COLD CAUSE OF RUN ON BAKERS

City Households Completely Upset by Recent Weather.

A new era of housekeeping came into effect with the low gas pressure attending the recent cold snap. Housekeepers unused only with gas had no possible use for fresh vegetables and meats. The daily menu in the last foot to the date, before the weather moderated, became a thing to cause the housewife hours of worry.

One West Main street grocer on Saturday alone sold over 1,500 loaves of bread. Pies and cakes and fancy cookies could not be kept in stock so great was the demand and all sorts of ready prepared foods and cooked goods that could be warmed up cold would not need fire enough for real cooking were the favorite market buyers of cold but well cold.

First Robin Here?

Ready cooked chow, from delicatessen counters vied with bacon, cheese and "tinned milk."

Joyful news, along with the advent of the first spring robin today was the drop of 10 cents in price of Florida strawberries, which now may be purchased for 75 cents a box.

Something else that will make housewives happy is the drop in price from 30 to 20 cents on tomatoes.

To balance things nicely and keep the high living cost firm on its perch, Irish potatoes have gone up five cents, 95 cents a peck now being the proper amount to quote.

Pippins Arrive

Flour, butter, eggs and sugar are steady, keeping to the same prices they have for several weeks.

Apple lovers will find happily the arrival of the New Town Pippin, a green skinned, finely flavored apple, at the old familiar 50 cents a dozen. Turnips are still 7 cents, parsley is now at 15 cents a bunch, head lettuce sells at 10 and 15 cents, instead of 15 and 20, the leaf variety selling at 5 cents. Cauliflower remains 25 cents a pound, mustard greens are 15 cents, celery is 20 cents and all kinds of roots 10 cents.

Bananas in many stores have risen and vary from the 10 cents a dozen price. Spinach is quoted at 15 instead of 20 cents.

Oranges, grape fruit and lemons are nice and have a sunny coloring.

England Ships Gold

NEW YORK, March 8.—Gold valued at $7,250,000 is being shipped from England today to this country, according to an announcement made here by Kuhn, Loeb and company. This is the first large shipment in several months and is believed to be the forerunner of others.

Clement Refuses to Call Session.

BURLINGTON, Vt., March 8.—Governor Clement yesterday again refused a request from woman suffrage leaders that he call the state legislature in special session to vote on the suffrage amendment.

Efficient Housekeeping

ANSWERED LETTERS

Interested: Will you publish a list of books on the science and efficient management of the home with the prices of such books?

Answer: I cannot publish the list you ask for, but would be glad to supply it. But if you will send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope I will be very glad to send you a full list of excellent books on every subject. I can secure for home management, cooking, sewing, etc., all books published.

Elizabeth: Can you tell me in what position our flag should be hung when it is draped from a window?

Answer: Never drape the flag. If you have a flag pole hang the flag flat. If it is a home with no flag pole, hang it in the space left blank, with the stripes extending across the entire space. If it is a public building, the flag should be hung in the same way, but should be placed in a position so as to be seen out of the window. I shall be happy to give information on any subject.

L. M.: Perhaps it would be not exactly the thing for you to do, but I think that you could answer such questions as "Colors for autumn and fall suits and wraps" and "Shoes for school girls and boys" and all other questions of a similar character.

Lower mine: Which is introduced to the other — the man or the woman? And what form should one use in making an introduction?

Answer: I am always glad to be of use wherever possible, even though the question asked is not entirely within the scope of this department. You is to your question. The man is introduced to the woman, thus: "Mrs. Smith, may I present Mr. Brown?"

Daily Reader: "Will you kindly give me a recipe for Brownies?"

Answer: I know many delicious recipes for Brownies and am going to give you some of them.

Brownies No. 1: ½ cup butter, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs well beaten, flavored with teaspoon vanilla, 2 squares melted chocolate, ½ cup flour, 1 cup chopped walnut meats. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a buttered tin. Bake 10 or 12 minutes.
