GOOD QUALITY IS WEEK'S TENDENCY

Market's Highest Price for Cattle Paid to Canadian County Owner.

RECEIPTS TODAY.

CATTLE

Declining to grant any better prices but always willing to give as good as any other market local packers pulled through the week on a hungry but good quality supply. Choice heifers the best that have been seen on the local market in many a day, sold for $9.65 the week, the month, in fact the market's highest price for cattle. Canadian county furnished the draw and was a credit to feeder and owner. John Heatley of Mt. Home. Heifer loads of good dry fat quality from central and western Oklahoma averaging 1,150 to 1,200 pounds, sold for $8.75@9.30, while the balance of the medium to good fat kind ranged $7.50@$8.50. Lower feeding Monday failed to stick, higher market Wednesday putting the price back on the same level as that of a week ago. Receipts for the week totaled 3,535 against 3,208 a year ago and 5,553 two years ago. While record prices are featuring the butcher market the tendency of packer buyers toward the close was to reduce prices in this line. Good, fat 1,150 to 1,250 cows sold up to $8.50 but to bring over $7.50 they must have something besides weight. Heifers sold for $7.00@8.00 with choice kind quoted up to $8.50. A 25@50c break in the stocker division while a losing proposition for brokers was sufficient inducement for country buyers to load up the yards at present being pretty well cleaned of stockers and feeder cattle. Loads of good quality and light in weight are now selling for $7.50 and up. Stock calves are going for $6@$8.50.

NEW ORLEANS, May 13.—The opening call on the cotton market Saturday morning saw a rise of 4 to 7 points on better cables but a quick slump following reading of the census bureau's monthly mill statistics showing a falling off in consumption by American mills in April as compared with March. Half an hour after the opening prices were at a net loss of 1 to 2 points on the most active months.

Little selling power developed toward the close with the market steady at a net rise of 3 to 4 points.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK, May 13.—With many brokers preparing to take part in the preparedness parade in the afternoon trading in the cotton market was comparatively quiet Saturday morning and after opening steady at an advance of 4 to 9 points prices sagged off under scattering Wall Street liquidation. The opening advance to 12.91c for July and 13.13c for October was encouraged by relatively firm cables and there was some Liverpool buying early. The tendency to realize profits on long cotton was prompted by rather a bearish view of the weekly statistics and the supply a distribution figures which made the domestic mill consumption of lint cotton 511,716 bales during April compared with 413,625 for March and 514,903 last year.

The early setback carried July contracts off to 12.83c and Oct. to 12.75c about a point under Friday night's closing. Prices then steadied on covering and the close was 2 to 6 points net higher. Cotton, spot, quiet; middling uplands, 12.65c; no sales.

NEGRO SLAYER OF TWO TAKEN AFTER FIGHT

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., May 13.—William White, the discharged negro trooper who Friday killed a negro sergeant and a negress and wounded a white man, was captured by his former comrades Saturday, after an exchange of shots in which White was wounded in the arm. The fugitive stood off twelve men with a rifle until his ammunition ran out.

RYDER'S SISTER DEAD, IS CLAIM HEIRESS MAKES

Nurse Springs Surprise at Courthouse Relative to Contested Will.

Another development in the already complicated fight over the estate left by the late Earl C. Ryder took place today when Miss Mary Williams, the Kansas City nurse who cared for Ryder and who is named as a beneficiary in a will on file, arrived to claim her part of the property. According to the will, Ryder directed that $1,000 be given Miss Williams and in the event his former wife, now Mrs. Bertha Wilson, failed to attend his funeral the $1,000 that Mrs. Wilson was to get if she did attend was to go to Miss Williams.

Miss Williams sprung another sensation in the matter today when she declared Ryder's sister, who lived in Kansas, was dead. A man claiming to be the husband of the sister appeared at the court clerk's office Friday afternoon and intimated he would contest the will. He did not say whether his wife was dead or living.

A deposition, taken in Los Angeles several days ago and filed here today, contains a sworn statement by Elva Ryder to the effect that she is a half-sister of Ryder. She states her name was recently changed by a Los Angeles court from Elva Rogers to Elva Ryder. She filed a contest to the will several weeks ago. Mrs. Wilson, the divorced wife, also filed a contest. The will was filed by H. O. Stark.

Mrs. Wilson alleges a will was executed by Ryder later than that filed by Stark. She says she has the copy, but the original cannot be found.

Hearing of the contests was scheduled for today, but absence of County Judge Zwick from the city necessitated a continuance until next week.

DOING SOME THINKING.

Farmer Honk—I s'pose your nephew has been a great help to you since he graduated from the academy?

Farmer Bentanover—Well, no—not so's you could notice it. You see, he's been so busy figgerin' on a plan for interesting capital in a scheme to build a railroad from Hudson Bay to Paraguay, and make the everlastin' fortunes of everybody connected with it, by shippin' broken icebergs to Paraguay, where they don't have ice and carryin' back pampas plumes to Hudson Bay—it's kept him so steadily engaged, in fact, that he ain't had time to do anything else but eat.

CHICAGO, May 13.—Wheat prices tumbled Saturday from an early setback that was caused by rains southwest and by a forecast of additional moisture. Bull leaders took the position that the rains had not fallen in the big wheat producing sections of Kansas and that the apparent sudden breaking down of the Kansas crop promise was mainly the result of Russian by infectation now becoming evident in the ordinary observer. Opening prices which ranged from ¼ off to ¼c up with July at $1.16 to $1.16¼ and Sept. at $1.15¾ to $1.16, were followed by a moderate general decline and then a recovery in full.

Corn fluctuated with wheat. Lightness of offerings tended somewhat to favor the bulls. After opening ¼c lower to ¼c advance, the market hardened a little all around.

Selling from local speculators had a temporary weakening effect on oats. Prices however took an upturn when strength developed in other grains.

Higher quotations on hogs lifted provisions. Trade was chiefly in lard.

Wheat price closed steady at 1@1¼c advance with July $1.17⅛ and September, $1.17@1.17¼.

The close in corn was steady at ¼@½c to ¾@7/8c net gain.

MARKET STRONG AS WEEK CLOSES

Irregular and Narrow at Start But Dealings Later Become Broad.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The stock market followed an irregular and narrow course during the early days of the week, ignoring various favorable factors, including the marked change in the status of the country's relations with Germany, the large gain in unfilled tonnage disclosed by the April statement of the United States Steel corporation and the pronounced improvement in the condition of winter wheat.

There were offsetting neutralizing developments such as the Mexican situation which thwarted further complications, the proposed investigation of the anthracite companies resulting from the higher coal prices and their imminence of the national political convention.

It was not until the latter part of the week the market manifested a strong disposition and dealings were the broadest, rails and other investment shares contributing measurably to the advance.

Munitions and some specialties were heavy most of the time the revival of peace rumors but made more than full recovery later. Shipping issues dominated the list at times, Mercantile Marines and United Fruit being feverishly active on rumors connecting those properties with vast foreign trade projects.

Heaviness of sterling exchange imparted some interest to imports of gold from Canada.

May is a sad month for many a old yard puncher, for it is now that he sees his .700 batting average for the last time.

DEFENSE PARADE AFFECTS STOCKS

War Issues Appreciably Higher Together With Motor Group.

NEW YORK, May 13.—Upward movements in the more attractive stocks was resumed at Saturday's opening but trading was moderate, operations being somewhat curtailed by Wall Street's interest in the preparedness parade. War issues, particularly Bethlehem Steel, Crucible Steel, were appreciably higher, together with the motor group, those issues rising 1 to 3 points. The Mexican situation was viewed with more hopefulness, judging from the firmness of shares having such connections, notably Sloss Sheffield and Canadian Pacific.

Stockers began at various gains of from points of 3½ while Wilson issued for the rebate to the new record of 59. Bethlehem was strong, rising above its 2 per cent maximum quotation. Western Union advanced more than three points. The drawing was strong. Bonds were steady.
