Choice plants from Europe. All imported recently from France. Messrs. Roma & Co. respectfully invite all lovers of flowers to come and see their splendid collection of camellias, magnolias, peonias, azileas and more than 300 kinds of roses, bulbs, roots and flower seeds; also fruit trees, etc. Sold at moderate prices. No. 512 Houston street. If you want plants, call at once, as I only stay here one week.

Mite Social.

The mite social met last night at Mr. Norritt's, corner of Fourth and Grove streets, with a large attendance. A considerable part of the evening was spent in the popular game called "Fruit Basket," while music both instrumental and vocal enlivened the general enjoyment. Among the pieces on the programme were the following:

Song, "The Little Spring by the Cabin," Miss Mary Case.

Select reading, "The Model Church," Miss Carrie Botkin.

Recitation, "The Water Wheel," Miss Lou Gorsuch.

Rev. P. H. Bodkin was called upon for a contribution to the general pleasure and recited a beautiful little poem called "Agnes."

A collection was taken, after which Miss Case favored the club with a good-night song and all dispersed to their homes.

A Prospective Woolen Mill.

W. W. Constant of Peru, Indiana, is in the city prospecting for a location for a woolen mill. Mr. Constant is one of a company that own a large and profitable mill at Peru, and that have recently purchased a double set of improved machinery for another mill. By correspondence with gentlemen in Dallas the company had come to the conclusion that there would be a good location for their mill, and Mr. Constant started to Dallas to make further investigations. On the Texas & Pacific road, when this side of Texarkana, he met gentlemen who knew the advantages of Fort Worth, and he was induced to come on here, without stopping in Dallas. He spent yesterday in looking over the ground and expresses himself very favorably of this city, and it is more than possible that the woolen mill will come here. If it does it will come equipped with a force of intelligent workmen, and will turn out the best quality of manufacture. Mr. Constant leaves this morning for Austin and San Antonio, but will return in a few days.

Arlington Election.

The votes cast in the election held in Arlington on the 10th inst. to determine whether or not that town should be incorporated were counted in the court house yesterday. The total number of votes cast was 62, of which 49 were in favor of incorporating the town. Judge Beckham has ordered a municipal election to take place on the 1st day of April for the purpose of electing a mayor, city marshal and five aldermen for the said town.

Call at Henry & Peak's and examine the automatic door closer. It is the most complete invention of the day. Every business house should have one.

SETTLED.

The New Jail to be Erected on the Spot Where Fakes & Turner's Livery Stable Now Stands.

The county commissioners court was in session yesterday, and took final action in regard to the site for the new jail. Judge Beckham and the commissioners inspected several places, but found none so suitable as the 125 feet front on Belknap, now occupied by Fakes & Turner's livery stable. They succeeded in making satisfactory arrangements with the occupants in regard to obtaining possession, and the purchase of the ground for $5,500 from Mr. Wims was completed. The abandoned site is a valuable piece of property, and the work done on it has only added so much to its value.

A Lover of Horse Flesh.

Tuesday afternoon a young man named Bell hired a horse from a stable at Breckenridge in Stephens county, saying he was going to see his sweetheart. At dark he had not returned the horse to the stable, and the liveryman became uneasy when he learned that Bell had gone south, when his sweetheart lived west. He started out after him and on reaching Ranger, on the Texas & Pacific road, he discovered that Bell had sold the horse there, and taken the train east. The liveryman came on to Fort Worth yesterday, arriving at noon. He went to City Marshal Rea and stated his case, and they found Bell at Frank Kaiser's saloon and arrested him. Bell offered no explanation and was locked up. He will return to Stephens county today in charge of the officers.

Sociable.

The ladies of the South Side Baptist church will give an entertainment this evening at their hall on Houston street, opposite E. M. Wells' drug store. The proceeds will be devoted to their church building.

R. E. LEE CAMP.

AN APPEAL FOR HELP.

The necessity for relief to disabled Confederate soldiers is growing more urgent every day. They have no government to support or provide for them, and must share the fate of paupers unless a home is provided for them by private contributions, and Lee Camp have undertaken to establish such a home.

They have appealed to their comrade veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, who have responded with a noble willingness and fraternal sentiment, worthy of their heroic record. Still, the undertaking is large and the need for further aid is urgent.

We, therefore, appeal to the banks and bankers, capitalists, insurance and other corporations, manufacturers and merchants, for such contributions in cash or merchandise as will be easily spared from their abundance and of great help in our necessities.

We refer to Hon. W. C. Carrington, mayor of Richmond, Va., or to any of our banks, bankers or other business people.

We will hold a fair in this city on or about the first of May at the Armory. Let us at least have some contribution, which will be gratefully accepted and duly acknowledged by publication in our city papers. Address R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1, C. V., Richmond, Va. Postoffice box 283.

CAPT. CHAS. U. WILLIAMS, Chairman.
D. S. REDFORD, Treasurer.
J. E. LANE, Sec'y.

COMMITTEE.

Gen. Peyton Wise, J. T. Ferriter, Capt. W. T. Ashby, L. L. Bass, J. B. McKenney, A. T. Minor, R. H. Fox, Polk Miller, Jas. H. Capers, A. Pizzini, jr., N. V. Randolph, I. Newman.

We refer to the following gentlemen, who will also receive contributions:

Gen. Jos. R. Anderson, Col. Archer Anderson, I. Davenport, Jr., Esq., president First National bank; A. Y. Stokes, Esq., Rev. Dr. J. L. M. Curry, Rev. Dr. W. E. Hatcher, Rev. Dr. M. D. Hoge, Allen & Ginter.

Exchanges friendly to the cause please copy.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Cooper is back after an absence of several weeks.

J. B. Mitchell is confined to his room with a severe bilious attack.

Henry Finch, Esq., is at Colorado City attending district court.

County Treasurer Boyd is complaining but is able to be in his office.

Mrs. H. G. Allis, from Little Rock, Ark., is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Dammann.

Mr. Means, editor of the Gainesville Hesperian, was in the city last night and called on the GAZETTE.

Mrs. W. T. Gray, who has been spending several weeks with friends and relatives in Goldborough, N. C., returned home to-day.

Mr. J. M. O'Neill leaves for Decatur this morning on legal business for the Fort Worth & Denver City railway company. He will return this evening.

Dr. N. C. Ogilvie, the genial general manager of the Mutual Self-Endowment association of Longview, is in the city in the interest of his company.

The GAZETTE is pleased to say that City Attorney James W. Swayne is so much improved that he was able to take a short drive about the city yesterday afternoon.

M. S. Greer of Kopperl, Bosque county, was in the city yesterday looking at the improvements since his last visit. He is very much pleased with the Chicago of Texas.

Mr. J. W. Stanley wore a mysteriously happy smile all day yesterday and slipped a fine Havana into the hands of each of his many friends encountered in his perambulations. It was all on account of a visitor from babyland, a bright little boy of nine pounds weight.

Capt. T. P. Martin has been strongly solicited by numerous property-owners in the Second ward to run for alderman, but owing to pressing business engagements, has been compelled to decline. It is to be regretted that the captain has not acceded to the wishes of his friends, as he would have contributed no little to the business character of the city council and could have been counted on to protect the best interests of Fort Worth.

THE COURTS.

In the county court yesterday the following cases were decided:

Charles Keating pleaded guilty of swindling and was sentenced to ten days' confinement in the county jail.

Harper & Gwynn vs. the Missouri Pacific railroad, judgment for plaintiff for $725.

J. M. Alexander vs. the Missouri Pacific railroad, judgment for plaintiff for $93 12.

In the district court, all cases set for yesterday were continued over by agreement.

The following suit has been filed in this court: Dahlman Bros. vs. Lawson, Smith & Co., for $—. Plaintiffs sued out writs of garnishment against the Matador Land and Cattle company and the Espuela Cattle company.

THIRD AND FOURTH WARDS

There is considerable discussion about the office of city engineer in the Fourth ward, some claiming that Mr. Smoot's term expires this year, and others that it expires with that of the city attorney.

The Texas & Pacific pay-car is expected in the city to-day.

The friends of Mr. Fred Fuschell—"Dutch Fred," as he is familiarly called—are talking of running him for alderman of the Fourth ward.

Mr. P. T. Heffner was fined $5 and costs yesterday in the city court, on account of the alleged difficulty at the depot several nights ago.

The south-bound Missouri Pacific train was late last night.

Front street is greatly improved.

Travel over the different roads was light last night.

Conductor Mark Manley was in the city yesterday.

For Sale, Lots.

A recent purchaser of a block in Rosedale addition will sell it (400x280 feet) for $2,500. Will sell the north or south half for $1,300. Corner lots out of same, 100x200 east and west, $700. Inside lots, same size, $600. Will sell corners, 100x100, for $350; insides, same size, $300. To the few who do not yet know where Rosedale is, we say it is the fine plat of forty-six acres beyond Tucker hill, soon to be traversed by the Rosedale Horse-car line to the Railway Infirmary. SIGNS OF RETURNING SPRING

When wood goes up and coal goes down,
And Nature smiles where she did frown;
When girls of "sealskins" cease to think,
And dream of "lawns," both blue and pink;
When they (the dears) don hosiery gay,
For high-cut shoes are "fired" away;
When dudes are seen, of mind bereft,
For they know on spring clothes they'll get left;
When they (the fools) are seen to prance
Along our streets in linen pants;
When lemonade is in demand,
And milliners' bills are thick as sand;
When the festive ice cream doth appear—
'Tis then we know that spring is near.

Spring, Spring, Spring! This means lots of nice weather—lawn parties, basket and moonlight picnics and other out-door pleasures too numerous to mention. For our part, we never think of spring without thinking of picnics.

Well, we will lay aside nonsense for a few minutes and talk business: Our complete stock of goods for Spring Wear has arrived, and a handsomer lot of goods was never seen in Fort Worth. The early buyers get the first pick, and, for fear all the "beauties" will be sold before you get around, we ask you to come and select at once.

The advent of a new street railroad has had a booming tendency in South End.

Bets as to the results of the census of this city, soon to be taken, are being freely made.

If any hypercritical Dallasian wants to drop five hundred or a thousand dollars against twenty thousand inhabitants, he can find takers by the score.

It's dollars to cents that Col. J. P. Smith will have no opponent for the mayoralty.

Miss Nellie Burke, the famous hippodrome rider, will be in attendance here during the April races and give exhibitions of her renowned chariot races.

Mr. Jos. Austin, one of the members of the grand jury, is fifty-two years old and is now serving as juror for the first time in his life. The first oath he ever took in court was when the present grand jury was impaneled.

Venires of sixty men each have been issued in the three murder cases set for April 14th, 16th and 17th.

The necessary sewer connections are being made as rapidly as possible. All the plumbers in the city are employed in this work.

City Marshal Rea has paid $10 for information that led to the conviction of a man for dumping refuse within the city limits.

Veteran smokers find perfection in cigars at the White Elephant.

700 Acres for $5,000

Including improvements worth $2,700, which embrace two dwellings (one of them having six rooms plastered, papered and painted), cistern, well, stable and sheds. This property, so near Fort Worth, is an excellent stock ranch, as it is almost entirely in grass and amply watered by two large tanks. It will prove highly profitable to the purchaser (a purchaser is certain at such a price), for that use, and in a sure large advance in value within a short time. The ranch will be shown earnest inquirers by Mr. David Boaz or Walter Morten at offices of Texas Investment company, limited.

Don't forget to see the White Elephant while in the city.

The Best Dressed Men

In Texas are those who are wearing suits made by Douglas Bros., leading tailors of the state, at Dallas. They have a full new stock of all the latest spring goods, including the very fashionable crepes, corkscrews and cheviots. They employ the most competent workmen and skillful cutters and fitters to be secured. They can satisfy anyone—the business man, the salesman, the traveling man, the mechanic or the stockman. When in Dallas be sure to call on Douglas Bros.

Farm For Sale or Exchange

For city property, a good farm of about seventy-five acres, near this city, schools and churches right at hand. It is in admirable condition, half being in cultivation and half in pasture and timber. It is fenced with hedge, has upon it a thrifty, bearing orchard, a comfortable dwelling of three rooms and a stable. Will take property worth more or less and pay or receive difference. Inquire of Mr. David Boaz or Walter J. Morten, offices Texas Investment Co., Limited.
