DECALETTES.

See the largest and smallest watch in the country in Tullis' show window tomorrow.

There is much talk at present in Fort Worth of large enterprises which will benefit the city.

Before November has gone one Fort Worth citizen will begin the construction of a residence to cost fully $50,000. It will be a magnificent structure.

Rev. Dr. A. P. Graves of New York, under whose preaching the pastor united with the church, will preach at the First Baptist church at 11 a. m. to-day.

J. B. Roberts, city editor of the Mail, and his wife, were made very happy last night by the arrival of a fine boy baby. Mr. Roberts' friends of the press extend heartiest congratulations.

There is a move on foot to build at Fort Worth a magnificent college to cost at least $125,000. A Boston syndicate has agreed to donate ten acres of land near the city for the enterprise.

Several blocks of concrete sidewalks are to be built on Main street at an early day. The ball set in motion by the people on Main between Thirteenth and Fourteenth will continue to roll.

In a few days new buildings to cost over $60,000 will be begun on Main street. There is also talk of a $50,000 building four stories high to go up on the northwest corner of Main and Seventh streets.

Fort Worth Republicans propose to have two celebrations of the election of their candidates to the presidency. On Monday night the Harrison and Morton Club will have a grand parade and on Tuesday night there will be a meeting at the courthouse where several speeches will be made.

It is probable that the Commissioners' court will at an early day take steps to give Fort Worth a fine courthouse. Several citizens favor the establishment of a general market place, if the county has the power, and, if not, express themselves as favoring the building of a market house by the city.

A new firm was formed in Fort Worth yesterday composed of David Boaz of this city and R. E. McAnulty, formerly of Albany. They will transact a real estate and commission business. Mr. McAnulty has brought his family to Fort Worth and will locate here permanently. He has invested largely in Fort Worth property.

Granville H. Martin, editor of the Texas Commercial Reporter, last night sent to the San Antonio International Exposition two medals, one gold, for the handsomest journal; in attendance on the National Editorial convention, and the other, silver, for the homeliest journalist. Both medals are artistic and valuable.

It will probably be Thursday or Friday before the county officers elect qualify and are installed in office. The commissioners will assemble Monday and will begin session several days. As stated previously the new Commissioner's court will consist of three Democrats and one Non-Partisan, exactly the reverse of the last two years.

The ladies of the Cumberland Presbyterian church surprised their pastor, the Rev. R. M. Tinnon, yesterday afternoon by the presentation of a handsome suit of clothes. The doctor was sitting in his study when a box was brought in, and on opening it he was most agreeably surprised to find the present. He was so much pleased that he could not help telling THE GAZETTE man all about it. The donors will be appropriately thanked at this morning's service.

Bank Clearings.

Clearings of Fort Worth Clearing House for week ending November 10, 1888: Clearings, $666,128 54; balances, $101,772 92. E. B. BARKOLD, Manager.

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE.

An Alleged Dramatization of Stevenson's Imaginative Work at the Opera House.

The Howard Company presented at the opera house yesterday afternoon and again last night a very bad dramatization of Stevenson's Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. The company was as bad as the play. There were one or two people in the cast who might do good work if given a chance, but in this rubbish they have none. Louie Miller in the dual role of Jekyll and Hyde was simply execrable. He could play neither the gentleman nor the villain. Miss Lizzie Hunt was passable as Gladys Carew. The others ranged from fair to very bad. There was some horse play intended for comedy, which made the audience laugh, and two songs which were rather elicited by main force, and very badly rung, won a good deal of applause. A good deal of the comedy consisted of swearing, which is rarely excusable on the stage, and never entirely acceptable.

Miss Jane Coombs will play Bleak House on Monday night.

Big Majorities.

Among our latest returns we find the Spanish Cigar Factory is still ahead. Remember the old adage: "The proof of the pudding is in the eating, not in the bag." A trial of our brands, which are as follows, Jonsonia Best, Honest Favorite, La Flor de Monroe, Tampa Best Hand-Made, Our Pet, Fort Worth Belle, Texas Panhandle, Deep Water, will convince the most skeptical that they cannot be duplicated in the United States. Jonson & Co., proprietors Spanish Cigar Factory, 109 Main street, Fort Worth, Tex.

AVERY CARTS

Are the Cheapest, Because the Best.

She drew herself up proudly, fierce determination leaped to her eyes, her lips quivered, her bosom heaved. So might an offended goddess have stood before the man who, pale and trembling, cowered before her.

"Can nothing assuage your righteous anger, dearest?" ventured he at last.

Silence the only answer from her eyes.

"Nothing?" with persuasive insistence. "A cashmere shawl, an opera cloak? a—what, not even a new bonnet?"

For answer she swept majestically to the door.

"Hilo, Cynthia, hold! I'll buy you an Avery cart!"

Slightly mollified, looked searchingly into his eyes, and realizing his noble purpose depicted therein: "Oh, George!" (Tableau.)

IT'S A VERY LONG LANE

That has no turn. Four years ago the Blaine enthusiasts and Republicans generally found pastime in paying off the numerous bets they lost by giving orders for Hats, Underwear, Collars and Cuffs, etc. To-day Cleveland admirers and Democrats generally are engaged in the same (doubtless) pleasurable undertaking.

Being well-stocked in all the latest things for Men's wear, we mention casually here that ours is the store to find the goods you have won. Beside the above mentioned articles we have a superb line of Overcoats and Suits that are regulated in the way of Ready-made Clothing. Added to this we have a Tailoring Depot, where we turn out the very best of work with perfect assurance of a fit. If you have won anything that is carried in our line or if you are not a betting man, but merely desire to purchase "on your own hook" some of the numerous warm things we have for winter wear, don't waste time in looking around.
