

ST. MARY'S BEACON

LEONARDTOWN, MD.

THURSDAY MORNING, May 11th, 1876.

The demands upon our space this issue has compelled the postponement for the present of an interesting letter from our St. Louis correspondent...

THE PRIMARY MEETINGS OF SATURDAY NEXT.—Saturday next having been fixed upon by the Central Committee of our party for the Primary Meetings of Democrats in this county...

The electoral ticket is composed of the following named parties: State at Large.—Milton G. Ummer, of Frederick county, and Colonel Samuel A. Graham, of Wisconsin.

The resolutions adopted express a strong preference for Blaine as the Republican candidate for the next presidency and endorse Grant's administration. There was considerable squabbling in the Convention and something very like a bolt on the part of Lowndes' friends when the announcement was reached that the Fulton-Thomas wing had triumphed.

ARREST OF VIOLATORS OF THE OYSTER LAW.—On Monday last the following persons, Wm. B. Gross, Elias F. Gross, Geo. Tarlton, Wm. Russ, Alex. Milburn, Jas. Middleton, Arthur Diggins, Major Gladden, Henry Diggins, Frank Wilson, Hezekiah Fowler, Thos. Clay, J. Barnes, J. Holly, Thos. Milburn, Merrick Gross, Alex. Bennett, J. Leigh, Danl. Stateman, Jas. Clarke, Jas. Wilson, Sam Wilson, Ed. Barnes, Nelson Barnes, G. H. Barnes, Noah Barnes, Sam Somers, Jack Dinmonds, Capt. Sam Trader, Jno. Trader, Jack Yates, John Dent Adams, Isaac Sampson, Geo. R. Cole, John Robinson, Henry H. Wilson, Wash. Lancaster, Jos. Herbert, James Cottingham, John L. Crowder, James Richardson, Thos. Richardson and Jos. H. Mattingly, were arrested by special officer Devereux and carried before Justice Hammett for trial, upon a charge of violating the 13th Section of the Act of 1874, relating to Oysters...

OFF AT LAST.—The property, known as Point Lookout, which we have some recollection of having heard of before, is off at last, having been sold in Baltimore City on Saturday, the 6th inst., for $30,300. Purchaser, Frank Hume, Esq., of Washington City. As Mr. Hume is reported to be a "live man" of liberal means, it is likely that Point Lookout will soon be brought to the front and made to do duty as a first-class Summer resort.

RAIK, ETC.—The copious rains of Monday night and Tuesday last, with the growing weather of to-day, are giving vegetation of all kinds a fair start in life and making everything "to bloom and blossom as the rose, as the tree by the sea-side," etc., etc. The only drawback to this flattering prospect is the presence of the Potato bug in Potato fields and of myriad and multiplying fly among Tobacco plants.

LAND SALE.—Jas. H. Wilson sold on Tuesday last a tract of land known as Grave's Adventure in the upper part of Leonardtown district, containing about 125 acres, for $1080, Purchaser, John Butler. This is thought to be the best price obtained for unimproved land in the county during the year.

COUNTY GRANGE MEETING.—We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of the members of the County Grange at Leonardtown on Thursday next, the 18th inst.

POLITICAL.—The Century of Independence embraces a collection from official sources of the most important documents and statistics connected with the political history of America; also, a chronological record of the principal events from its discovery to the present time, with biographical and historical sketches, etc. Printed in German and English. Nearly 600 pages. Price, $2.00. Send for terms to L. S. FARROW, Indianapolis, Ind.

THE FREDERICK CONVENTION.—The State Republican Convention which met at Frederick on Monday, May 8th, 1876...

First District.—Dr. E. G. Waters, of Dorchester county, and William Perkins, of Kent. Alternates—Joseph Godfrey, of Worcester, and J. Clayton Mallikin, of Talbot.

Second District.—John T. Essor, of Baltimore county, and Col. W. W. McKillop, of Carroll. Alternates—Dr. Weaver, of Carroll, and H. C. Longnecker, of Baltimore county.

Third District.—Robert Tarner, of Baltimore city, and Peter Thompson, of Baltimore city. Alternates—H. C. M. Groom and Jacob Seaton.

Fourth District.—Samuel M. Shoemaker and S. W. Chase, of Baltimore city.

Fifth District.—Dr. W. G. Tuck, of Anne Arundel county, and James A. Gary, of Howard county.

Sixth District.—William Moody, of Garrett county, and J. A. Crockett, of Montgomery county.

The following electors from the Congressional Districts were chosen: First district, Thomas S. Hodson, of Somerset; Second district, Jesse Hillis, of Harford; Third district, Noah Gill, of Baltimore city; Fourth district, Henry Stockbridge, of Baltimore city; Fifth district, A. A. Lawrence, of St. Mary's county; Sixth district, Henry J. Johnson, of Allegany county.

The resolutions adopted express a strong preference for Blaine as the Republican candidate for the next presidency and endorse Grant's administration. There was considerable squabbling in the Convention and something very like a bolt on the part of Lowndes' friends when the announcement was reached that the Fulton-Thomas wing had triumphed.

DEATH OF HON. DANIEL CLARKE.—The death of Hon. Daniel Clarke, of Prince George's county, is announced. Never having heard Mr. Clarke in any form of public discussion and having no personal knowledge of, or acquaintance with, him, we are, of course, incompetent to speak with certainty either of his gifts or of his public or private character. He seems to have arisen at an unusually early age to eminence in his profession and to have distinguished himself still earlier as an able debater and safe leader in political bodies. He was in the 41st year of his age and leaves a wife and five children. His life, we see it stated, was insured for $40,000.

OFF AT LAST.—The property, known as Point Lookout, which we have some recollection of having heard of before, is off at last, having been sold in Baltimore City on Saturday, the 6th inst., for $30,300. Purchaser, Frank Hume, Esq., of Washington City. As Mr. Hume is reported to be a "live man" of liberal means, it is likely that Point Lookout will soon be brought to the front and made to do duty as a first-class Summer resort.

RAIK, ETC.—The copious rains of Monday night and Tuesday last, with the growing weather of to-day, are giving vegetation of all kinds a fair start in life and making everything "to bloom and blossom as the rose, as the tree by the sea-side," etc., etc. The only drawback to this flattering prospect is the presence of the Potato bug in Potato fields and of myriad and multiplying fly among Tobacco plants.

LAND SALE.—Jas. H. Wilson sold on Tuesday last a tract of land known as Grave's Adventure in the upper part of Leonardtown district, containing about 125 acres, for $1080, Purchaser, John Butler. This is thought to be the best price obtained for unimproved land in the county during the year.

COUNTY GRANGE MEETING.—We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of the members of the County Grange at Leonardtown on Thursday next, the 18th inst.

POLITICAL.—The Century of Independence embraces a collection from official sources of the most important documents and statistics connected with the political history of America; also, a chronological record of the principal events from its discovery to the present time, with biographical and historical sketches, etc. Printed in German and English. Nearly 600 pages. Price, $2.00. Send for terms to L. S. FARROW, Indianapolis, Ind.

POLITICAL.—The Century of Independence embraces a collection from official sources of the most important documents and statistics connected with the political history of America; also, a chronological record of the principal events from its discovery to the present time, with biographical and historical sketches, etc. Printed in German and English. Nearly 600 pages. Price, $2.00. Send for terms to L. S. FARROW, Indianapolis, Ind.

CONFIDENTIAL.—Your editorial notice of the Senatorial election...

It is said to have been a very close contest in the Senatorial election. The result was a surprise to many. The Senatorial election was held on Monday, May 8th, 1876. The candidates were...

(Correspondence of the Beacon.) ALLEGANY Co., April 30, 1876.

We were among the number, Messrs. Editors, who determined to visit Big Rock, which is considered the highest peak of the Alleghenies in Maryland, commonly called Davis Mountain. Saddle our horses accordingly, and started. After leaving our town, (Lonscouing) we jogged along through the mountains enjoying the scenery, with nothing to interrupt us except the occasional whirr of a raven or crow, or the cry of an unarméd condor, and passing on round through the valleys for six or seven miles when we reached the foot of the mountain on which is situated the rock. After making our steeds fast, we began to scramble for the top. In the upward tramp one scarcely enjoys any ascent until the pinnacle is reached, when apparently the whole world presents itself to you. You can scarcely realize its vastness. Miles and miles in every direction as far as the eye can reach can be seen. Looking down upon the valleys are seen farms of 50 or 75 acres, seeming like small gardens. On one side is a magnificent view of Frostburg, and on the opposite Cumberland and Romney.

Further, it was not alone between the Senatorial candidates that errors occurred in the returns. It was proven in the returns from the 2nd district that there had occurred a mistake in the returns for Sheriff of fifteen votes, also in that of Col. Miles for Judge of the Orphan's Court of fifty odd votes, and I might go and mention others if necessary. Now, these general errors being proven, and the contest in the case having positively refused to charge Capt. Wise or Mr. Scott with any fraudulent action in the premises, it is difficult to understand by what law, authority of precedent the Chairman of the Committee on Elections could or should have made the little irregularity in the returns from the 2nd district ground for overturning all the other evidence diametrically opposed to that evidence, unless, as before said, there existed some eighty reason why it should be done. That reason was not difficult to find, even by the light of the slight knowledge I was able to obtain of the workings of that powerful and unscrupulous political Ring which has and continues to control the action of the Democratic party of the State. Soon after my arrival in Annapolis, it became known that I had advocated the nomination of the Hon. Wm. T. Hamilton for Governor, and that because of the signal for every one of the gentlemen connected with the Ring to give me and my claims to lead in the Senate the cold shoulder. This Ring had long ago decided that every one who dares to have an opinion different from theirs, or who does not implicitly and blindly follow their dictation, must be crushed. To effect this more effectually, it became desirable to answer the political influence of their adversaries by securing the verdict against them in their own counties. It is this policy which has kept Western Maryland republican all along, and the most unwelcome thing that could happen to them would be for that section to become Democratic. The vote of old St. Mary's is of such slight importance as to be a matter of indifference, and I have not the slightest doubts that had I been one of the Ring I would have had a favorable report from Mr. Gorman, however badly my "case had been presented." But the opportunity to strike a blow at an outsider who had dared to advocate the claims of one of their enemies in the person of Mr. Hamilton, which would be a warning and a menace for all time to come, was too good to be lost, and so Mr. Gorman put a republican in the Senate from St. Mary's, although he "thought Dr. Lynch was elected."

I had also been indirect enough (I suppose that is the word Mr. Gorman would use) to declare that if I obtained a seat in the Senate, I would demand and prosecute a most searching and complete investigation into the affairs of the Southern Maryland Railroad, to which our county had subscribed the 158,000 dollars due from the State for internal improvement, every dollar of which I fear is gone from us forever. Now as it seems probable from the slight testimony that decency compelled the committee on that subject to take, that at least one member of the celebrated lobby ring which levied fifteen per cent toll upon charitable appropriations in 1874 and of which

THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS WHO DIED PRIORS OF WAR AT POINT LOOKOUT FROM MARCH 1861 TO JANUARY 30th, 1865. (East Side.)

At the call of Patriotism and duty, they encountered the perils of the field, endured the trials of a Prison, and were faithful even unto death.

At the call of Patriotism and duty, they encountered the perils of the field, endured the trials of a Prison, and were faithful even unto death.

CONFIDENTIAL.—Your editorial notice of the Senatorial election...

It is said to have been a very close contest in the Senatorial election. The result was a surprise to many. The Senatorial election was held on Monday, May 8th, 1876. The candidates were...

(Correspondence of the Beacon.) ALLEGANY Co., April 30, 1876.

We were among the number, Messrs. Editors, who determined to visit Big Rock, which is considered the highest peak of the Alleghenies in Maryland, commonly called Davis Mountain. Saddle our horses accordingly, and started. After leaving our town, (Lonscouing) we jogged along through the mountains enjoying the scenery, with nothing to interrupt us except the occasional whirr of a raven or crow, or the cry of an unarméd condor, and passing on round through the valleys for six or seven miles when we reached the foot of the mountain on which is situated the rock. After making our steeds fast, we began to scramble for the top. In the upward tramp one scarcely enjoys any ascent until the pinnacle is reached, when apparently the whole world presents itself to you. You can scarcely realize its vastness. Miles and miles in every direction as far as the eye can reach can be seen. Looking down upon the valleys are seen farms of 50 or 75 acres, seeming like small gardens. On one side is a magnificent view of Frostburg, and on the opposite Cumberland and Romney.

Further, it was not alone between the Senatorial candidates that errors occurred in the returns. It was proven in the returns from the 2nd district that there had occurred a mistake in the returns for Sheriff of fifteen votes, also in that of Col. Miles for Judge of the Orphan's Court of fifty odd votes, and I might go and mention others if necessary. Now, these general errors being proven, and the contest in the case having positively refused to charge Capt. Wise or Mr. Scott with any fraudulent action in the premises, it is difficult to understand by what law, authority of precedent the Chairman of the Committee on Elections could or should have made the little irregularity in the returns from the 2nd district ground for overturning all the other evidence diametrically opposed to that evidence, unless, as before said, there existed some eighty reason why it should be done. That reason was not difficult to find, even by the light of the slight knowledge I was able to obtain of the workings of that powerful and unscrupulous political Ring which has and continues to control the action of the Democratic party of the State. Soon after my arrival in Annapolis, it became known that I had advocated the nomination of the Hon. Wm. T. Hamilton for Governor, and that because of the signal for every one of the gentlemen connected with the Ring to give me and my claims to lead in the Senate the cold shoulder. This Ring had long ago decided that every one who dares to have an opinion different from theirs, or who does not implicitly and blindly follow their dictation, must be crushed. To effect this more effectually, it became desirable to answer the political influence of their adversaries by securing the verdict against them in their own counties. It is this policy which has kept Western Maryland republican all along, and the most unwelcome thing that could happen to them would be for that section to become Democratic. The vote of old St. Mary's is of such slight importance as to be a matter of indifference, and I have not the slightest doubts that had I been one of the Ring I would have had a favorable report from Mr. Gorman, however badly my "case had been presented." But the opportunity to strike a blow at an outsider who had dared to advocate the claims of one of their enemies in the person of Mr. Hamilton, which would be a warning and a menace for all time to come, was too good to be lost, and so Mr. Gorman put a republican in the Senate from St. Mary's, although he "thought Dr. Lynch was elected."

I had also been indirect enough (I suppose that is the word Mr. Gorman would use) to declare that if I obtained a seat in the Senate, I would demand and prosecute a most searching and complete investigation into the affairs of the Southern Maryland Railroad, to which our county had subscribed the 158,000 dollars due from the State for internal improvement, every dollar of which I fear is gone from us forever. Now as it seems probable from the slight testimony that decency compelled the committee on that subject to take, that at least one member of the celebrated lobby ring which levied fifteen per cent toll upon charitable appropriations in 1874 and of which

THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS WHO DIED PRIORS OF WAR AT POINT LOOKOUT FROM MARCH 1861 TO JANUARY 30th, 1865. (East Side.)

At the call of Patriotism and duty, they encountered the perils of the field, endured the trials of a Prison, and were faithful even unto death.

At the call of Patriotism and duty, they encountered the perils of the field, endured the trials of a Prison, and were faithful even unto death.

CONFIDENTIAL.—Your editorial notice of the Senatorial election...

It is said to have been a very close contest in the Senatorial election. The result was a surprise to many. The Senatorial election was held on Monday, May 8th, 1876. The candidates were...

(Correspondence of the Beacon.) ALLEGANY Co., April 30, 1876.

We were among the number, Messrs. Editors, who determined to visit Big Rock, which is considered the highest peak of the Alleghenies in Maryland, commonly called Davis Mountain. Saddle our horses accordingly, and started. After leaving our town, (Lonscouing) we jogged along through the mountains enjoying the scenery, with nothing to interrupt us except the occasional whirr of a raven or crow, or the cry of an unarméd condor, and passing on round through the valleys for six or seven miles when we reached the foot of the mountain on which is situated the rock. After making our steeds fast, we began to scramble for the top. In the upward tramp one scarcely enjoys any ascent until the pinnacle is reached, when apparently the whole world presents itself to you. You can scarcely realize its vastness. Miles and miles in every direction as far as the eye can reach can be seen. Looking down upon the valleys are seen farms of 50 or 75 acres, seeming like small gardens. On one side is a magnificent view of Frostburg, and on the opposite Cumberland and Romney.

Further, it was not alone between the Senatorial candidates that errors occurred in the returns. It was proven in the returns from the 2nd district that there had occurred a mistake in the returns for Sheriff of fifteen votes, also in that of Col. Miles for Judge of the Orphan's Court of fifty odd votes, and I might go and mention others if necessary. Now, these general errors being proven, and the contest in the case having positively refused to charge Capt. Wise or Mr. Scott with any fraudulent action in the premises, it is difficult to understand by what law, authority of precedent the Chairman of the Committee on Elections could or should have made the little irregularity in the returns from the 2nd district ground for overturning all the other evidence diametrically opposed to that evidence, unless, as before said, there existed some eighty reason why it should be done. That reason was not difficult to find, even by the light of the slight knowledge I was able to obtain of the workings of that powerful and unscrupulous political Ring which has and continues to control the action of the Democratic party of the State. Soon after my arrival in Annapolis, it became known that I had advocated the nomination of the Hon. Wm. T. Hamilton for Governor, and that because of the signal for every one of the gentlemen connected with the Ring to give me and my claims to lead in the Senate the cold shoulder. This Ring had long ago decided that every one who dares to have an opinion different from theirs, or who does not implicitly and blindly follow their dictation, must be crushed. To effect this more effectually, it became desirable to answer the political influence of their adversaries by securing the verdict against them in their own counties. It is this policy which has kept Western Maryland republican all along, and the most unwelcome thing that could happen to them would be for that section to become Democratic. The vote of old St. Mary's is of such slight importance as to be a matter of indifference, and I have not the slightest doubts that had I been one of the Ring I would have had a favorable report from Mr. Gorman, however badly my "case had been presented." But the opportunity to strike a blow at an outsider who had dared to advocate the claims of one of their enemies in the person of Mr. Hamilton, which would be a warning and a menace for all time to come, was too good to be lost, and so Mr. Gorman put a republican in the Senate from St. Mary's, although he "thought Dr. Lynch was elected."

I had also been indirect enough (I suppose that is the word Mr. Gorman would use) to declare that if I obtained a seat in the Senate, I would demand and prosecute a most searching and complete investigation into the affairs of the Southern Maryland Railroad, to which our county had subscribed the 158,000 dollars due from the State for internal improvement, every dollar of which I fear is gone from us forever. Now as it seems probable from the slight testimony that decency compelled the committee on that subject to take, that at least one member of the celebrated lobby ring which levied fifteen per cent toll upon charitable appropriations in 1874 and of which

THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS WHO DIED PRIORS OF WAR AT POINT LOOKOUT FROM MARCH 1861 TO JANUARY 30th, 1865. (East Side.)

At the call of Patriotism and duty, they encountered the perils of the field, endured the trials of a Prison, and were faithful even unto death.

At the call of Patriotism and duty, they encountered the perils of the field, endured the trials of a Prison, and were faithful even unto death.

CONFIDENTIAL.—Your editorial notice of the Senatorial election...

It is said to have been a very close contest in the Senatorial election. The result was a surprise to many. The Senatorial election was held on Monday, May 8th, 1876. The candidates were...

(Correspondence of the Beacon.) ALLEGANY Co., April 30, 1876.

We were among the number, Messrs. Editors, who determined to visit Big Rock, which is considered the highest peak of the Alleghenies in Maryland, commonly called Davis Mountain. Saddle our horses accordingly, and started. After leaving our town, (Lonscouing) we jogged along through the mountains enjoying the scenery, with nothing to interrupt us except the occasional whirr of a raven or crow, or the cry of an unarméd condor, and passing on round through the valleys for six or seven miles when we reached the foot of the mountain on which is situated the rock. After making our steeds fast, we began to scramble for the top. In the upward tramp one scarcely enjoys any ascent until the pinnacle is reached, when apparently the whole world presents itself to you. You can scarcely realize its vastness. Miles and miles in every direction as far as the eye can reach can be seen. Looking down upon the valleys are seen farms of 50 or 75 acres, seeming like small gardens. On one side is a magnificent view of Frostburg, and on the opposite Cumberland and Romney.

Further, it was not alone between the Senatorial candidates that errors occurred in the returns. It was proven in the returns from the 2nd district that there had occurred a mistake in the returns for Sheriff of fifteen votes, also in that of Col. Miles for Judge of the Orphan's Court of fifty odd votes, and I might go and mention others if necessary. Now, these general errors being proven, and the contest in the case having positively refused to charge Capt. Wise or Mr. Scott with any fraudulent action in the premises, it is difficult to understand by what law, authority of precedent the Chairman of the Committee on Elections could or should have made the little irregularity in the returns from the 2nd district ground for overturning all the other evidence diametrically opposed to that evidence, unless, as before said, there existed some eighty reason why it should be done. That reason was not difficult to find, even by the light of the slight knowledge I was able to obtain of the workings of that powerful and unscrupulous political Ring which has and continues to control the action of the Democratic party of the State. Soon after my arrival in Annapolis, it became known that I had advocated the nomination of the Hon. Wm. T. Hamilton for Governor, and that because of the signal for every one of the gentlemen connected with the Ring to give me and my claims to lead in the Senate the cold shoulder. This Ring had long ago decided that every one who dares to have an opinion different from theirs, or who does not implicitly and blindly follow their dictation, must be crushed. To effect this more effectually, it became desirable to answer the political influence of their adversaries by securing the verdict against them in their own counties. It is this policy which has kept Western Maryland republican all along, and the most unwelcome thing that could happen to them would be for that section to become Democratic. The vote of old St. Mary's is of such slight importance as to be a matter of indifference, and I have not the slightest doubts that had I been one of the Ring I would have had a favorable report from Mr. Gorman, however badly my "case had been presented." But the opportunity to strike a blow at an outsider who had dared to advocate the claims of one of their enemies in the person of Mr. Hamilton, which would be a warning and a menace for all time to come, was too good to be lost, and so Mr. Gorman put a republican in the Senate from St. Mary's, although he "thought Dr. Lynch was elected."

I had also been indirect enough (I suppose that is the word Mr. Gorman would use) to declare that if I obtained a seat in the Senate, I would demand and prosecute a most searching and complete investigation into the affairs of the Southern Maryland Railroad, to which our county had subscribed the 158,000 dollars due from the State for internal improvement, every dollar of which I fear is gone from us forever. Now as it seems probable from the slight testimony that decency compelled the committee on that subject to take, that at least one member of the celebrated lobby ring which levied fifteen per cent toll upon charitable appropriations in 1874 and of which

THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS WHO DIED PRIORS OF WAR AT POINT LOOKOUT FROM MARCH 1861 TO JANUARY 30th, 1865. (East Side.)

At the call of Patriotism and duty, they encountered the perils of the field, endured the trials of a Prison, and were faithful even unto death.

At the call of Patriotism and duty, they encountered the perils of the field, endured the trials of a Prison, and were faithful even unto death.

SCHOOL NOTICE

THERE will be a meeting of the Board of School Commissioners

TUESDAY, the 23rd instant, to approve Reports of Teachers for Spring Term, 1876, and to transact whatever other business may claim attention. Teachers are requested to have their reports in the office by the day of meeting.

By order of the Board, GEO. THOMAS, Secretary. May 11, 1876.

FAIR.

The Ladies of St. Joseph's congregation will hold a Fair for two or three days, from the 16th of AUGUST next, the proceeds of which will be applied towards paying the heavy debt still remaining on the church. They will be most thankful to their friends for any articles sent to them for their fair.

WALTON, WHANN & CO.

WILMINGTON, DELA. WHANN'S VIRGINIA TOBACCO GUANO has given the best results wherever used, both in early maturing the plants and excellent quality of leaf, as those who have used it will testify. We also offer the BUN GUANO exclusively for corn, which has proved a success and an article of home made and excellent quality of leaf, as those who have used it will testify.

RATIFICATION NOTICE.

Wm H Dunkinson; Lucien Binkley and Daniel McCane; Wm H Dunkinson et al.

CONFIRMATION NOTICE.

Elian C Jones; James Morris Jones.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW.

AN ACT to prevent in St. Mary's County the removal or improper disposition of property that has been levied upon.