Have Sold their 1909 Crop of Tobacco to J. W. Clarke & Company, of Morganfield.

GOOD PRICES WERE PAID FOR ENTIRE CROP

To Be Delivered Three Days In Each Week--- Those Days Being Thursday, Friday And Saturday.

READ WITH CARE SO THERE WILL BE NO MISTAKE.

I [illegible] to say that we have sold to J. W. Clarke & Co., of Morganfield [illegible] tobacco grown in this county during the present year [illegible] for our members.

Please [illegible] co-ops [illegible] words, it has been [illegible] with quality [illegible] 25 inches [illegible] the first [illegible] 20 inches, [illegible] 20 to 22 inches, [illegible] tobacco 18 to 20 inches, in the fourth class; and, all tobacco under 18 inches, in the fifth class.

Of course these instructions do not apply to trash leaf, which is always in a class to itself.

We have agreed with the purchasers that this tobacco is to be well picked, and entirely free from damage.

Tobacco in a damaging condition from excessive moisture, if delivered in such condition, will have to be ordered at the expense of the owner, before delivery.

We have also agreed with the purchaser that we will load three days in each week, always begining on Thursday and continuing through Saturday. Therefore, I hope that all farmers will guard against a rush, as, in the event that there is more tobacco brought during these three days than can be loaded, it will be necessary for you to hold it until the following Thursday.

It is understood that this tobacco is to be delivered in cars through the Moore factory which our Association fortunately owns, and I earnestly beg of you to note these instructions with care so that there will be no possible chance of a misunderstanding.

Motsenbocker-Brown.

At 10:30 o'clock on last Thursday morning in the County Clerk's office, Mr James J. Brown and Miss Bessie B. Motsenbocker were joined in holy wedlock by Rev. Carter, of the Repton church.

The groom is a promising young man, of Earlington, Ky., while the bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nellie Motsenbocker, of this city. Mrs. Motsenbocker returned to Earlington with the newly married couple, having received a telegram that her grand daughter, little Ethel Wyatt, was very sick. She will remain there until the child recovers.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

On The Death of Mrs. Nina Wheeler Passed by Ladies' Aid Society.

Mrs. Nina Wheeler, the devoted wife and loving mother and true friend, has answered the call that, sooner or later, must come to each of us. It is with unutterable sadness that we speak of our departed sister in our society, who has been called from a service of love in which her labors are so much needed.

Since childhood, Nina has always stood for the gospel of Christ, a heavenly light in our midst a tower of strength to our society, she assisted the President in every way that she could, never finding a task too difficult.

Another beautiful life is gone, her pleasant, bright and cheerful disposition was a benediction to all who came in contact with her.

Her faithful service to the Aid, the church and all its institutions makes her death seem almost an irreparable loss. Rich was her nature in all the finer and purer characteristics that constitute noble womanhood. Her excellence was to be observed in her home where she glorified Motherhood by her tender devotion to her little son. When his father died she at once assumed the place of both father and mother. She ruled by love. Love was her scepter.

RESOLVED, That in the death of Mrs Nina Wheeler the Ladies' Aid Society has lost one of its best and most untiring members, that the church and Sunday school, the poor of the town, one of their truest friends.

RESOLVED, That each member of the Aid, through prayer and words of encouragement, do all in her power to wield an influence of right over James, her son.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the [illegible] husband and son, and a copy be published in the Rosco Press.

Mrs. W. H. ROCHESTER,
Mrs. R. L. PARKER,
Mrs. J. G. ROCHESTER,
Committee.

R. H. Kemp bought the stock of groceries of A. M. Gilbert at the Commissioner's sale Monday. He bought them low and is going to sell them low. So you had better go to him for some splendid bargains.
