CATTLE RECEIPTS UNUSUALLY SHORT

Lightest Friday Run For Many Months; Hog Prices Steady.

TODAY'S RECEIPTS.

Cattle	100
Calves	150
Hogs	2,100

CATTLE—Packers felt greatly the extreme shortage of supplies in the local cattle division today. It was one of the lightest runs for Friday received in many months. Initiating stockers and all but around 500 head made up this supply. The packers share was but a few loads and these brought steady prices. A few loads of plain grassers, averaging 850 to 1,000 pounds, sold $6.75@8.50. Butcher receipts were light to the extreme. As a result the market was hardly tested. Cows, good kinds, sold up to $6.75 and heifers $6.00. Canners ranged around $4.00 and cutters up to $4.75. A few heavy grass bulls sold $7.00@7.50. Steady prices were paid for the few loads of stocker cattle on sale. Yearlings around 500-pound average brought $7.50@8.00. But to bring the latter price they had to be good. Calf receipts were moderate, around 150 head coming, about half of which were on direct billing. It was a steady market.

Pershing Leaving, Villa Tells Peons

COLUMBUS, N. M., Oct. 13.—Twelve Mexican bandits with a quantity of farm stock are at the border today having arrived from Ascencion. They say that many others are following because of fear of Villa. Villa agents told the people of Ascencion a few days ago, some of the parts said, that the Pershing expedition would leave Mexico by November 1 and that Villa columns would follow and garrison the points evacuated by the Americans.

Guard Ordered to Border

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 13.—The Second infantry, West Virginia National guard, has received orders from the war department to move to the Mexican border at once. Officers of the regiment expect the command to be ready to entrain Saturday or Sunday.

POLICE PLAN TO REPEAT CHARGE TO HALT RIOTS

Bayonne Authorities Determined to Restore Order.

BAYONNE, N. J., Oct. 13.—It is authoritatively hoped today that the 3,000 strikers from oil plants at Constable Hook, who have been rioting in the streets of Bayonne for two days, were cowed by the less than outnumbered force of the police Thursday and that there would be less shooting and rioting by the strike sympathizers today.

Plan to Repeat Charge

The police planned to repeat their performances of Thursday when they went twice through the strike district of the Constable Hook section, driving rioters off the streets into the houses, returning the shots of snipers on roofs and in windows, wrecking saloons kept open in defiance of the mayor's order and arresting the proprietors.

One man, a lawyer, who was mistaken for one part in the rioting, was shot and killed Thursday and it was estimated that 20 were wounded, some of them by bystanders.

Three persons, one a young woman, have been killed and it is estimated that more than five have been injured since the rioting began and there has been much property damage.

Quiet prevailed during the early night, but soon after the battle scenes enacted in the streets near the plants Thursday afternoon and night were renewed.

"We expect to clean the place out today and start the wheels in operation in the strike [illegible]," said a police official this morning.

Strike Leaders Give Aid

The police secret men [illegible] all those wounded have been hit by bullets from the guns of strikers and that the police have shot over the strikers' heads. Strike leaders have offered to organize a special force of 800 men to aid in suppressing the rioters.

Riverbed Ownership to Be Settled Soon

Whether the states of Oklahoma or Indian tribes along the Arkansas river have legal rights to the so-called "riverbed" oil and gas leases, may be decided by Judge John H. Cotteral after the United court of federal district court begins here Monday. The leases are valued at $200,000.

The riverbed cases were tried in federal court in Oklahoma City last fall. They consumed nearly a month. Since that time Judge Cotteral has had the matter under advisement.

UNFIT TEACHERS TO BE WEEDED OUT OF SYSTEM

Personality, Teaching Power to Count, Says Whiteford.

Adoption by the board of education last night of a rule making compulsory the classification of every teacher in the Oklahoma City school system according to her pedagogic ability is believed to local school men to mean that within a short time the more inefficient teachers will be weeded out and stronger teachers put in their places. Classification, which has widely with Superintendent J. A. Whiteford, will be begun immediately. Next year every teacher in the system will be paid according to the rating accorded her. Results of the grading will be known next month.

Personality Is Factor

The rule as adopted by the board provides that points upon which the classification is to be based, the personality, teaching power, interest and application to work, and the professional growth and advancement of the teacher.

"In every school system of consequence," said Superintendent Whiteford this morning, "there are always a few teachers who are content to plod along in a rut. They make no attempt to keep abreast of the progress of educational science. These teachers are practically worthless to the system.

Teachers to Be Rewarded.

"On the other hand the great majority of teachers are anxious to progress in their work. What we wish to do is reward this class. When a teacher shows evidence of a desire to fit herself for more value to the school that teacher's salary will be raised according to our new plan. The incumbents of the rut will either remain in the same salary classification or be given smaller pay. Thus the thing will work automatically to our a strong class of teachers in our schools."

No salary advances will be given teachers in the seventh or their grading until next year, it was stated this afternoon by Secretary H. M. Finney of the board of education. This is because of the fact that the board's budget has already been made up and allowed. The new salary rule will go into effect in the school year of 1917-18.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Harvest in the face of bending breezes called a halt about mid-day today after a week that found market above and below Saturday's level. Initial weakness was due to reports of general rains in Argentina. Later on word the breakers in the Argentine came too late to the rescue of the crop. Consequently [illegible] quotations were unexpectedly firm. Subsequently, however, a resurgence in corn took place. Cash offerings were light. After opening [illegible] to [illegible] higher, the market there [illegible] a sharp advance to well above Tuesday's finish and then underwent considerable of a reaction.

Subsequently the market again hardened, responding to word from Winnipeg that wheat from the United States would continue to be taken as fast as possible by Great Britain. Advances however, did not hold well at the last. Prices closed unsettled at [illegible] net decline to [illegible] net advance, with December at [illegible] and [illegible] at [illegible].

Corn rose with wheat, but [illegible] was [illegible] affected also by unfavorable weather in the shelling [illegible]. STOCK MARKETS HIGHER, TRADERS ARE CONFIDENT Stocks Affected by Developments Early in Week Rise After the Holiday.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Resumption of trading after the holiday was accompanied by a higher range of issues and other manifestations of confidence, this being evidenced by the improvement in stocks most affected by developments of the early week. Mercantile Marine soon rose more than [illegible] points and some of the war and munitions issues were lifted by 1 to 2 points. Early weakness in Mexican issues was [illegible]. Northwestern and Union Pacific leading at a gain of 1 to 2 points. Mexicans were decidedly [illegible]. Oils and copper shares increased the [illegible] advance. Bids for Liberty National Bonds [illegible] rose [illegible] points.

Active buying of Rock Island issues advanced 2 points, features the early advance. Other low priced shares were prominent and strong, but standard issues were more quiet and 1 to 2 points below best of the morning.

Rumors of a possible renewal of submarine activities accompanied which with the decline of the final hour displaying pronounced weakness. The closing was heavy.
