HUGE CROWD HEAR SPLENDID CONCERT LAST NIGHT

Prof Ryan had a splendid program arranged for the concert and the members of the band entered into the rendition of the various numbers with an enthusiastic spirit.

The Booster band concerts this season have drawn the largest crowds since the organization of the band, and the grade of music rendered has been of a grade that would compare favorably with the best bands of the country. Throughout the season Phil Heimann following his usual general custom, has furnished seats for the crowd, which has been a convenient feature of the concerts and highly appreciated. CENTRAL NORMAL TEAM DEFEATS METHODISTS

HUSKY NORMALITES TOO MUCH FOR BOYS OF O M U, WHO PUT UP STIFF GAME NOTWITHSTANDING

Amidst a shower of rain and a mass of boys that nearly Central Normal football squad took the O M U team to a good thrashing yesterday on Wantland field at Edmond and that is a full description of the game, score and all. The Methodists were clearly outclassed early in the contest, but in spite of that stayed gamely in the game, and were going very hard when the referee's whistle blew at the end of the last quarter of play. Coach Rutledge expressed himself as disappointed at the final outcome but said: "We are going to play Central more, in our class the rest of the season. Next week's game is with the Catholic University of Oklahoma and Guthrie is going to win that." This was the sentiment of the whole team, who came out of the Edmond game elated by some good practice in tackling and interference.

All of the men stayed doggedly with the game even when it was lost, but particularly strong was the work of Captain Alling, who repeatedly broke through the Edmond line and intercepted plays; the tackling of Taggart and Stark was also of high order, as well as the punting of Baer. "We're sure going to have every man out and practice hard all next week," was the sentiment of one player, and that statement was prevalent through the squad.

The officials were: Dr Cloodman (Brown), referee, and Arnett (Baker), umpire.

SLAYER OF MANY HAD OKLAHOMA WOMAN ON LIST

AGED MAN SENT TO PRISON FOR LIFE; MANY TRAGEDIES IN CAREER

KILLED WOMAN FOR FEW DOLLARS; LIFE'S SAVINGS

SUDDEN DEATHS NUMEROUS IN FAMILY OF MAN WHO FINALLY TELLS LIFE STORY

Grand Rapids, Mich Oct 7—William Alerton, confessed murderer of Mrs. Hannah St Johns for her life's savings of a few hundred dollars, is on his way to the state prison at Jackson, where he will be confined for the remainder of his life.

Just prior to his departure Alerton made an attempt at suicide. He was found by an attendant in the jail to secrete some of his personal effects. Unnoticed by the officers he secured a small rope and secreted it in his pocket. Once in his cell, he was actively engaged in an attempt to hang himself when discovered.

Alerton's Past Laid Bare

Alerton today was identified as a man who for several years lived on a farm near Mancelona, Mich., under the name of Scott Mansell.

Several years ago, according to Sheriff Barry, Mansell's son, Alvah, was killed in the woods near the Mansell home following a quarrel with his father. Mansell was arrested, but later was released.

Sometime after this Mansell's wife died mysteriously and before an autopsy could be performed the body had been buried. Again Mansell was under suspicion, but no action was ever taken.

Two More Sudden Deaths

Less than a year later Alerton went to New York on a visit. While there two maiden sisters died suddenly, and Alerton returned to Michigan with the family wealth.

Alerton is silent as to his past.

"I have got to go to prison for the rest of my life," he said, "and I will talk no more. If the court had been a little easy on me a man 83 years old, I might have told more. They may investigate my past; they can charge me with the murder of my wife and my son—but I will never admit them. I'll admit nothing now."

Other Women Alerton Knew

Other women brought into the case today through correspondence with Alerton are: Mrs Emma Dudley Portland, Idaho; Hanna C Thomas, Goodland, Ind; Mary May Musted, Hot Springs, Ark; Mrs. M V Rogersdon, South Bend, Ind; Mrs H E Phillips, Salem, Ore; Mrs. Mary Conyman, Washington, Ind; Emily Mason, Mayville, Okla; Mrs L Mills, Minneapolis; Mrs Genevieve Minkler, Lebanon, Ind; Mrs Nellie Caswell, Maynard, Ia; Mrs Jennie Leist, Huffton, Ind; Mrs Nellie Musgrove, Alabama.
