The Last Day of our Big January Clearance Sale

In accordance with an old established custom to enter the Spring Season with our stocks in every department aglow with new up-to-the-minute merchandise, we select January as the month to dispose of all remaining winter Goods. We select this month because our customers may reap the benefits for the remaining winter months---instead of waiting until Spring Time, when Winter goods should be out of Season. We have still a very good stock of goods to select from at money saving prices.

DON'T LET THE OPPORTUNITY PASS. TWO MORE DAYS ONLY

AMONG THE MERCHANTS

Smith Brothers Confectionery store has moved to the Wilmuth building next door to the Post office, where a very attractive interior has been arranged.

Miss Sudie Alexander of the Chaney Mercantile Company is still at home on account of being rather peaked, her many friends hope soon to see her at the store.

F. W. Lemons, who will occupy the Arcade stand, is receiving large shipments of fancy goods and will soon be ready for business. Mr. R. W. Nelson and family will move to Brownwood where he will engage in the same line of business.

Uncle Charlie Dodson is able to be down town after a lingering tussle with the la grippe.

Saturday Jan. 22, is the last of the special sale at Caton-Dodson's big store. The recent crisp weather has caused a great demand for heavy goods and the sale has been a big success. If you haven't taken advantage of these offerings, be sure and do so tomorrow.

Mrs. E. F. Reeken and son, John, are visiting relatives in Kansas City.

Mrs. Fred A. Grayson, Mrs. W. L. Forrester and other Baptist ladies have returned from attending the Ladies' Assembly in Abilene.

Johnson Brothers have purchased the C. R. Pollney stock of Gent's Furnishings located on the north side of the square, and are conducting an introductory sale in a page advertisement this week, which indicates a great sacrifice in prices in many lines. Mr. Pollney and family expect to locate in Wichita Falls. Johnson Brothers come well recommended and we bespeak for them a liberal patronage of the people of Scurry county.

Townsend-Oldham & Co are offering this week some special end-of-the season bargains which will interest all who call. See their large advertisement in the Signal. Mr. Northcutt, in planning for the interest of our patrons, goes detail everyone. Mr special attention in order to be able to supply every demand of his patrons. They carry everything and the best.

J. H. Sears & Co. were with a large aggregation Chicago and automobile loads artistic of realized pictures that fail to read what they have to say.

The Lyric Theatre has closed down until their new building is ready for occupancy. They hope to be able to get possession to move in. The first sound from the Rex story will appear in the Signal and the picture will appear beginning where they left off, when the new building is ready. See the announcement in today's paper.

The Opera House Theatre is presenting attractive movies as usual and the attendance has been extraordinary considering the inclement weather. Mr. Ellis is convinced the public that these entertainments can be produced at the very reasonable rate of 5 and 10c. Movie fans will be pleased with the production.

Miss Lizzie Watkins has rented a neat five-room cottage in the east part of Snyder and it will be occupied by a new family which will soon arrive here from East Texas.

MONUMENTS.

Direct from Factory, High Grade Material and Workmanship.

FRED WALTER,

Snyder, Texas.

The many friends of Mr. R. H. Williams are pleased to know that he has contracted to again assume the management of the Wells Fargo and Company's express office here. He recently came to hold this position (with records and very enviable action of details) who has had charge of the office the most time left Dallas for Dallas where he will work in the general office.—Weatherford Republican.

Mr McGinnis was called to mother for awhile last Fall and went from here to Gainesville where Mr. Goode came here to take charge.

Born, Jan. 9, to Mr and Mrs. B. E. Brown, west of town, a boy.

Will Rogers was here Wednesday from his Wamella farm looking after unfinished business.
