COUNT BONI DE CASTELLANE has a $11,000 overcoat Pity he has nothing to put into it.

GOV. BECKHAM will shortly announce his candidacy for re-election. A friendly suit will then be filed to test his eligibility.

THE Illinoise woman who killed herself by taking too much "complexion medicine" doubtless is now satisfied with the results.

REV. JOHN L. BARTH, a native of Louisville, attended for the first time a foot-ball game at St. Louis, and became so excited he died from apoplexy.

JOHN CLINTON GRAY, elected Justice of the supreme court of the state of New York on the Democratic ticket, did not spend a cent in securing the nomination or election to the office.

MR. ROCKEFELLER, JR., is telling his Bible class what constitutes "real success." The junior Rockefeller's greatest success seems to have been in securing a multi-millionaire for a father.

MISS ESTELLE REEL, superintendent of Indian schools, says in her annual report that there is a marked advance in industrial training. She says the blanket Indian is gradually disappearing.

THE Hamilton (O.) Evening Sun has joined the crusade against the "newspaper guessing contests." The example of the Sun should be followed by all reputable newspapers. The "guessing contest" must go.

IN Brooklyn a trained nurse who prophesied that it would be girl has been refused payment for her two months of service by the disappointed mother of a "bouncing boy." All of which goes to show that girls are mighty uncertain things.

ATTORNEY GENERAL MURPHY, of Arkansas, publicly declares that Governor Jefferson Davis, of that state, is a liar and a rascal. The governor's opinion of Mr. Murphy is not reported, but if he is worthy of his illustrious name, he will show him what he thinks of such charges. —Lexington Democrat.

FROM Berlin comes the story of a pastor who, believing that the bride had a past, made her remove from her wedding veil the myrtle which symbolizes innocence and purity. If the custom spread to this country it will result in many a woman's being married in street dress.—Louisville Times.

THERE is a difference of one-half in the price charged the American retailer for lead pencils and that charged the foreigner for the same pencil. The price to the American retailer is $4 50 per gross, to the foreign retailer $2.25 This is one of the beauties of the present tariff —Georgetown News.

POSTAL cards which have been spoiled and not sent throught the mails, if entire are now redeemed at all postoffices under a sliding scale of valuations by which the postmaster will pay 7 cents for 10 cards, 18 cents for 25 cards, 37 cents for 50 card, 75 cents for 100 cards. The cards are to be wrapped in bundles of 25.

WE can look for all kinds of reckless legislation in the next two years. The wealthy will continue to pile up stolen riches and the poor will approach nearer pauperism than ever before. There is just so much real wealth in the country, and it goes without saying that if riches accumulate in the hands of the few, the many will be that much impovished thereby.—Mammoth, Ill., Democrat.

THERE was a case of genuine justifiable homicide at Somerset last week. One boarder killed another for loud snoring. If there was ever anything that would justify the taking of human life, we believe that it is it. Some fellows evidently practice the "art," and can keep a much noise as the blower on a locomotive. — Lancaster Record.

JOHN S. WISE, the renegade of Virginia, employed by the negroes of his old State to contest the validity of the suffrage clauses in the Virginian Constitution, has advised every colored man to bring suit for $5,000 damages against Governor Montague, each individual member of the Constitutional Convention, the three members of the registration board which refused to register him and the three judges at his voting precinct. "The amount involved in the suits," says the Richmond dispatch, "will make the State debt look like pin money." What Mr. Wise will look like before such proceedings will look like before such proceedings are even well begun is not for ears polite.—Louisville Times.

As to Overcoats

AT

Parker & James

$7.50, $10, $15!

Yes! You can get a good Overcoat here for $7.50. A heavy, all-wool Kersey or Frieze; blue, black or gray; regulation length; made with wide facings and excellent linings—and good all over—the "old reliable" VITALS BRAND that we've sold and guaranteed for years and that'll never "go back on you" until you've worn one out and want a new one, and then a "Vitals" is very apt to go back on your back. Also a nice light Topcoat for $7.50; all-wool tan covert, well made and snappy style. And for $10 we can show you Ksrseys, Friezes, Meltons, etc.; Oxfords, blacks and blues, with velvet collars that are guaranteed not to "crock," and satin sleeve-linings and trimmings and tailoring that make them what they are—Levy's matchless values. Also some handsome covert Topcoats, made with padded shoulders, high-fitting collars, etc., at $10. When it comes to our $15 line we can give you practically anything you can call for in a fine Overcoat. Soft-finished Oxfords, imported Kerseys, real Irish Friezes, standard Meltons, etc., all made with the fashionable broad shoulders, shape-retaining fronts, hand-wrought collars and trimmings that will wear as long as the coat does. In fact, one of our $15 garments will Overcoat you handsomely for years. Come and see one.
