against Judge Archbald by 68 votes. The senate then proceeded to vote on the other five articles of the impeachment.

The senators who voted against the resolution were Burnham, Catron, Crane, Poindexter and Penrose. Several senators asked to be excused from voting. Mrs. Archbald, who has been at her husband's trial every day, heard the senate's decision from the gallery.

"Not guilty" was the verdict on the second count. Conviction was voted on both the third and fourth counts.

Gilchrist Stewart, the negro law clerk who told recently of the selling of the Archbald letters to the New York American, told the senate committee today that while in Chicago in December he was kidnapped by gangsters, taken to the office of the Chicago Examiner and sold copies of two letters from former Senator Foraker. He said the kidnappers told him they were police officers and that the Examiner office was the police station.

Among the senators who voted for conviction were Cullom, Brown, Reed, Shively, Owen and Gore.
