BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

DECEMBER . . . 11, 1878.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Geo. Raitt, of Rome, Ind., is quite ill.

Mr. A. A. LaHeist and wife, of Lewisport, Ky., are paying a visit to relatives in town.

Mrs. Mary A. Welling, of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thos. H. Sawyer.

Mrs Martha Walter is visiting relatives in Shawneetown, Ill.

Mr Edgar Bennett's little son, Guy, died very suddenly last Monday morning. He was a bright, cheerful little boy and his parents have our deepest sympathy in their great bereavement.

Henry Redford, on the 6th inst., attempted to board a freight train at Guthrie while he was in an intoxicated condition, fell under the train and was crushed to death.

Miss Anna Lightfoot, daughter of Dr. Nat Lightfoot, died of typhoid fever, in Hebbardsville, Ky., on the 6th of last November. She was an estimable, Christian lady, and beloved by all who knew her.

Mrs Virginia Hewell Garnett, wife of the Hon. James B. Garnett, died at his residence, in Cadiz, Ky., on the 30th ultimo. Mrs. Garnett was a lady of very superior intellect, highly cultivated, and of the purest and sweetest spirit. Her death is a loss to the church and community, and an irreparable one to her husband.

At the Cloverport Hotel.

John Almstedt, H. C. Gault, M. Cerf, R. G. Whittinghill, Chas Whittinghill, county; Miss Ellen Spenser, Henderson, Ky; Jo Haycraft, Owensboro, Ky.; Rev. A. J. Miller, Henderson, Ky.; Rev. N. Lacy, Madisonville, Ky.; F. M. Smith, Tobinsport, Ind.; H. P. Taylor, Wallace Gruelle, Louisville, Ky.

The Ashland Review says that neither of the guards who brought a lunatic from Johnson county to the asylum could give the name of their post-office, but the lunatic gave it promptly.

Don't forget it, that D'Huy sells a solid Gold Pen with silver-plated holder and pencil combined, for the small sum of one dollar.

The poor-house of Washington county, Iowa, was burned on the morning of the 8th inst., and five of its inmates.

F. N. D'Huy. will be in Hardinsburg on Monday, the 23rd, with a large and elegant Stock, at Beard & Beeler's.

The house of A. McPhearson, near Dixon, in Sloan county, Cal., was destroyed by fire on the 3rd inst. An Indian girl who was living in the family, was burned to death in the house.

Recollect, girls and boys, that now is the time to send in specimens of Penmanship, to F. N. D'Huy's Jewelry Store in Cloverport, open to Breckenridge county, the best specimen to receive one of D'Huy's celebrated gold pens and holder. Christmas, the 25th inst., age 16 and under.

Robert J. Whelan, a youth of nineteen, living in Jersey City, robbed his imployer of $41,000, and left.

F. N. D'Huy will have the Largest and Best assortment of Silverware, such as Castors, Butter-dishes, Knives, Forks, Spoons, Vases, Pickle-castors, Napkin-rings, etc., this side of Lousville, and at lower prices.

The war in Breathitt county still continues. Judge Ned Strong is encamped on Reiley's Creek with sixty-five armed men; Capt. Will Strong is encamped on the Middle Fork of Kentucky river with over twenty men, and John Aikman with twenty-five men is encamped on the North Fork. All civil law is defied and anarchy prevails. Many of the best citizens and business men are leaving the country.—Ex.

The largest stock of Jewelry, Sleeve-buttons, Studs, Collar Buttons, Chains, Bracelets, Charms, Rings, Watches, Gold Pens, etc., ever brought to Cloverport, can be found at F. N. D'Huy's Jewelry Store, in Cloverport, Ky. Everything warranted, as sold.

He that saves when he is young, may spend when he is old. You will never be young but once.

Friends, dear friends, now as the winter season has set in, and our streets are full of mud, please don't stop your teams on the crossings, you make the ladies and school-children wade through the mud to get around them.

Don't forget that F. N. D'Huy, will be in Hardinsburg, on the 23rd inst., one day only, with a Large and Stylish Stock of Watches, Jewelry, Chains, Silver Ware, etc. Call in and examine, at Beard & Beeler's (at less than Louisville prices.)

William Lewis, brother to United States Senator Lewis, was drowned on the 3rd inst. while crossing the Shenandoah river at Port Republic.

On the 3rd inst., while two men were smearing the inside of two very large tanks with coal tar, in Belcher's sugar refinery in St. Louis, the tar took fire, and before the men could be gotten out they were burned to death.

Monday, the 23rd inst., is the day to call at Beard & Beeler's store in Hardinsburg, to secure bargains in Rings, Gold Pens, Chains, Silver Ware, Spectacles, etc. F. N. D'Huy will be there on that day, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Call at Beard & Beeler's on Monday, the 23rd inst., and see F. N. D'Huy's Large Stock of Ladies' Chains, Watches, Bracelets, etc., etc.

The following persons joined the Presbyterian church at the last revival:

Allie Belle Pierce, Lizzie E. Satterfield, Katie Meador, James H. McNab, Jno. W. Witt, Mary E. Hamman, Fred H. Pierce, Mary E. Rowland.

Robert Harris, alias, Mickey Free, the first man who walked 1,000 miles in 1,000 consecutive hours, has walked over Jordan.

Killed by a Tree.

Mr. Gabriel McDaniel, living about two miles northeast of Fordsville, Ohio county, was found dead under a tree about 9 o'clock, Wednesday morning, December 4th, 1878. He had chopped a tree nearly ready to fall, and it was supposed that some of his stock was near and he undertook to drive them away, when the wind blew the tree a different way from that it was chopped to fall, and crushed him to death. On the morning of the 5th an inquest was held by C. W. R. Cobb, Justice of the Peace of Ohio county. His remains were taken to his brother-in-law's, Mr. Joseph Cooper, in Breckenridge county, where the funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Charles B. Phillips. After service the remains were laid in the Cooper graveyard. He was a devoted Christian and loved to attend meetings, especially protracted, in which he always took an active part, as a leading member of the church. At the time of his death his membership was with Mount Pleasant church, Ohio county. He was born in Ohio county, and was about 69 years of age. FORBES.

We will send the NEWS and DETROIT FREE PRESS, One Year, for $2.50.

STILL THE FARMERS

Have a chance to go back to their old friend, J. L. MILLER, and have their Blacksmithing done. He has rebuilt his shop, and is now ready to do anything in his line. He will keep on hand all kinds of Wagons, and will not be undersold by anybody. He has a sufficient number of Blacksmiths and Wagon-makers to do anything on Short Notice, his trade may demand. He keeps the Best Assortment of Plows of any shop in the country, and will sell them at Factory Prices. He is ready to make Buggies and Spring Wagons at Bottom Prices.

ROCK LICK, Nov. 28th, 1878.

Alva Simmons, son of Martin and Patsy A. Simmons, Born March 23rd, 1878, died Nov. 26th, 1878. Died on Tuesday at one o'clock, buried on Thursday at two o'clock.

Yes, there is one place like home, 'tis at God's holy shrine,
Where high thoughts are kindled and feelings divine,
Where the anthems of praise so melodious roll,
There's the home of devotion, the home of the soul.

John T. Short and Sophie Gross, of New Richmond, Ohio, loved each other better than they loved anybody else. Yes, Sophie loved Mr. Short better than she loved her father and mother, and Mr. Short loved Sophie better than he loved his dear wife and children, and so one day last week when, or about the time forbearance ceased to be a virtue they quietly left the country, and have not been heard from since.—Ex.

Charles E. Lesche, clerk in the brewery of David E. Jones, of N. Y., was arrested for embezzling $25,000.

Services at the Methodist church Thursday and Friday nights. Quarterly meeting will begin on Saturday at 11 o'clock. Rev. S. C. Allen, P. E., will preach Saturday and Sunday. Rev. H. C. Settle, of Owensboro, will be here Tuesday next, and preach through the week.

The United States Court has rendered judgment for the government against Geo. Atcheson for $15,000, placed in his hand by the government for distribution among the Indians of Minnesota, in 1870.

The Grand Jury.

It is a well-circulated rumor that the Grand Jury now sitting at Hardinsburg is finding indictments against the merchants, for selling goods on the Sabbath day. Selling way down low—near cost—is not considered a penal offence, and therefore no indictment can be found against Messrs. J. F. Sulzer & Bro., for establishing low prices for good and durable goods.

HOLIDAY GOODS.

A full line of nice and elegant goods, uitable for Christmas presents, can be found at Messrs. J. F. Sulzer & Bro's. They re now unpacking new goods for the inspection of all who wish to look.

E. D. White, of San Francisco, died on the 5th inst., being 111 years old.

Telegrams from St. Louis, December 1st, state that Kansas City was enveloped in snow. Telegraph lines were broken down in every direction.

We see from the Arkansas Weekly Gazette, that Harry Jabine won a $100 dog at the Arkansas State Fair, by being the best shot.

The meeting at the Presbyterian church was one in every way enjoyable, and was greatly beneficial to saints and sinners. Our young people, we are glad to say, among many other of their noble traits of character, were always in attendance, and we hope will be greatly benefitted.

Quarterly meeting will commence at the Methodist church on Saturday, the 14th, and will, in all probability, be protracted.

Col. T. L. Jones, candidate for Governor, will speak at Hardinsburg, January 3rd, in the day, and at Cloverport at night.

Mrs. Weatherholt, of this place, is quite sick and helpless, and Mrs. Garrett is quite sick. She has been bed-fast for several years. May the angel of Charity throw his arms around the needy ones.

John Crawford, a poor laborer of Findley, Ohio, has fallen heir to $1,500,000, by the death of an uncle. Many a poor fellow now-a-days could be induced to part with one of his dear uncles for that amount.

After forty years' courtship Edward Hitchume, a bachelor of ninety, and Miss Elizabeth Wanzer, aged ninety-one, were married in New York on the 5th instant. —Buffalo Express.

They had a $50,000 fire in east Sanginaw, Mich., on the 4th inst.

Mrs. Elta Wallace committed suicide at Deadwood, D. T., on the 4th inst, by taking morphine. Great mental trouble was the cause.

David Velinger, the brutal Chicago wife murderer, has been acquitted on the grounds of insanity.

Tribute to the Memory of Miss Amie Burks.

We republish from the Courier-Journal the obituary of Miss Amie Burks, written by Mrs. Tevis, of Science Hill Academy, in whose school Miss Burks received her education. She was a very highly accomplished young lady, the center of attraction in any gathering or community in which she moved, and was universally beloved and admired by all who knew her. She died a happy Christian death, meeting the grim monster with all the composure of a Christian soldier.

BURKS.—At the residence of her parents, in Breckinridge county, Ky., Friday, Sept. 27, 1878, AMIE, eldest daughter of John and Eliza Burks, formerly of Louisville, Ky., aged 23.

This lovely girl was a few years ago a pupil of Science Hill, where she earned the kindest regards of her companions, and the entire confidence of her teachers. She seemed to possess a disposition that defied envy or jealousy, and secured friends by those inborn sentiments proceeding from the depths of the human heart. Her unfailing good humor charmed by its uniformity, and entered into all her social relations. When at school she was converted. In this conversion there was no perceptible change, for it seems to me she had never lost the justifying grace that she brought into the world with her. The Savior often gathers young souls, and little by little their faith becomes firmer and stronger. As we look back, we can but pray; as we look forward, we can but trust. I am told that from her childhood she had the greatest faith in prayer, and early learned to carry her troubles to her Savior. She was, in fact, the household angel, doing all that her little hands found to do, even before she had learned by inspiration the duties life devolved upon her. She is gone from us as if exhaled to heaven. Grief fills our hearts, and a shadow rests upon the household of love, whence she has departed to swell the angelic choir that surrounds the throne of her Father in heaven. To her grief-stricken parents we would say: look not on the dim twilight of life's approaching close, but remember that, while you walk mournfully in the shadows of this weary world, your precious child is on the other side, waiting and watching in the green fields of Eden. She was resigned to meet the summons, to depart and be forever at rest. Thus she was enabled to look death in the face without trembling. When spoken to of death, it seemed to awaken no terror, but she bravely answered, "I am not afraid to die; and, although I pray that God will spare my life, yet if He does not, I shall be better off." That soul of origin divine, God's glorious image —freed from clay, in heaven's eternal spheres shall shine—a star of glory.

Rockvale is the name of a new post-office just opened at Wheatley's old stand. Mr. E. T. Moorman, Post Master.

We will send the NEWS and GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, One Year, for $3.00.

It is quite fashionable in New Orleans, they say, to commit suicide; in fact, it is getting to be the fashionable way of dying in a great many parts of the United States. We have just read of a boy who refused to go to school and got a slight chastisement, which made him so mad that nothing but hanging himself got him in a good humor.

A justice of the peace in Nebraska has just held a sheep thief in $3,000,000 bail.

"Up Gulch" is the name of one of the newspapers published in the Black Hills.

LOUISVILLE JOCKEY CLUB GROUNDS,
AUGUST 15, 1878.
MR. HENRY A. MAGILL:
DEAR SIR—I had a very severe attack of Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever. Quinine was prescribed in large doses by my physician, but failed to cure me or be of any benefit. Magill's Chill Cure, Tonic and Appetizer was recommended. I procured one bottle, and by the time I had used a few doses the disease was broken, and I am now completely restored to health. A member of my family was soon afterward taken ill with the same disease, and was quickly cured with a few doses from the same bottle. Gus. Lancaster, a jockey, was cured by a few doses from the SAME bottle, and the fourth person, sick with the same disease, is now using some of the medicine remaining in same bottle. I regard it the most valuable medicine I ever used, a splendid tonic and powerful appetizer. It did not cause any noise or buzzing in my head, as was the case with the quinine I used. I never before used a medicine which had such a splendid effect, and I willingly and cheerfully give it my indorcement.
