No More Suffering.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thompson, of Spencer, Ia., says: "Have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few botlles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some releif, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with Indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by M. Rose.

THE TIMES for the news.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The city council met at the council chamber Monday night, the same being an adjourned meeting for the transaction of ordinary business. At the opening of the meeting Mayor Terry had not arrived, and as he is in poor health, it was thought that he probably would not be present for the night, so Dr. Williams was elected chairman pro tem. All the councilmen were present. The report of the graded school was read and received, and the salaries of the teachers were allowed for the fourth school month ending December 13. At this juncture Mayor Terry arrived and took the chair.

The street committee was instructed to provide more light for the city.

Littlepage, Warmouth and Daniel were appointed a committee to receive and measure the timber bought from A. E. Barnett & Son for the trestle approaching the new bridge.

The street committee was empowered to receive and award or reject bids for putting in the fill approaching the trestle onto the bridge.

An ordinance was passed regulating the sale and explosion of fireworks in the city as published elsewhere in this issue.

AN ORDINANCE.

The City Council of the City of Clay City, Ky., do ordain as follows:

Sec. 1. That Section 2, Art. 2 of the ordinance regulating the shooting of fireworks in the city of Clay City, Ky., be so amendad as to read: The penalty for such offense shall be not less than $1.00 nor more than $10.00 for each and every offense, and all ordinances conflicting herewith are hereby repealed,

Sec. 2. That it shall be unlawful for any merchant or individual to sell such fireworks in the city of Clay City without first paying a license of $5.00 for such privilege.

Sec. 3. Any person or persons violating the provisions of Sec. 2 of this ordinance shall be fined $10.00 for each and every offense.

Sec. 4. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its first publication, as required by law.

J. H. TERRY, Mayor. J. E. BURGHER, Clerk.

The river has been frozen over for several days—an unusual occurrence for this time in the year.

Marion Frazier, who is employed by the Loveland-Garrett Company, had a narrow escape from being killed last week. He was feeding the stave bucker when the machine hurled a piece of timber out with such terrific force that it bent a large iron bar which was arranged around the machine, and this shield alone saved Mr. Frazier's life.

We acknowledge receipt of a handsome calendar from the Reliance Manufacturing Company. It is one of the most handsome calendars we have seen this season. This firm is one of the leading business concerns of Winchester and we are doubly glad to note their prosperity. They are ex-Powellites and exceedingiy courteous and deserving gentlemen.

Irvine is advertising the sale of Franchise for natural and artificial gas. The motive of the sale is to accommodate the gas company which has a number of fine wells on White Oak creek. When once piped into the town it can be used for both lighting and heating purposes at a much less expense than any other material. we hope to see the project a success.
