At The THEATRES

Overholser.

As a play, and looked upon merely as a fascinating story, "Where Are My Children?" is a masterpiece of dramatic construction and splendid acting. At the Overholser today and tomorrow.

Empress.

"Hell-to-Pay" was the nickname given the boss of the big lumber camp because that was what happened when his orders were not carried out promptly. The character of the boss is a big feature in "Hell to Pay" Austin," the big Triangle photoplay at the Empress today and Wednesday. Wilfred Lucas has the leading role and Bessie Love and Mary Alden appear in the cast. The picture is one of the best released in months on the Triangle program.

Folly.

Madame Bertha Kalich, one of the world's greatest tragediennes and known in filmland as "The Jewish Sapho," appears for the last times today at the Folly in her latest William Fox production de luxe, "Ambition." Wednesday and Thursday Geraldine O'Brien is coming in a dramatic photoplay, "A Woman's Fight." The fall vaudeville season will open at the Folly next Sunday.

Liberty.

"The Man Behind the Counter," a musical farce, teeming with tuneful melodies and bristling with compelling comedy, is the offering at the Liberty again today, tonight and Wednesday. Milton Schuster, who has popularized Yiddish comedy characters in Oklahoma City, again appears as chief comedian, taking the part of a department store detective. Capable work is performed by the big chorus in every scene. The bill will be changed Thursday.

Majestic.

Mary Fuller, the favorite of thousands, today in her newest production "Cheaters." Five other reels with excellent comedies. Tomorrow Dorothy Davenport, another popular star in "Barriers of Society," Red Feather latest release. Also William Garwood in "A Soul at Stake."

Lyric.

Rio and Norman, athletes, present a strong-arm act that is not only a turn of might but one that is even picturesque; in appearance they are fitting examples of lusty young manhood. Lloyd Evans and company in their sketch, "The Alternative," reach a climax that thrills when the father, knowing that his son is guilty of murder, gives him choice of electric chair or pistol. But, the closing is full of relief, for it was only a dream. Three other acts on the bill.

Once Millionaire, He Dies Destitute

TONOPAH, Nev.—William Vinsen, said by mining men here once to have been rated as a millionairse mine promoter and mill builder, was found dead in his cabin near here.

Indications were he had taken his life by poison. Vinsen, who formerly resided at Seattle, lost his fortune several years ago, and for the last two years had been destitute.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 17.—Unfavorable weather over the belt and continued apprehension regarding the tropical storm put the price of cotton 18 to 25 points up in the first half hour of business on this market today. May was sent to 17 cents, the highest quotation on the boards since the Sully year.

Realizing was heavy during the morning, causing occasional slight recessions, but was absorbed by a continued demand from spot houses Wall street and commission house sources with prices working up to 18 cents for January and 18.09 for March early in the noon hour or about 20 to 24 points net higher.

Much liquidation came out during the morning but the rise was well maintained in the face of it. In the trading up to noon the rise was widened to 21 to 25 points.

The unexpected rise of 31 points in spot quotations caused a spurt in the early afternoon which sent March above 18 cents to 18.07c and pur the trading months 4½ to 41 points above the level of yesterday's close.

Spot cotton: Steady; 31 points up. Sales on the spot, 295 bales; to arrive, 1,249 bales. Receipts, 23,428 bales; stock, 242,651 bales.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The cotton market showed renewed firmness early today, making another set of new high records on a renewal of Monday's buying movement. There were continued or increased apprehensions as to the course of the tropical storm, which appeared to be working toward the gulf coast, while buying was also encouraged by firmness in Liverpool and the failure of Monday's sharp advance to bring in any great volume of hedge selling. The opening was steady at 8@ advance of 18@8 points and active months sold 10@12 points net higher during the early trading with December advancing to 17.91c and May to 19.10c. Private cables reported a narrow but steady market in Liverpool with very little hedge selling.

Reactions of 10 or 12 points followed the advance to 18 cents for January during the noon hour but heavy offerings were absorbed without apparent difficulty and the market developed renewed strength toward the middle of the afternoon.

Bullish southern spot advices served to stimulate the buying which carried December up to 18.09c, January to 18.06c and March to 18.04c around 2 o'clock, or about 24 to 27 points net higher.

COTTON: Spot, steady; middling uplands 18.15c; sales 100 bales.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 17.—Cotton: Spot, strong. Good middling, 10.61d; middling, 10.47d; low middling, 10.31d. Sales, 8,000 bales; 800 bales for speculation and export. Receipts, 6,000 bales. CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Broadening demand at Liverpool and lessened fear of submarine activities gave an advantage today to the bulls in wheat. Bears were also handicapped by gossip that the British government would sharply reduce vessel rates on grain. In addition, dispatches from Argentina continued to tell of drouth and of resulting damage to crops. The opening here, which ranged from ⅛@¾c higher with December and May both at $1.58@1.58½ was followed by a moderate further advance.

Subsequently a big reduction in estimates of the Argentine exportable surplus tended to cause unusually steep advances in the market here. Foreign buying was heavy and it was said the British government was taking measures to cheapen to a radical degree the cost of ocean shipments from the United States and Canada. The market closed excited, near the topmost prices of the day, at gains of 5⅝c to 7c net with December at $1.63⅝ to $1.62½ and May at $1.64⅝ to $1.64⅝.

Corn rose with wheat. Speculators who sold yesterday were the chief buyers. After opening a shade off to ⅛c up, the market scored fair general gains.

Oats reflected the upward course of other grain. Offerings were rather scanty.

Higher quotations on hogs lifted provisions. Lard for October delivery went to new top figures.

The runaway market in wheat later gave a decided hoist to corn. Closing prices were nervous at an advance of 1⅝c to 1⅞@1⅞c net.

LEADING STOCKS TAKEN ACTIVELY IN BIG LOTS

Steel Noteworthy Feature, Initial Offering Being 8,000 Shares One Point Up.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The activity and strength of Monday's dealings made further headway at today's opening, leading stocks being confidently taken in large individual lots. United States Steel was the noteworthy feature, its initial offering, comprising 8,000 shares at an advance of a point. Gains of 1 to 3 points were made by Bethlehem Steel, shipping shares, prominent munitions and equipments and the copper, leather and motor stocks. Some heaviness was shown by Industrial Alcohol, International Paper, Crucible Steel and Baldwin Locomotive.

Increased breadth and strength marked the dealings of the afternoon, United States Steel and allied issues, coppers and some of the distinctive war stocks scoring smart gains. Sugar and paper shares added to advances of the morning.

Steel and other leaders yielded 1 to 2 points in the further realizing of the final hour, but secondary specialties made greater gains. The closing was irregular.

NEW YORK—The salary of Charles W. Morse, head of the Hudson River Navigation company and the United States Steamship company, has been garnisheed. His salary from these two companies is said to aggregate $923.07 a week. The garnishment is based on a judgment for $28,525 with interest claimed for nearly eight years, amounting to $13,235 additional.

The garnishment order is collectible on 10 percent of the two weekly salaries.

Real Estate and summer boarding houses should be advertised at once in the Want Ads.

By popular demand the engagement of this attraction will be extended for the balance of the week.
