VARIE NOTES—A well timed arrival of hot weather in Kansas and other middle western states helped matters materially this week. Continued cool weather with possibilities of an early frost was causing freight among growers, and they expected to start heavy marketing this week. Then the sun reappeared and caused postponement of the contemplated orders for cars. This decreased receipts to a point where the market was able to survive with little or no price cutting.

A fresh movement of strong weight steers is the encouraging development in the local market. The country was scoured out of its herds of paying $7, but now that they can get the same cattle at $6.50@6.60, the number of buyers is constantly increasing. Just so long as buyers can afford that "seven cent" front figure they seem willing to go the limit and believe they are playing the best game possible.

If Oklahoma pulls in beef and pork just the increased corn production over last year, packers are bound to have a better idea of this state as a livestock producer. Good beef cattle are as rare in Oklahoma just now as any time since this market opened.

CATTLE MARKET—There was an effecting to 10 blocks in receiving a meager 500 head supply against 956 a week ago. Packers purchase was confined to about 300 head, two loads of native grass steers to $8.15 being the best. Everything for sale this week sold steady, while light stock cattle brought stronger prices. Feeders had to be peddled at steady prices but the demand was more of a bolts affair than any time this week. Country buyers were not in force and wanted something lighter than this week have resulted in a small on hand assortment with every indication that Friday's display will be the smallest in weeks. This means a big market next week.

OATS—No. 2 white 36@37c; 2 mixed 34@35c.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—WHEAT went decidedly lower in price today as a result of selling induced by the bearish nature of the government crop report. The opening, which ranged from 1⅛@1¼c lower to ⅛c advance with September at 95⅞ to 96c and December at 96¼ to 96⅝, were followed by a slight rally and then a fresh decline.

CORN sagged with wheat and in consequence of the bearish crop figures from Washington. After opening ¼ off to ⅛c up the market scored something of an upturn, but later suffered a moderate setback all around.

OATS were narrow with a general drift downward.

Stop loss selling carried provisions lower. About the only demand was from shorts.

Subsequently the wheat market favored the bulls owing to evidence of a more urgent cash demand from millers and shippers and because of a rise in foreign exchange. The close was unsettled at ⅝c to 1⅛ net advance with September at 95⅛ and December at 92@92⅛.

Storm damage from Illinois and Iowa resulted afterward in a substantial bulge in corn prices. The close was steady at ½@⅝ to 1⅛c above last night.

Financial

Wall Street

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Further sensational advances in war specialties overshadowed all other operations in today's equity market. Bethlehem Steel opened 3 points up at 302, rising generally to 310, to which it immediately added another five points, exceeding the previous high mark by four points. The preferred opened at 150, a gain of 9½. Crucible Steel showed an overnight gain of 1⅝ at 59, soon advancing to 60. Other issues in this group rose 1 to 2 points. United States Steel made an initial gain of a fraction, later rising to 76, a full point. Among railways, Reading, Canadian Pacific and Erie first preferred rose a point each.

Railroads were in further demand after midday, greatest strength being shown by the northwestern group. Rock Island was the heavy feature of that division. Continued improvement was made by specialties. Bethlehem Steel extensions to gain to 325.

Inactive specialties, rappers and some of the eastern rails rose materially in the final trading. The close was strong.

EASY SOLUTION

Bill—Go inter dat house and ask de lady does she want any rugs beat.
Jim—But suppose she does?
Bill—Whs, then we'll "beat it."

An Interned Bride

MISS HILDA SCHWEIGER.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Miss Hilda Schweiger of Breimerhaven, Germany, is the living proof that love laughs at war. She has just arrived in this country to marry Lieut. Paul Hesse, of the valiant German sea raider, Prinz Eitel Frederich, now interned at Newport News. She was engaged to marry the officer three years ago but he was sent to China and so the wedding was postponed. Later it was arranged for her to go to the Orient, but the war broke out and interned. Finally the Prinz Eitel put in at Newport News and was interned. The handsome German officer immediately wrote to his fiancee and her trip here is the result.

ECHOES OF THE STREETS

N. S. Jones is plaintiff and the McMan oil company defendant in a suit instituted in the county court in which Jones asks for $550 for alleged injuries to his hand while laying pipe. He claims the loss of the use of one finger due to blood poisoning.

In the county court C. C. Boardman is asking that James M. and Elizabeth McCormick be brought into court and prove their assets. A judgment for $28.37 is against the defendants and remains unsatisfied.

Building permits were issued today for the construction of two residences, the estimated cost of which is $7,000. The permits were issued to W. T. Lawrence for a brick veneer dwelling at 1021 West Sixteenth street, to cost $4,000; and to E. L. Aurelius, for a residence at 2912 North Classen, to cost $3,000.

At the Theatres

THE LYRIC

Four new vaudeville acts were seen at the Lyric Thursday afternoon. Heading the offering is Ives and Cervo accordeonists. Miss Ives has lately joined Mr. Cervo. Together they present an entertainment that is entirely pleasing, withal. The Grace Ayer trio, roller skate artists, bring an act that hasn't been seen here in some time. Lockett and Waldron, a clever pair of happy faced boys who do some eccentric dancing, will be remembered for some time to come by Lyric patrons. "The Master Move," a thrilling sketch, is also an interesting episode on the big program.

THE MET

With ever popular Kathlyn Williams, Wheeler Oakman and Charles Clary heading the cast "The Rosary," the seven-reel Selig Red Seal Play opened at The Met today and will continue over Friday and Saturday. This production combines a strong dramatic theme with artistic treatment and acting which has seldom before been seen on the screen. The story was adapted from the famous play of the same title by Edward E. Rose.

THE FOLLY

Today at the Folly theater a minute's motion picture of Miss Daisy Fulwiler, winner of Oklahoma's beauty contest, is given by the Universal Film company. A life size bust picture of this city's victor, in which she smiles and bows, speaks and shrugs her shoulders, is shown. The Evans sisters, known to the stage as "The Two Colleens," appear in a really charming sketch in which they sing Irish songs and wear Erin's costumes. King Baggot and Hobart Henley appear in distinctively dramatic pictures.

THE EMPRESS

Oklahoma City is particularly interested, it appears, in the Gaumont feature picture, "The Unsuspected Isles," which is to be shown tomorrow at the Empress. The play was written by the Rev. C. J. Harris, formerly pastor of a Unitarian church in Oklahoma City. Today the lovely Pauline Frederick, heroine of "The Eternal City," appears in a graphic drama, "Sold." She has scored a triumph in this production. The Empress also offers new vaudeville of class—Shaw and Lee in eccentric singing and dancing and the Gene Muller troupe, four persons, who bill themselves as the "original aeroplane hookskirts."

COLCORD GARDEN

New pictures are presented every night at the attractive Colcorn Garden. This and the constantly changing musical program offers a strong inducement to its many patrons.

COMMISSION'S BUSY

"Just say to the public," said Chairman Jack Love of the state corporation commission this morning, "that the entire force of the corporation commission is now, and has been all this week, at work getting up the data in the 2 cent fare hearing in the federal court and consequently other business presented for consideration has been temporarily neglected. It is the biggest suit the state ever has had and every available man we have is working on it.

ASP GIVES ONLY RECALL METHOD

Also Qualifies His Opinion by Stating That School Board May Be Considered as Separate Entity

RAISING the question as to whether the city could amend its charter to provide a recall for the board of education "because the public school system is a matter of state concern," and quoting the constitution which provides the manner in which city charters can be amended, Henry Asp of Asp, Owen, Snyder and Lebrand made the following statement which speaks for itself.

"In connection with the suggestion that the city charter should be amended to provide for recall of the board of education and your request for the method necessary to be followed, I have to say, that the amendment of the city charter is controlled by Section 4 (a) and Section 4 (e) of Article 18 of the State Constitution.

Section 4 (e) is as follows in part:

"'When such petition demands an amendment to a charter, the chief executive officer shall submit such amendment to the qualified electors of said municipal corporation at the next election of any officers of said corporation.'

"Therefore, the only method for the amendment of the city charter is for petition to be filed as provided in the article and makes it the duty of the chief executive officer of the city to submit the question of amendment to the electors of the city at the next election of any officers of said corporation, so that the city charter could not be lawfully amended until the next election of city officers.

"In that connection also, I would suggest that there would be some doubt as to the power of amendment of the city charter so as to recall members of the board of education which in the theory of the law is a separate legal entity from the legal entity of the city, and for the further reason that the public school system is a matter of general state concern and not a municipal affair."

COMES IN HANDY

Florence—Binks, the artist, has a sign over his door, "China Fired Daily." I wonder what he means.

Arthur—I suppose he fires it at the cats when they serenade him at night time.
