Stocks Opened Strong, Reacted and Closed Lower—Cotton Lower—Provisions Active.

The Grain Markets Continued Their Upward Movement, Wheat Advancing Two and One-Half Cents.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Governments weaker. Railways irregular.

State securities firm and more active.

The share market during the first hour of business was irregular, but in the main trading, Missouri Pacific, Union Pacific and Western were especially strong. Near 1 o'clock there was a falling off in the volume of business, and prices receded ½ to 1 per cent. Late in the day there was a decided pressure upon coal stocks, Pacific Mail and St. Paul, under which pressure the market dropped 1-2 to 1½ per cent. Near the close Pacific Mail rallied to 55, but the market as a rule left off weak.

Speculation was adversely affected this afternoon on reports of lower passenger rates to Chicago and on the falling off in the eastbound shipments. The coal shares were attacked on the reports that foreclosure proceedings against the Reading had been commenced.

Compared with last night, the closing prices are 1-2 to 1 3-4 per cent lower, except for Canadian Pacific, Central Pacific, Northwestern, Delaware & Hudson, Missouri Pacific and Omaha, which are 1-4 to 1 5-8 per cent. higher.

The sales of stocks for the past week are 1,434,292 shares.

Transactions to-day 281,000 shares.
