Meeting of the Prohibition Executive Committee.

We published last week the call made by the Hon. E. L. Dohoney, chairman of the state executive committee of the Prohibition party of Texas, for a meeting of said executive committee in Fort Worth on the 7th and 8th of September instant. By request we again call the attention of the public to that fact. It may be that many of our readers would like to attend said meeting and learn what is being done by the Prohibitionists to test the strength of that cause in this state. The policy of THE GAZETTE is to give the news and afford an opportunity to all its readers to be informed of what is going on throughout the country.

Fishing Tackle.

Seines, nets, poles, rods, lines, hooks and every description of fishing and sporting goods at Anderson's gun store.

Sweet Gum.

The exudation you see clinging to the sweet gum tree in the hot summer months scientifically combined with a tea made from the old field mullein, which has mucilaginous principles so healing to the lungs, presents in Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein a pleasant and effective cure for croup, whooping-cough, colds and consumption. Sold by all druggists at 25c. and $1.00 a bottle.

Rainwater Baths.

Hot, cold and shower baths, only 25 cents. Six elegant rooms at E. Gutzman's barber shop, next to corner of First and Main streets. Also, Vapor and Medicated baths. Eight chairs.

Try It.

The widespread popularity of Silver Leaf baking powder is due to the strength and purity of the ingredients that enter into its composition, and repeated chemical tests place it side by side with the most popular brands in the market and show it the peer of any powder yet offered the public. The manufacturer asks only a trial with other brands, and is willing to abide the result.

An Arsenal.

Now in stock, over 1500 shot-guns and rifles of all grades and makes. No trouble to find a gun to suit at Anderson's gun store.

For Sale and Trade.

Two nice carriages. One nice Phaeton. One hearse. Will sell or trade either or all for stock, wild lands or city property. For particulars call on or address A. F. TRUITT.

Austin College, Sherman, Texas.

The next session will open on September 3, 1884. Thorough instructions in all the usual departments of study. For information apply to REV. E. P. PALMER, D. D., President.

Mr. Spinks: "I had such a beautiful dream last night, Miss Briggs! I thought I was in the garden of Eden——" Miss Briggs (with simplicity): "And did Eve appear as she is generally represented, Mr. Spinks?" Mr. Spinks: "I—I—I—didn't look."—[London Punch.

Every smoker should try "Little Joker."

MUSICAL NOTES.

The Juvenile Minstrels will be here 27th and 28th.

Chimes of Normandy rehearsal every night next week—costumes.

It's only an "ad.," all this talk of Freddie marrying the Lily, after all. He isn't such a fool as he looks, by a jugful.

Another distinguished debutante will take the boards this season. Gen. Banks' daughter will tackle "Juliet." She inherits her talent, for the general's wife was an actress.

Nigger ushers for Daly's will be the feature this season, they say. Augustin has evidently got some artistic ideas abroad. With such a father-in-law in front, white men don't hitch at all. Hence the artistic toning down.

The American Moke has come to grief in London. Haverly has gone all to pieces with his "Forty; Count 'Em." The creditors are more than forty, and you can't count 'em. The question is how are the wretched forty to return. Is it to be a swim?

There's a figure we miss from the show circuit. That good-natured and amiable chap, Max Strakosch. Isn't it about time he came to the front again? When there are so many snides claiming first place he should be able to rush clear to the top with no difficulty at all.

The plump, prude, Clara Louise Kellogg is back from Europe working the interview racket for all it is worth. She threatens to go into opera as confidently as if she could still sing, but she can't scare us with that gag. We know she dare not put her terrible threat into execution.

Soubrettes come out strong this year. All of them of any note are to start off on their own hook as stars. The people, they think, like "funny business," and, judging from the characters of some of the managers who are to exploit them, there'll be plenty of it, and of the crookedest sort, too.

No fool like an old fool. Here's Penny-Flipping Raymond engaging himself to appear at the Gaiety theater in London next year. With the memory of his terrible guying in London two seasons ago fresh in his mind, too. His friends should look to him. His mental penny must be so worn that it no longer has either head or tail.

The opera-house is being put in complete order under the direction of Mrs. Charles Benton. The painting is being done in bright colors and gold. The walls will be handsomely papered with velvet and gilt, two green baize doors at front entrance, which will open both in and out. Improvements in the box-office are being made, and the contract let to floor the auditorium and stage, making the finest ball-room in the state. The opera-house always will draw a crowd of our very best citizens, and the move is one in the right direction. It will pay the managers and be a source of great accommodation to the young folks. Besides the improvements alluded to, Mrs. Benton has given orders to her contractor to lay floors in the dressing-rooms underneath the stage and lay carpets in all the dressing-rooms. The stage will have two new carpets, new and elegant scenery, cut-wood drop and cut-wood borders, making our opera-house one to be sought after by star actors. The home company of operatic singers will have a nice, new and clean house to greet their friends on the opening night.

Next Saturday, Sept. 13, Dallas will be visited by the Fort Worth Opera company, presenting the ever-welcome "Chimes of Normandy." The opera will be put on the stage with number one singers, gorgeous costumes and elegant stage settings. Mrs. Benton says she will give the finest settings had, and together with a well rehearsed company and Meine's orchestra the opera cannot fail to please the large audience expected. After playing afternoon and night at Dallas the company will return by special train, playing two nights in Fort Worth. Such has been the demand for a repetition of the Chimes the managers feel proud to announce a complete readiness, and promise a great improvement on the last presentation, although it was then considered equal, if not a better performance than many traveling companies gave us. The company has been strengthened considerably. The part of Germaine will be ably handled by Mrs. Rives Francis, a lady of considerable reputation both as an actress and cultivated songstress. The other female parts will be handled with old time success by Miss Annie Pettus, Miss Lucie E. Souter, Miss Mattie Warren and as far as we are informed the Misses Effie Jennings, Kitty Leslie, Juliet Miller, Jennie Ryan, Abbie Keasey, Sue Rushing, Lulu Hoag and Miss Hershey, and Mrs. Faulkner, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Otten, Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Morrison. Bassos: Messrs. Fosdick, Shreiner, Rafferty, Scruggs, Lilley, Davis, Meade and Lynch. Tenors: Messrs. Feilds, Woolery, Reeves, Elliott, Press Stewart and Dr. Mason. The following gentlemen are the soloists: Messrs. Robt Bonner, W. T. Maginnis, Nat M. Washer, Khleber VanZandt, and Billee Taylor Francis. Prof. G. M. Otten, musical director. This certainly is a good company and will do our city credit. Go where it may it will bring home bright laurels.

Light Bread.

If you have been unfortunate in the selection of a baking powder give Silver Loaf a trial and we guarantee that your bread will be nutritious, wholesome and light, for it has never yet pointed the housekeeper.

Not Hard to Find.

Any little boy in town can show you Anderson's gun store.

Pure Powder.

Since the first package of Silver Loaf Baking found its way to the home of a consumer, it has grown in popular favor with a rapidity unknown in the history of any baking powder yet offered the public. That it rose triumphant over every opposing obstacle and took a position side by side with the leading brands in the market, evidences the merit claimed for it by the manufacturer. Why this unprecedented popularity of this new brand of baking powder is a legitimate question, and the answer is found in the guarantee of J. H. Brown that every package is chemically pure.

"Huckleberries."

The soldiers in the late war established the fact that the huckleberry was much more efficacious in chronic bowel troubles than the blackberry. Dr. Biggers' huckleberry cordial, the GREAT SOUTHERN REMEDY, will restore the little child suffering from the effects of teething, and cures diarrhoea, dysentery and all bowel affections. For sale by all druggists at 50 cents.

Good Bread.

A reliable baking powder is a household necessity, and in the make-up of Silver Loaf a combination has been found by which the most inexperienced housekeeper is on an equality with those who have made bread making a study for years. When directions are followed in its use the result is always satisfactory, and no housewife who uses Silver Loaf Baking Powder ever has cause for complaint
