BOSTON	3	7	1
BROOKLYN	4	10	0

Boston scored twice in the sixth and once in the seventh; Brooklyn scored once in the third and fourth and twice in the fifth.

Brooklyn, N Y, Oct 10—Brooklyn won their first game in the world's series today by turning back the Boston Americans, four to three.

Brooklyn's lusty and timely stick work brought the winning runs. The Dodgers had no trouble in negotiating May's underhand ball.

The home folks played a sharp fielding game. Veteran Jack Coombs started for Brooklyn, but he began weakening in the sixth, when Boston put over two runs and in the seventh when Gardner knocked a home run Coombs signaled for a relief pitcher.

Brooklyn, Oct 10 — The world's championship baseball series was transferred to Ebbitts field today.

The Boston team came in last night and was followed by 5,000 rooters.

The day is clear and cool. Ideal weather for brisk ball work.

Ebbitt's field was packed, 18,000 persons witnessed the game and two or three thousand were turned away.

The Red Sox appeared cocky and confident of winning the third game. The Dodgers were equally as confident and promised hefty results on the home grounds.

"WIMMIN" ARE EXPERTS AT FLY-DROWNING

VISITOR FROM LAND SAKES CREEK, SAYS THEY NAIL 'EM EVERY TIME; LADIES CHAW

Hans Feller of Land Sakes Creek, Arkansas, an old friend of Frank Valentine, is here on a visit.

In conversation yesterday, he said to the newspaper people on the "mule porch" — He dwelt on their primitive customs and explained their efforts to replace modern inventions by old ones.

"Them people out yet. You've got a lot of their kind's teeth, an all that, for each as hain't got no teeth. Now for them as has teeth, teeth as how some make a party good use o'them. Th' still summer kind fly were down thar. Peers as tho they didn't go in the blackberry patch.

"Ye know the ol' wimmin down thar makes hid corn-cob pipes. They scrubbed from sunup to sundown. Hanged in the hillside thar berry patches. Takes one o' the stem kind wuzzes their own jaw teeth out. They also chew tobacco, our wimmin. We say, fellers, our wimmin. We say, fellers, or fly nuzz down thar. When a fly comes arouns' or light on the wall, the wimmin just squirts from atween ther teeth at him—an they git him every time."

McNALLEY, A SUB, IS HERO

You can't say that a little man will do in a world series. He won't get up, of course, against a regular player in any of the sports of our big time circuit. This is what the fans like to see anyway. He can't get a career with the game and if he has his name once flown in lights. Nevertheless there occurred yesterday in Boston, McNalley, the yesterday's game at Boston. McNalley came into the game after the beginning of the fifth inning, as a runner for Gardner, a slick hitter, proved the man by scoring for Boston, in the longest game ever played.
