OBREGON WANTS U. S. TROOPS TO QUIT MAN HUNT

BORDER CONFERENCE MARKS TIME WHILE WORD FROM WASHINGTON IS AWAITED

CARRANZA TROOPS UNDER FORCED MARCH, ARRIVE

FUNSTON'S MEN WARY AND TROUBLE AND TREACHERY IS NOW FEARED

(BULLETIN.)

El Paso, May 1.—Obregon's troops are massing on the north. Additional troops came in over night on forced marches, it was learned this afternoon. Trouble following the termination of the conference is feared.

El Paso, Texas, May 1.—A postponement of the Scott-Funston-Obregon conference was made so undersecretary till late today, possibly tomorrow when the administration will have had time to fully digest the report sent to Washington.

It is understood that General Scott and Funston have asked permission to take up in all its phases the question of withdrawing the troops from Mexico. It is not believed that the conference held here will settle the question.

It is believed that Obregon has undertaking to discuss cooperation of Americans with the Carranza forces in crushing the Villa bands, and urge the American troops to retire to a limited and restricted district south of the border, for the mutual effect it will have on Mexico. The Villa hunt has roused the fear of the lower class of Mexicans, he says, and they look at it in the light of persecution.

Conference Near End

El Paso, Texas, May 1.—Funston announced this afternoon that only one more conference would be held with the Mexican representatives on the military question now in dispute between this country and Mexico. He said it would be brief.

Scott and Funston are awaiting a reply from Washington before setting the time for the conference.

GUS CARSON WAS SLAIN BY HIGHWAYMEN

PARTICULARS GIVEN BY EL PASO PAPER OF FORMER GUTHRIE MAN'S DEATH

The Leader in a week ago noted an announcement of the death of Gus Carson, formerly of this city and brother of Miss Alice Carson, at Kingman, in New Mexico. Arrangements for bringing the body to Guthrie for burial were cancelled but information made in New Mexico it now develops that Carson was murdered.

The El Paso Herald of April 24 gives the following details:

Alamogordo, N. M., April 24.—Gus Carson was found dead yesterday morning near his home at Brownsville mining camp, three miles west of Orogrande and 45 miles north of El Paso. A wound in his breast evidently produced death and a single barrel shotgun presumably the one with which the death just was fired, was lying across him.

The job has not been identified, and there are no clues as to the identity of the one who killed the elevator according to reports received here by Sheriff Hunter's office.

Carson was a prospector a part of the time, and at other times worked in the mines and for the railroads. He was between 35 and 40 years of age and had no family at Brownsville.

Apparently killed in battle with highwaymen, the body of Gus Carson, a mining man and said to be a dis-

CROP TONE IN COUNTY BEST IN MANY YEARS

INDICATIONS SHOW FARM CONDITIONS ARE HIGHLY PROSPEROUS NOW

FRUIT CROP IS HURT, BUT OTHER LINES GOOD

PASTURE AND LIVE STOCK CONDITIONS FAR ABOVE NORMAL

Reports from all parts of Oklahoma, according to the monthly crop summary for April just issued by the state board of agriculture, indicate the most prosperous year in the history of Oklahoma.

The promising condition of the winter wheat crop, the gradually shifting away from the cotton crop idea, and the corn and oats and alfalfa crops, the increased farming in the counties, in the state, and farmers generally are saying more wheat, more alfalfa, potatoes and fruit and less cotton. Farmers who formerly looked to the cotton bale for a living are now learning how to live on the proceeds of small patches of land.

Crop conditions in Logan county are very good.

Logan County.

The rainfall in this county during March was below the average but the April average was seven inches above normal. Soil conditions are ideal for all crops for planting a three or four weeks period. All growing crops are in good condition. Cool, damp weather is favorable to wheat and oats. Data from reports from these crops indicate that a bumper corn and cotton crop will be seen in this county. Stock averaged twenty-five and one-half per cent and one-half per cent less than last year. Rains fell in some parts of the county.

Communications are busy but the roads are in good condition.

The work on the court house in the county seat is progressing rapidly.

Logan County farmers are planning to put more land than last year in the following crops: Corn, cotton, oats, potatoes, alfalfa, and fruit.
