A letter from J. C. Elder, jr., chairman of the Republican county committee, was read to the meeting, tendering his resignation as chairman. Upon motion his resignation was accepted and the convention unanimously tendered to Mr. Elder the thanks of the party for the able and impartial manner in which he had for years past discharged his duties as chairman.

On motion W. B. Yandell was elected chairman by acclamation and accepted the position in a ringing speech

The candidates being called in to express their preference as to the manner and time of selecting the ticket by a large majority expressed a preference for the Committee to decide the matter and for an early convention.

On motion it was ordered that the County Committee meet at Marion on the 7th day of April, 1894, to select the candidates for the county ticket.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

A. WILBORN, Chm'n.

H. A. HAYNES, Secty.

Neighborhood News

Fredonia.

James Hawthorne, of Princeton, was in town a day or two last week.

Rev. McCall, of Hopkinsville, preached four sermons here last week, preaching the first Friday and the last one Sunday night.

Rev. Roy preached at the M. E. church, Kelsey, Sunday and Sunday night; a large crowd attended.

Miss Maud LaRue, of Salem, attended the meeting here Sunday.

Dick Mayes, of Crittenden, was in this vicinity Sunday to see his best girl.

I have never been much deeper in politics than I have in the petrified forests of Arizona. "Nemo" was mistaken about my being called a Snollygoster. The Journal said an exhorter or lecturer; a big difference between exhorter and Snollygoster. Col Ham brought the word "Snollygoster" to these parts last week.

R. L. Wigginton and family were visiting in Dogwood last Saturday and Sunday.

Milton Maxwell and wife were visiting her parents, Wm Guess and wife, of Bethlehem, Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Wyatt and wife, of Salem, have been visiting Mrs M. S. Wyatt and family several Sundays.

Born to the wife of C. B. Loyd, on Thursday, March 8, a fine large boy, and Charlie wears an extensive, pleasant smile.

John Wyatt and wife were visiting in the Bethlehem neighborhood last week, returning Sunday evening.

When in Kelsey with your wagon, for a few dollars you can take home a wagon load of furniture from S. C. Bennett's.

Ross Baker, of Crider, was in town Sunday.

Misses Isabella and May Garner were visiting Mrs. Linnie Turley, of Crider, two or three days last week.

J. T. Woolf is selling the "Steel Beauty" Corn Planter. The best on earth, try one and see.

Miss Bell Rice, of Lamasco, has been visiting Prof. J. J. Nall and family for the past few days.

See those fine extension tables at Bennett's.

J. T. Woolf has the best cleaned grass seed ever brought to the county; large lot and low prices.

Crider & Maxwell, Fredonia, Ky., have a large stock of hardware, farming implements, wagons, buggies, etc. They are selling at bed rock time prices, and request every one interested to them to call at once and settle.

You will save money by getting Woolf's prices before buying anything in his line elsewhere.

S. C. Bennett expects to have his eight hundred dollar hearse about the first of April, and will keep the finest coffins and caskets that can be procured, and at prices that will defy competition. And remember that he will not be undersold on furniture, wall paper, or anything in his line.

If you want a wagon, buggy, harness, plow, harrow, corn planter, clover seed, grass seed, saddle, bridle, cooking stove, parlor stove, crosscut saw, handsaw, or anything in the hardware line, John T. Woolf, Kelsey Ky., will save you a big per cent. of your money.

Miss Anna Phillips, of Marion, is attending the meeting this week at Kelsey, and is the guest of Mrs. Phenia Caldwell.

K. G. Fuminger, James Johnson, Wm Johnson, D. A. Black, A. B. Moerly and J. L. Wyatt made a business trip to Princeton last Monday.

H. F. Ordway and B. A. Jacobs went to Marion last Monday.

Eph Oaten and Gus Dorr, of Princeton, were in town Monday.

There will be a large hot crop truck.

Go to J. T. Woolf, Kelsey, for your clover and grass seed; they are pure and prices low.

For the new spring styles see Bugg & Loyd.

Bugg & Loyd, Fredonia, Ky. have a full assortment of all the latest style goods, consisting of ladies fine dress goods, gents furnishing goods, hats of every style and grade, calicos, ginghams, etc. The finest line of ladies and misses shoes ever brought to this town; all of which they are selling at prices to suit the times.

For anything to wear call on them and you will get the best of goods and save money.

Fords Ferry.

Hugh McConnell left Friday for Chattanooga with a car load of stock.

R. A. Oakley has purchased the N. B. Nation property consisting of four acres.

J. N. Rankin was in Paducah a few days last week.

G. C. Walker is at home for a few days rest.

Prof. J. R. Paris will leave in a short time for Bowling Green where he will attend school.

W. E. Flannery shipped a large load of lumber to Paducah Saturday.

J. W. Paris and daughter, Miss Cecilia, and Misses Minta Wilborn and Rosa Nation attended church at Pleasant Hill last Saturday and Sunday.

W. B. Wilborn has secured a position as pilot on the steamer I. N. Hock.

W. B. Rankin is presenting his farm with a neat two story residence.

Who wears a broader smile on his face, or feels prouder than Dick McConnell? its a little girl at his house and it tips the beam to 9 pounds.

An effort is being made to establish a new post office between this place and Marion. It will probably be located at or near P. E. Shoemaker's.

Miss Lauella Miller, one of Livingstons fairest belles, who has been the guest of Miss Cordia Paris for the past week returned home Saturday.

W. B. Carnahan is adding materially to looks of our little town by repairing and repainting the Bell City Hotel. He is also moving the old store house from in front of the hotel, on the east corner of Main street.

There has been five accidental deaths in this neighborhood within the past eleven months; one drowned, two burned and two killed with levers.

We think it high time the Republicans were giving the colored man some of the plum, and quit feeding them on promises, as they have been doing for the past 20 years.

Rattler.

Crooked Creek.

Nice pleasant weather.

Roads are good in general.

Farmers are busy plowing this week.

Jas Paris and wife and Mrs Jane McMican visited J. H. McMican, of Levias, last week.

Rev. Belt will preach at this place the second Sunday in next month; everybody invited to come out.

We must begin to thinking about organizing our Sunday school at this place shortly, as the weather has faired up.

Married at the residence of R. B. Gass, on Wednesday evening March 7, at 7:15 o'clock, Mr. Chas McMican and Miss Mattie Gass, Rev. E. B. Blackburn, officiating. Charlie is one of the most well known and enterprising young men of this vicinity, and has for some time been talking of going west, but this is what we suppose he calls "going west."

The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of R. B. Gass, of Midway. We want to extend to them our best wishes for a long and happy life and may the dark shadows of life cease to gather round them.
