TOM GREEN COUNTY.

Refusal to Sell—The New Court House—A Leap-Year Ball.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

San Angelo, February 21.—The commissioners court have heard from the bishop of the Catholic church, and he has refused to sell them half of the Catholic church block for building the court house and jail on. The priest of the Catholic church here offered the land above mentioned to the commissioners court at $3,000, and the court accepted it, although it is an enormous price on the land. It is considered as a very unwise step on the part of the Catholic church to refuse this price, for if the court house was built on this block it would perhaps enhance the value of the balance of their land several hundred per cent. Besides if they now back down from the proposition, it will doubtlessly incur the displeasure of the citizens of San Angelo to a large extent. It was generally considered that the trade was closed between the church and the commissioners court, and for the bishop to refuse to ratify the trade at the eleventh hour looks as though he was acting very unwisely.

The letting of the court house building at $67,000 meets with pretty general favor, and San Angelo is highly elated with the certainty of soon having one of the finest court houses in the state of Texas. The design is beautiful, and when completed it will be second to none for beauty of architecture. Messrs. Walker & Co., the gentlemen who obtained the contract, are efficient contractors, and no doubt will give the county a good and magnificent piece of work.

The jail contract will be let to-morrow.

The elite of the city will give a leap-year ball to-morrow night in the district court room and a supper at the Minitz hotel. It will be a grand affair and a large attendance is expected.

"On with the dance, let joy be unconfined,
No sleep till morn, when youth and beauty meet,
To chase the glowing hours with flying feet."

HOPKINS COUNTY.

Personal and Political Notes—The Coal Mines—Minor Notes.

Correspondence of the Gazette.

Sulphur Springs, February 22.—Mr. Wheeler of Greenville has been in our town for the purpose of organizing a telephone exchange, and says that they will soon extend the line to Greenville.

Ireland has always been strong in Hopkins county, but we believe now that he is stronger than ever before. Our people think he is one of the best governors the state ever had, and as to the charge of his being timid—it is the veriest bosh. There is no bolder thinker or more determined man in the state than Governor Ireland.

Hon. Seth W. Stewart, a prominent lawyer of our town, who has been three times a member of the legislature, is being urged by friends from all over the district to enter the race for congress, but he has not given them any encouragement. If Culberson should decline to make the race again, Stewart would be very prominent from the Fourth district.

Our schools are in a very flourishing condition, with over four hundred children in attendance.

Our people have this week organized the Sulphur Springs Coal company with $5,000 stock, for the purpose of developing the coal of Hopkins county, which is believed to abound in great quantities of superior quality.

Farmers are very busy preparing for planting, and are getting along well since the rain abated. Weather clear and cool; health good, business improving some little.

Our people very generally favor Fort Worth as the place for holding the state Democratic convention, and believe it would be a just compliment to the great Northwest part of the state.

LOCAL NOTES.

The preliminary trial of J. G. Davis, who is accused of obtaining money from conductor Haskell on a bogus bank check, came off before Justice Zinn yesterday. No new testimony was developed and Davis was held in the sum of $500 to await the action of the grand jury. In default of bail he was returned to the county jail.

A fire was seen in the cross timbers yesterday which, judging from the volume of smoke, must have been very extensive.

The addition of a new flute player is a valuable acquisition to the opera house orchestra.

Seligman, Mayer & Co. recovered a verdict in the county court yesterday against T. J. Jeffries for the sum of $71 83.

A large number of our citizens will be in New Orleans this week. Each successive south-going train carries a number of them bound far Mardi Gras celebration.

Go up in the court house tower and look over on Tucker's hill and see how thickly settled the south side is becoming.

About twenty applicants, ladies and gentlemen, presented themselves yesterday for the examination at Prof. Hogg's office. He worked until midnight examining the papers, not quite completing the work.

R. L. and W. A. Greer of Aullville, Mo., have sold their stock of 177 head of shorthorns, through their agent, L. C. Moore. Messrs. Greer will remain here until they sell their fine stallion.

The dramatic club must not fail.

W. T. Sands has found his shepherd dog that was lost, and is happy.

Sheriff Maddox got back last night from Ohio, bringing with him Leach Coldiron, who jumped his bond and escaped trial for horse stealing.

An Unfortunate Step.

Deputy Sheriff Graham of Archer county was in town last night, with a bandage around his head. Yesterday afternoon he stepped from the fence at the Texas wagon yard on a dry goods box, and it tilted, throwing him head first to the ground, and cutting a painful gash in the back of his head.
