ON 'CHANGE.

Stock Market Was Dull Yesterday but Better Prices Prevailed—Cotton Unchanged.

Grain Markets Were Lower Under the Influence of Favorable Crop Reports—The Quotations.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Government bonds continue strong, especially for 4's and 4's.

The railway bond market was moderately active. Prices were higher, the market being very strong this afternoon.

The stock market was dull and weak from the opening until after 2 o'clock, without the development of a feature of interest. At first the losses were generally a shade above closing figures of last evening. There was a fractional rallying from these quotations, followed by reaction and then nothing but dullness and steadiness during the balance of the time, the extreme fluctuations being generally considerably less than a per cent. In the last hour, however, the increased activity was accompanied by a decided advance, which in most cases the highest prices were reached for the active stocks and the strength and activity continued until the close of board.

Total sales were 159,370 shares.

The final sales show advances as compared with last evening of ½ to ¾ per cent.

MONEY.
