CONFISCATED GUNS TO BECOME CITY PROPERTY

Seizures To Be Legalized by New Ordinance; Court Given Powers.

More disappointment is ahead of pistol toting negroes, or anyone packing a gun unlawfully. An ordinance was passed with the emergency clause today authorizing the judge of the municipal court to confiscate six shooters taken from prisoners.

Heretofore a goodly portion of the guns found on negroes and "tough" whites have been deposited with the police department and usually found their way to the holster of the arresting officer, if worth anything.

Now the procedure will be legalized, as the new ordinance provides that the city shall own the confiscated guns and permit officers to use them.

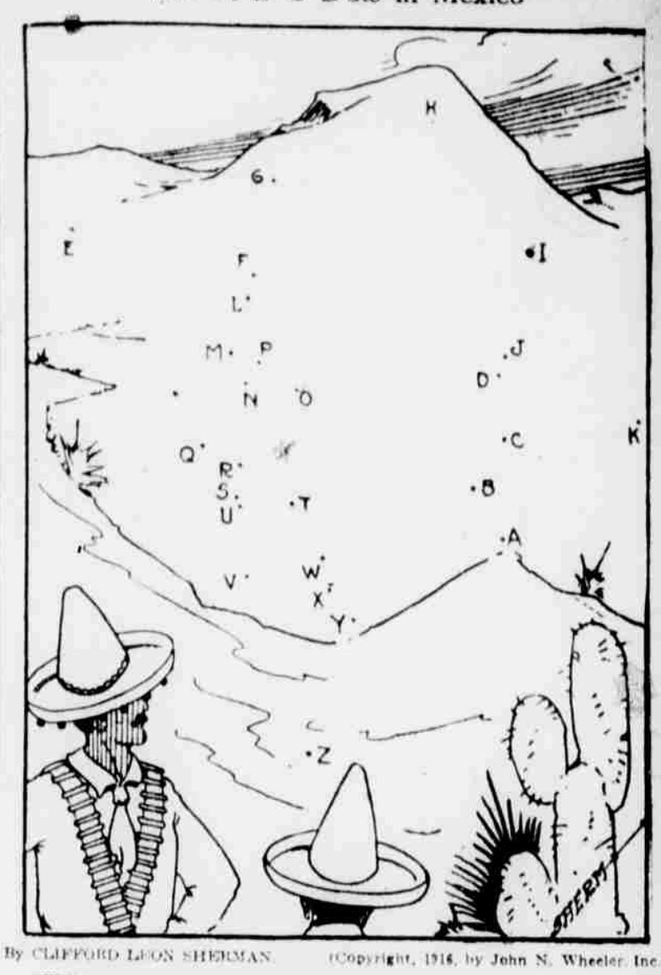
The A B C Dots in Mexico



By CLIFFORD LEON SHERMAN. (Copyright, 1916, by John N. Wheeler, Inc.)

"Well," said Tommy, as he snuggled alongside of his father on the latter's return from the border, "did you see any Mexicans?"

"Surely I did," was the reply, "all you have to do is to go down to the bank of the Rio Grande and look across. They look a good deal like anybody else except that their skins are darker."

"Do they ever come across the river?" asked Tommy.

"The peaceful ones do, but the soldiers always stop on the other side when they see a——"

Hay Fever Victims Club Together to Praise Weather Man Who Gives Out Hope of Snappy Frost Tonight

"I see id the Tibes," remarked a hay fever fan to a group of fellow sufferers gathered at the corner of Main and Broadway and engaged in the alluring pastime of exchanging symptoms, "that the weather bureau says a light frost is cubbig todite id the westerd part of the state."

One of the group opened his mouth preparatory to saying something, but instead sneezed enthusiastically and rhythmically for a minute or two, pulled a handkerchief from his hip pocket, discovered a square inch of dry space and solemnly wiped his nose. Then he wiped his eyes with the back of his hand and holding the handkerchief ready for emergencies delivered himself of the following:

Will Welcome Frost.

"I ab a cottod buyer. If the frost cubs to the cottod growig sectiods of the state, it beads that I will be out of a job. But I ab like Eva Taguay—I dot care a hag. Let the frost cub. I will welcob it with oped arbs. I will let it destle id by graying hairs. Dobody does how buth I love the gettle frost. I—kachoo!"

"Theb is by setibets, too," remarked a second. "I have wud of the fidest patches of tobatoes id the city. I would sacrifice every wud of those plats I have durtured all subber, just for wud good killig frost."

Chorus of Snuffles.

Everyone in the group sniffled, wiggled his nose like a young rabbit emerging from its nest on a snowy winter morning and brought out their ubiquitous handkerchiefs.

"Well, fellows," said one, "I ab willig to bake up a purse for the weather bad if he cad badage to brig cold weather here. Let's all give three cheers ad a tiger for hib. Baybe it'll help sub. Altogether now!"

"Pr-r-r-r!" they all remarked in their handkerchiefs, as they blew their nasal bugles simultaneously.

HINTS FOR YOUR HOME

Things Worth Knowing.

WHEN making a long railroad journey, take along two big paper bags and a folding coat hanger. Put your hat in one bag and hang it up. Slip your coat on the hanger, put the other bag over it, making a little slit in the bag for the hook to go through and it will be protected from dust and creases.

You can have a fireproof safe in your house without much cost. Get a piece of asbestos about two feet square and wrap your valuables in it. Fasten tight; it is fireproof.

Laundry Help—Place a slice of lemon with the rind removed in your boiler of clothes. The result will leave the clothes beautifully white without in any way injuring them.

Home-Made Mucilage—Cut the hardened sap from cherry or plum trees, put in a wide-mouthed bottle and cover with water; cork and set away for a few days until dissolved, when it will be ready for use. This mucilage will mend most anything.

The Table.

Coleslaw—Shred a small head of cabbage fine, add pinch of salt, cup of sour cream, three tablespoons vinegar and four tablespoons sugar. Beat till it foams.

Harvard Eggs—Wash and pick over half peck spinach. Cook twenty-five minutes in uncovered vessel in large quantity of boiling salted water to which has been added one-third teaspoon soda and half teaspoon sugar. Drain, chop, season with butter, salt, pepper, spread on buttered shallow baking dish and make seven depressions. Sprinkle each depression with half teaspoon grated Parmesan cheese, then slip in an egg. Over each egg put 1½ teaspoons of white sauce and half teaspoon grated cheese. Bake until eggs are set.

Graham Mush—Prepare same as cornmeal mush, just substitute graham flour for cornmeal and you have a very nourishing and palatable breakfast cereal.

DUNNE-LOWDEN CAMPAIGN TO BE BITTER WARFARE

Illinois Faces Hard Fight Over Governorship; Lorimer Meets Defeat.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—One of the hardest fought political campaigns in the history of Illinois will be waged between Gov. Edward F. Dunne, democrat and former Congressman Frank O. Lowden, republican, nominated for governor Wednesday, it was predicted today.

Both rolled up pluralities of approximately 100,000 over their opponents. Both are veteran campaigners. Governor Dunne defeated William Brinton of Dixon, a manufacturer who had the backing of Roger Sullivan. Dunne won Cook county by approximately 60,000 and had a plurality of about 9,000 in one-third of the downstate precincts. Lowden won Cook county by about 30,000 and downstate by twice that.

Lorimer's Defeat Assured.

Defeat of William Lorimer for congress from the Sixth Illinois district seemed assured. Arthur W. Fulton had a plurality of 1,000 over the ousted United States senator who made a determined fight to win the support of his old congressional district. Medill McCormick, former progressive and former Senator William E. Mason, probably were nominated by the republicans for congressman-at-large. Congressman-at-Large B. M. Chipperfield was running Mason a close race. Democratic nominees for congressman-at-large are William Elza William of Pittsfield, incumbent, and Everett Jennings of Chicago.

Mann and Cannon Win.

James R. Mann, republican house leader; "Uncle Joe" Cannon, Martin B. Madden, Fred A. Britton, George H. Foss, Ira G. Copley, Charles E. Fuller, John C. McKenzie, Edward J. King, John A. Searling, William B. McKinley, Loren E. Wheeler, William A. Rodenburg, Thomas S. Williams, Edward E. Dennison and William W. Wilson were renominated for congress by the republicans.

Lieut. Gov. Barratt O'Hara, leader of the Illinois vice commission, which gained nation-wide publicity, apparently has been defeated for that office by the democrats by Henry W. Puttman of Chicago.
