GIVE A KODAK

and give a Kodak bought from Westfall's. Indeed, this is the greatest Kodak shop in the state, and one of the greatest in the southwest. In a sense the Kodak makes Christmas an all-year affair the pictures you take of the festivities of the children in their ecstacies of joy of the day's merry incidents, will keep Christmas green in your memory every day in the year. $6 to $90.

Dependable Jewelry $1 Weekly

If all that glitered was gold the buying of jewelry and the class stones would be an easy matter quickly accomplished, but there is so much that glitters that is not gold, so much that sparkles that deceives the eye, that it behooves the purchaser to buy only from established firms, where the word "Guarantee" means something. That is why people that can afford to pay the cash prefer to buy from Rosenfield.

LANE FOR GOOD RURAL SCHOOLS

Secretary of Interior Says 22,000,000 School Children Our Greatest National Resource

HE ISSUES A REPORT

Necessity of Leadership and Larger Co-operative Effort Is Set Forth

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—In the forthcoming annual report Secretary Lane suggests the need for a national commission for a better rural school. He speaks of Young America, our 22,000,000 school boys and girls, as the chief resource of the nation, and asks, "Are we doing all possible to encourage this resource?" His report says, in part:

CHARITY BALL DECEMBER 17

Annual Affair of Elks Will Be Held at Home on West Main Street

NEXT Friday night, December 17, the Elks are to hold their annual charity ball in their home on West Main street. The best music obtainable in the city has been procured for the occasion, and the floor in the ball room waxed and polished to perfection for the dance. A record attendance is anticipated. The funds receivable from this ball are to be devoted to the purchase of Christmas baskets for the poor of the city, as in past seasons. Last year the Elks gave away some 700 dinners.

Wednesday night at 6:30 the local lodge will leave on a special train for Shawnee, where that lodge will hold an extraordinary initiation and banquet. On this occasion the Elks' band, recently organized from among the membership of the Oklahoma City lodge, will make its first appearance.

AMERICAN HONORED

PEKING, Dec. 14.—President Yuan Shi Kai has conferred the decoration of the second class Chia Ho upon E. T. Williams, director of the bureau of far Eastern affairs in the American state department. Mr. Williams was formerly Chinese secretary of the American legation at Peking, and later first secretary and charge d' affaires in the Chinese capital.

A Little of the Practical in Your Boy's Christmas

A suit or an overcoat from the boys' store at Kerr's. The variety is at the Christmas of course plentiful. Caps and separate trousers, too. A bicycle is only Christmas for him if he turned out handsomely now. Boys' Store, Third Floor. Boys' shoes are on the Second Floor.

Special! 600 Lavallieres, 50c Each

Some of the styles are illustrated, but most of them are not. Thirty or more to choose from, distinctive, different, even distinguished styles. There are 600 of them in this sale, the quantity representing a most fortunate purchase, for, they are really worth more than 50c each. And, if it is possible to make them more givable than they are, we will box them nicely and attractively without additional charge. Gold filled, with plenty of service in them. To our notion they are exquisite bits of jewelry, with their pendants, soldered chains and radiant stones. By the way, there are a few cameos in the group.

THINKS TURN IN LANE IS NEAR

Enid Editor Says Feeling Similar to That Which Flopped Missouri

ENID, Dec. 14.—Everett Purcell, editor of the Enid Events, says the proposed call for a special session of the legislature, thinks it would result in Democrats to turn against those now posing as leaders. He says:

"The democratic party of Oklahoma [illegible] advertised by its conventional leaders [illegible] to be a party of democratic ideas, principles and principles. But it feels [illegible] to authorize such a call [illegible] by political tricks and machinations [illegible]. Its leaders have made [illegible] legislative session because they feel the influence of a few degrees cooling [illegible] jumpers, [illegible] walkers, porters, etc. Its leaders have such a low estimate of the intelligence of white Democrats that they believe the rank and file would willingly go to separate polling places, one for state and local officers and the other for federal officers. These leaders actually believe the average Democrat prefers to allow them to wallow in the spoils of unrestrained exploitation of state affairs rather than to humiliate their own sense of honesty and self respect. These leaders actually believe the lay Democrat is perfectly satisfied to surrender his hope of casting the state's electoral vote for a Democratic president and allow Lost Cause gambling to directing a large share of state revenues for their own enrichment. All of which shows that the leaders are very much mistaken. Even Democrats will turn. They did in Missouri. People stand a whole lot for [illegible] through sheer dislike to leave the beaten track or raise a row. But the limit has about been reached in Oklahoma and we are looking for the breaking point. Democratic rank and file must stay true. And when it comes the casting of another twenty thousand fraudulent votes will be impotent to stem the tide of popular fury and resentment.

Public Notice

TO OUR CUSTOMERS, OUR FRIENDS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC:

In this paper tomorrow we announce the opening of the biggest sale we ever held. Possibly the biggest one ever held in Oklahoma City by any one.

We feel it our duty at this time to give to our many friends an explanation. The title of this sale will be—

MORTGAGE LIFTING SALE

It will be in every respect just what the name implies.

There is no effort or attempt to deceive any one. But—the Herskowitz Store is in no danger of bankruptcy. Never in our history were we more solvent. At present, though, we are confronted with a peculiar situation. Before the first of February we have two very large payments to make on our properties.

We have a large amount of taxes to pay—insurance bills must be paid—besides, our purchases this season were far heavier than ever before and, although business is much better than it has ever been, we can not hope to raise enough money in the regular course of business to meet all obligations when they are due.

We had two courses open to us. One was to ask the court for permission to further mortgage our realty holdings—the other was to tell our customers, our friends, make it worth their while, and by sacrificing our immense stock thus raise the money.

Rather than ask the court for permission to place further mortgages on our properties, we chose the latter course.

Time alone can tell whether or not it was the right one.

(Signed) THE HERSKOWITZ STORE.
