MEDICINES, LIKE MEN.

Have Character — Appearance, Quality, Merit, Results.

The first favorable impression made by Hood's Sarsaparilla is confirmed and intensified on further acquaintance. It is a harmonious combination of remedies of the best kind, perfect pharmaceutical skill, in the proper proportion to make a medicine of the highest value. And in the opinion of many it proves to possess the most wonderful curative power which America has ever produced.

On this point and also, which of course is the most important, let Hood's Sarsaparilla speak for itself. Hundreds have been demonstrating its merit for years in relieving scrofulous conditions, such as boils, eruptions, blotches, salt rheum, general debility, loss of appetite, lack of health, poor digestion, kidney and liver troubles.

For your humor in any form, we strongly urge a fair trial of Hood's. That tired feeling, take Hood's to tone up the system. It will do you good.

WAR IS HELPING CAUSE OF WOMEN SAYS PANKHURST

SUFFRAGE CERTAIN WHEN STRIFE ENDS, IS PROMISE OF NOTED LEADER

Rome, May 10.—"It won't be necessary for women to march with men and go in call to get their rights when this war is over," said Miss Christabel Pankhurst, the correspondent of The Associated Press during her visit here for the purpose of forming a women's organization of the women of Italy, allied with those of France and Russia.

"This war is helping the cause of women wonderfully," she continued. "We are in part for men with all our might, with all our strength, and I am sure they will appreciate this fact when the war is over. Women unique than will be incredibly advanced, practically fifty years ahead of where it was before the war started. There has been an exception for instance, of the amount of physical destruction caused by it, but one can not consider the mental awakening it has brought, and this means a broader outlook on the position of woman.

"This mental quite revolution was seen under both in England and in Germany. I feel that in helping to down Germany as the women of England, France, Italy and Russia are doing in their physical work, we are putting down the most sinister of womankind. The Kaiser, you know, has always frustrated the efforts of German women to rise from their subordinate position, and in typifying the attitude of the German men. At that, however, the German women will have to fight out their own salvation after the war along with the men. They won't get any help from it. There has been too much international sleep-walking. Now it will be a matter for each nation to solve many of its own problems and in particular the German nation.

"England has been driven out of conservatism at last. We women have shown English men that we are worth something. That we are not inferior creatures. I am sure that if women had had a say in the conduct of the war England would have been ready quicker. One of our misfortunes has been that the young men, the open minded men, have gone on the front to right leaving the old, slow minded men in charge. Take the case of the effort to get steel helmets for the men so that they might be protected from bullets and especially from bits of exploding shells. After these helmets had proven useful in France, the old men in England were still discussing the advisability of using them.

"If women had been in charge of the supplying of their soldiers with protecting helmets, do you suppose they would have hesitated to manufacture them in a hurry. Women are too [illegible] for that. Besides their wits are sharp enough to see that their boys would have need them on [illegible]

"Possibly the largest lesson for us women in this war is regards us in that women know how to do many things and often better than men. For instance, women are driving motor cars, are working on the farms, even in the factories, everywhere. In England we have once more learned the lesson in the dignity of labor with the hands and with woman's hands at that. To-day no woman in England, no matter what her rank, is afraid to work and this is a lesson we in England will not forget after the war. That's one reason why I have always admired the people in the United States—they appreciate the honor of labor, of hard work, and are not ashamed of it. And they own it if their wealth makes them never forget this truth.

"This dignity of labor of woman's labor is going to have a large influence on the marriage question and the question of population. It has been asked: 'What will become of the young men of Europe at marriageable age after the war is over, when there are not enough husbands to go around or when the men feel themselves too poor to get married and assume the responsibilities of family life?'

"Well, the women who never get married will bear their lot as they have always borne it, they will work and keep on contributing their services to the nation, in a much greater degree than in the past. But we must admit that a happy marriage is the only sensible thing for any woman, and I think that the marrying man's lot of poverty will be gotten around in this way. Women are ready to work hard outside of their homes, there is no longer any stigma attached to it, and they will keep on doing so. Young men engaged with that in their mind will be more than the former.

RED PIMPLES A SOLID SCALE

All Over Fingers. Special Over Both Hands. Itched and Burned So Could Not Sleep.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

My trouble started with pimples and blackheads on all over my fingers which caused sore and red. At night while they itched so I could not sleep. My hands were much inflamed and the little red pimples were so tender it was painful to touch for days. Doctors gave me little relief. I was advised to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I found on first application that I could not sleep that night for the pain.

I continued for about four weeks, when the inflammation was gone and the pimples were good as better and I have been free ever since. Two days after the trouble had started and the morning it was first noticed I took a large box of Cuticura ointment and a cake of Cuticura Soap and retired. SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by bottling a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
