SKIN TROUBLE ON OUR BABY GIRL

Started Under Chin and On Neck. Itched and Burned. So Cross and Fretful Couldn't Sleep. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. In Four Weeks Well.

R. F. D. No. 1, Millwood, W. Va.—"Our baby girl took skin trouble when one year old. It started under her chin and on her neck. Just a few pimples, and then these knots came as large as a hickory nut. The sores came in a little pimple, red all around and were all inflamed. She cried as if they itched and burned. She was so cross and fretful we couldn't sleep or do anything but care for her.

"I tried lots of things but she didn't get any better. A neighbor asked why I didn't try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. So I went and got one cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Ointment. I could see it was getting better. I washed the places with the Cuticura Soap and put the Ointment on. In four weeks she was well." (Signed) Mrs. Frances Stover, October 28, 1914.

WILDCAT BOND CASE STILL ON THE BOARDS

FAMOUS ST. CLAIR COUNTY LITIGATION SHOWS 300 THOUSAND JUDGMENT

(By Associated Press.)

Kansas City, Mo., June 24.—The transactions which led to the court proceedings here today in the St. Clair county bond case were part of the "railroad building era" of the early seventies when financing methods that excelled the "wild cat" mining schemes of Colorado and Nevada were common throughout the country. The bonds were issued by St. Clair county in 1871 to promoters who promised to build the Tebo and Neosho Railway. The road never reached the county and its citizens today are still striving to escape payment for the indiscretion of their grandfathers.

The promoters sold the bonds to innocent purchasers. The county never reimbursed the purchasers and to do so now, with accumulated interest, some of it as high as ten per cent, would be equivalent to selling out the entire county.

The bond holders sued and were given judgment but these two, have never been paid. Unless a judgment is reversed before ten years expires, it is outlawed. So every nine years, for nearly forty years, holders of the bonds have sought renewals of these judgments. The latest proceeding of this kind was taken in April, 1914, when petitions were filed in the name of William J. Douglas, claiming $463,055, and Joseph B. J. Barton and Charles Townsend, claiming $197,570. They represented only part of the claimants.

June 10 of this year a writ of mandamus was made out in secret so that county judges and officials could not avoid service, and was made returnable before the United State district court on June 25. Service was completed June 15.

The writ, made out in the name of the United States "to the use" of J. S. Townsend, J. R., and others of Philadelphia, was directed against J. T. Bunch, T. J. Holland and W. A. Shryer, newly elected county judges; William J. Mathews, collector; John M. Harper, treasurer, and George Virgil Higgins, county clerk, all of Osceola, Mo. They were directed to show cause why they should not order a tax levy of $100,000 to be applied on the judgment obtained by the Townsend party of bond holders. The judgment of this group totals $328,162.43 and most of it bears ten per cent interest.

TEACHER WHO TALKED TOO MUCH IS FIRED

SCOTT NEARING LOSES PLACE IN PENN 'VARSITY; INTEMPERATE WORDS

Philadelphia, Pa., June 24.—Intemperate utterances said to have been made to his class at the University of Pennsylvania by Scott Nearing, an associate professor, led to the decision of the board of trustees not to re-employ Mr. Nearing when his contract expires at the close of the spring terms, according to a statement issued tonight by John C. Bell, a member of the board.

When it became known that Professor Nearing had not been reappointed his friends at once began a campaign of protest against the action of the trustees.

In giving his reasons for voting against re-employment of Professor Nearing, Mr. Bell says:

"I do so in the discharge of my duty as trustee, because I believe that the good of the service and of the university required me to do so, and because of professorial utterances in the university unbecoming a teacher and against the best interests of the institution and its student body.

"I do not question for a moment Dr. Nearing's right to entertain and publicly express his views upon social, political and economical questions, though all will concede that even the rights of freedom of speech and of free academic discussion may be abused and should be exercised with a decent regard for the opinions of others."

Bilious Attacks.

This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

STOOD TEST IN STATE COURT.

Oklahoma City, June 24.—The "grandfather clause" of the Oklahoma constitution was adopted as an amendment at a special election held Aug. 2, 1910. A majority of 29,221 was obtained out of a total vote of 241,655. Several prosecutions were had under the law, and both the state and federal courts decided cases.

The state supreme court, in an opinion by Judge Williams, now governor, Oct. 26, 1910, sustained the law.

Governor Williams today said that he did not care to make any comment on the decision in the United States supreme court until he has read it in full.

The section as it has been enforced provides a reading and writing test for all persons offering to vote whose ancestors did not have the right of suffrage prior to 1866. An exception protected illiterate Indians and threw the whole weight of the test upon the negroes. The decision handed down by the federal supreme court was not unexpected. Estimates as to the number of voters affected vary from 10,000 to 20,000.

FAMOUS $25,000 KISS COSTS OCCULIST $350

Chicago, Ill., June 24.—"The celebrated $25,000 kiss" cost Dr. P. D. Paul only $350.

Mrs. Mollie Mabs today dismissed her damage suit against Dr. Paul in the superior court. He is an oculist and aurist.

Mrs. Mabs valued the kiss at $25,000. Incidentally, she wanted a little compensation thrown in also for the loss of her eyesight. She did not become blind as a result of the kiss. The one was merely incident to the other.

Dr. Paul admitted he had made a cash settlement to get rid of the suit. His attorney, H. L. Howard, and Mrs. Mabs' lawyer, R. R. Longenecker, assisted in determining the terms of settlement.

"We just figured out how much it would cost to try the case in court, and I paid that amount," said Dr. Paul.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of mess.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.
