LEGAL NEWS.

THE BABY CASE.

The fourth hearing in the Monks-Harbison baby case, on the writ of habeas corpus, was had before Judge Hazen, on Monday morning. Thompson brought the matter up by reading the order of Court that the defendants produce the child in Court on the morning of Nov. 14, at 9 o'clock. Messrs Martin and William Monks, Wendell Hickey and Mrs. Deer, four of the defendants appeared in Court, and Mr. Galbreath read their affidavit, stating that they could not produce the child, as they did not have it in their possession and never had, etc., and also read a letter from Mrs. Harbison, in Kansas City, to her brother Martin Monks, stating that she had her child and intended to keep it, that her husband had abused her, and that she would not come back for any person or any court, that she intended going to Southern California, etc. Thompson then made a passionate statement of the case, and said that an effort had been made to prejudice public opinion in this case, and that even the papers had published manufactured evidence; for which statement he drew upon his exceedingly fertile imagination.

Messrs Bowser and Galbreath spoke for the defendants on the legal questions involved, and Judge McJunkin on the facts. He thought this proceeding ought to end, that the prosecution had been carried on in a vindictive spirit, that the defendants should be called upon to answer in the proper Court, that these defendants could not deliver the child to the father and never could have, unless they had used physical force, to take it from the mother, and that the railroad companies that carried the mother away might as well be held for contempt as these defendants

Mr. Candless, who always has something novel and startling to say, compared the defendants in this case to the anarchists lately hung in Chicago. The anarchists did not actually throw the bomb, but they were there and encouraged it, and therefore were held responsible, these defendants were present when the child was taken and therefore should be held responsible. Charley also attempted to quote some scripture but got it wrong and Judge Hazen, who was better posted corrected him Religion is not Charley's forte, he should stick to the "lurid liver and shining gall" line, in which he is so brilliant a success. The prosecution asked that the four defendants present be cited to show cause why they should not be held for contempt of Court. Judge Hazen took the papers, and at this writing, has made no order.

TRIAL LIST FOR THIS WEEK.

All the cases in the list for this week, excepting three, have been disposed of as follows:

Hockenberry vs Hindmans—continued at cost of defendant.

Eicholtz vs Gardner—Verdict for defendant

Thompson vs McLimen's—case discontinued by plff.

Emrick vs Edmunds—Verdict for plff for $100.

Harpers vs Shaw and Black, adm'rs—case settled.

Reed and wife vs Craig and Wife—case discontinued.

NOTES.

The exceptions to the sale of the Haley property were withdrawn and sale confirmed.

Michael Maloney was apdointed guardian of Calvin Wright.

Mr. H. C. Lessner resigned his position as constable of Jefferson twp., and recommended the appointment of Daniel Wallett.

Mr. Christopher Bergman was appointed guardian of Wm., Lettie and Emma Ehlert.

E. A. Reider has had summons in ejectment issued vs Chas Smith, J. N. Bolard, C. D. Greenlee and others for the one-sixteenth of a leasehold of 8 acres in Jefferson twp., and J. M. George had summons issued vs same parties for a one-fourth interest in same tract, containing oil well known as Bolard No. 2.

Thos. Frazier and Wilson Gonigle have been returned to Court for forcible entry on oath of J. W. McKee, and James and Robt. Gillespie, Thos. Tate and John Welsh for forcible entry and for assault and battery on oath of S. W. Crawford.

A petition was presented for a bridge over Anderson's Run in Middlesex twp.

Mr. James Sellers, at liberty on a writ of habeas corpus, was recommitted to the custody of the Sheriff, and as he refused to pay his fine was again put it jail. Judge Hazen dismissed the writ at cost of relator and holds that Sellers was legally sentenced. One of Seller's attorneys took the papers to Brookville, Wednesday, for an opinion from Justice Gordon who lives there.

Recent decisions of the State Attorney General and the Supreme Court make property held in trust taxable, and Auditor General Norris has notified the Boards of Revision of cities and County Commissioners that all personal property held in trust, whether for the benefit of residents or non-residents, including mortgages on property outside the State, and stocks and bonds issued by corporations of other States, is liable to taxation in this State, and should therefore be included in the returns of taxable property required by law.

—Mrs. Mary A. Graham and Mrs. Sarah Likens, children and heirs of Isaac Ash, dec'd, late of Evans City, petitioned Court for an appeal from the Register's Court, and state that the will made Aug. 10, '87, was destroyed and cancelled; Sep. 26, '87, by their father; that that their brother J. P. Ash, John Rohner, Esq., and Dr. F. V. Brooks, appeared before the Register on the 24th of Oct. and had a copy of it probated. A citation was granted, returnable to next term.

No assessor was elected in Portersville last spring, and a petition was presented to Court, Wednesday, for the appointment of Alonzo Heasley.

The will of Wm. Schley of Penn Twp. was probated and letters to Alois Beck.

Letters of Adm'r were granted to H. A. Double and J. H. Stemm in estate of John Stemm, dec'd, of Franklin Twp.

Letters testamentary were granted John Rohner, Esq., in estate of Robert Forsythe, dec'd, of Adams Twp.

Personal.

Mr. Plummer Bell is slowly recovering.

Mr and Mrs. Lynk of Renfrew, both of whom are over fifty years of age, and who have been married more than twenty years, were blessed with their first child—a son—a few days ago.

Will Latchaw, of Aushutz, Bradberry & Co., Pittsburg, was in town this week on legal business.

William McCormick was severely injured at the Plate Glass works Tuesday morning. He fell while carrying a large plate of glass, and the plate cut a deep gash in his right fore arm.

Dr. Ford S. Peters of Washington, D. C., formerly of this county, died at Baltimore on the 24th ult.

Mr. P. R Burke of Kansas City was dangerously ill of pneumonia, but is recovering.

Mr. Eli Gibson aged about 35 years, a son of George Gibson of Washington twp., died of consumption on his ranch, a hundred miles west of Leadville, Col, last Friday two weeks. He was married some three years ago to Miss Matilda Welch of this county.

J. H. Bowman, Esq. who practiced at Millerstown some years ago, was shot and killed by a man named Green, at Douglass, Wyoming, Ter., a few days ago. His family reside in Jackson twp., Venango county, and he went west some months ago to operate for oil, and was meeting with some success.

Mr. Harrison Dyke fell from the loft in Park's Mill near Ogle, last Thursday morning, and was seriously injured.

Mr. J. Nelson Fulton of Middlesex twp., has moved to Allegheny City, and will reside at No. 84 Ledley street. His son William N. is with Cartwright & Stevenson, hardware dealers on Federal street.

Miss Edith Hardman is attending Bowman Institute, Pittsburg.

—George Wolford of the firm of Wolford and Campbell, millers of Sunbury, got a finger caught and crushed in the machinery on Tuesday, and had to have it amputated at the middle joint.

—Mrs. Dr. Carmichael of Greenville, is visiting Mrs, Dr. Wiles of Penn St.

—Mr. Amos Seaton, treasurer-elect, has rented Mr. Byerly's vacant house on E. Cunningham St.

—The new pipe line to the Saxonburg field has been completed.

—The roads between Butler and Saxonburg have been badly cut up by the heavy hauling, and are in poor condition.

—The Town Council has secured a carload of Greenville stone for crossings, and are having them put down.

—Cleveland must look out. There are indications that the southern favorite for next year is Jefferson Davis.

—It is so odd that the anarchists should think death so bad a thing for them and so good for everybody else.

—Tobogging will probably be popular throughout the country this winter. Wonder if anybody will build a slide in Butler.

—Gelbach, Zehner & Co's store, and Bentel & Co's lumber yard at Zelienople, were burglarized last Wednesday night,

—Some Mormon missionaries have created a sensation in Beaver county by proselyting two respectable families named Lloyd, there.

—A family on West Pearl street is peculiarly fortunate, according to a little girl who lives on the same street—They "have a baby and two calves."

—The married men of a neighboring town have organized a "spiritual circle," but the report that it is a temperance organization is not generally credited.

—A man and wife on their way to Oil City were lately put off the cars at Keister, and walked back to Grove City, where a purse was raised to send them to their destination.

—It is stated that the S. & A. R. R. Co. will build a road from Greenville to Amasa crossing on the L. S. & M. S. and thus have two direct outlets to the lakes.

—A literary lyceum in a western town is wrestling over the question: "Is the proper definition of an editor a man who puts things in a paper or a man who keeps things out?"

—Read advertisement in this issue, of the Chautauqua Institute, Randolph, N. Y., and learn the advantages offered for the Winter Term. As will be noticed, they have a Commercial College in addition the Academic Department.

—The highest record on a bicycle in western Pennsylvania this season is credited to C. B. Shroa, of Greenville, who rode 2,439 miles. Some Kittanning fellows who were over here, the other day, had only made 800 miles.

—The Pennsylvania Company are making and distributing along their extensive lines, neatly padded stretchers to be used in emergency in case of accident for carrying injured persons.

—Tyrone, Blair county, has an ordinance requiring all boys to be at their homes not later than 7 p.m., and the constable of the borough is enforcing it. How would this ordinance do for Butler?

—The exceedingly dry weather, this fall, made it unpleasant to husk corn, on account of the husks being so dry and hard, and some of our farmers let it stand, but the rain of last week and the fine weather of this, will enable them to get it all in.

—Since the Saxonburg oil field has been developed the Jarecki Manufacturing Co's store here has been doing a business of about $2500 a day. The Oil Well Supply Co. of Oil City covets a share of the business, and will start a branch store here.

—We direct attention to the prospectus of the illustrated publications of Harper & Brothers of New York, which are conceded to be the finest published in the civilized world.

—Some of our butchers are bringing fat cattle from the Pittsburg market, as this county has been almost drained of heavy cattle.

—St. Peter (to applicant)—What was your business when on earth?

Applicant—Editor of a newspaper.

St. Peter—Big circulation, of course?

Applicant—No, small; smallest in the country.

St. Peter—Pick out your harp.

—A Catholic priest over in East Mauch Chunk, Pa., has forbidden the ladies of his congregation, old and young, to wear bustles.—Ex. Bustles and pads are deceptive but harmless inventions. If the Catholic priests can prevent the Catholic women from wearing corsets they will give their church a big lift.

—A great many people have lately wrestled with the word bomb, giving it several different pronunciations, the most of them insisting on pronouncing the final b. This is unnecessary trouble. The final b is silent, and the o has the same sound as in the word "done." It has exactly the same pronunciation as the word "bum," the slang term for a vagrant.

—At the Annual meeting of the stockholders of the Petroleum Agricultural Association at Parker, lately, H. H. Say, was elected President; J. P. Parker, Vice President; Robert Ralph, Secretary; S. H. Manifold, Treasurer and H. H. Say, A. Tippery, E. Robinson, Morgan Morgan, G. A. Needle, G. K. Pollock, I. Latshaw, S. K. Smith and F. M. Shira, directors for the ensuing year.

—Look out for the new two dollar silver certificates with the Hancock vignette which are being raised and circulated as ten dollar certificates. A number of them have been discovered in the West. These notes will doubtless be shoved in all parts of the country. Look carefully at all certificates of the ten dollar denomination before accepting them.

Rough on the School teacher.

A citizen of Cranberry Twp. writing from Ogle, says:

We, the patrons of the schools of this township, have been paying our taxes every year, and we do not always receive the proper return for our money. We do not think this is right. It is only about two years ago that we paid about $150 to a couple of girls, who in actions, if not in years, were babies. The people tolerated them until they could do so no longer, and finally the directors asked the parents of the girls to take them home.

Now, although the Semple school has only been in session a short time, only children belonging to families who are able to dress them nicely, receive any attention.

Now we demand of the directors of this township that they see to it that each child is taught alike, whether they be rich or poor. I also think the order in our schools could be improved considerably, as pupils cannot study in a bedlam. If the teacher we have cannot control the pupils, give us one that can.

I do not think it the best plan for directors to hire a teacher that was seated in the water bucket in an adjoining township, especially when the pupils in the district she has been hired in are all acquainted with the fact. I have paid my tax and I don't care whether my child is dressed in velvet, silk or calico, wears a blue ribbon on her hair or a string, I want her to get the same amount of teaching as any other child.—Valley News

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

—Frank Raymond, a coal black negro, and Fanny Bensiger, a white woman, of Susquehanna township, Juniata county, applied to the clerk of the Orphan's Court, at Midlintown, last week, for a license to marry. The clerk refused the license, but not so much on account of the difference in color as for the reason that both have been heretofore married and have a wife and husband living respectively.

—When last heard from Mr. Jas F. Falls of Lawrence Co who attempted suicide a few days ago was yet living. This is a remarkable case. He shot himself twice, with a rifle, under the chin, one ball coming out at the left side of the nose and the other back of the forehead, and neither shot proving fatal, tried to reload his gun for a third time but failed. Then he walked to the house 200 feet away before falling.

—The fuss over the election in Lawrence Co. was settled by Judge McMichael who decided that the votes should stand for the men for whom they were intended. The Republican tickets were printed "For Auditor, James M Sterling," whereas should have been "Joseph M." Much argument and many affidavits were introduced and the court decided that all the votes should be counted for Joseph M. Sterling. Not one correct vote cast for him in the county. The judges of elections and the election boards in the Third ward and in several outside precincts, it was proven, were not sworn according to law. Such being the fact, the law would hold that they were not sworn at all, and that consequently the polls were in charge of a mob. The court over-looked this and holding that the intention of all concerned was all right, decided that the vote should be counted. It is not probable that the decision will be contested.

—Six inches or snow fell at Clarion last Friday.

—The Diehl hotel in Parker was badly damaged by fire a few days ago.

—A gas explosion at New Brighton last week destroyed the fine residence of Chas. Richards, and blew a sixteen months old baby out of the door and twenty feet into the yard, without seriously injuring it.

—The body of Chas. F. Washburn was lately found in the woods in in Jackson twp Clarion Co. a bullet hole was found in his head about two inches above the right ear, made by a 32 calibre revolver, which was found lying at his side. He was 5 feet 8 inches high and weighed 140 pounds, had dark brown hair, a short mustache, and looked to be about 35 years old. His father came from Titusville and identified the man as his son. It is supposed to be a case of suicide.

—The health authorities in New Castle say that there is no cause for alarm with regard to cholera from Italians who recently arrived there.

—Frank Langfriend a prominent grocer in Greenville, Mercer county, has been arrested for false pretense in obtaining 64 sacks of flour from Thomas Moser, a Sharon miller.

—A large hawk pounced down on a cat at Edison, Pa. a few days ago, and after flying about 30 feet high the bird discovered that it had tackled more than it could manage and dropped its prey.

—Last week Clarence Showers, a well known citizen of Clarion twp. Clarion Co was gored to death by a vicious bull he was leading along the road. A neighbor who lived near spot where it occurred saw Mr. Showers engaged in fighting off the bull. Being infirm, the neigbor sent a little boy after Mr. Collett, another neighbor. Collett mounted a horse and galloped to the rescue, but when he got to the spot he found Mr. Showers lying upon the ground, horribly mangled and his clothes almost torn from his body while the bull was down on his knees still goring his lifeless victim After a severe struggle Mr. Collett succeeded in beating off the infuriated animal with a piece of fence rail. The bull, known to stockraisers as "Silver King," was shot next day.

—It is remarkable how generous some people are. Over at New Castle a boy at the risk of his life stopped a runaway team hauling a load of turnips, and received a turnip from the farmer who owned the team. The depraved boy thought he should have two turnips for the service.

—James McHenry's great $20,000 000 case against the N. Y., P. & O R R has just been settled in the Common Pleas Court, Cleveland, the defendants paying the costs, amounting to $13,480 This probably settles Mr. McHenry's scheme to throw the road into a receivers' hands.

—Persons residing in the vicinity of East Brady have received letters from one C L. James, of New York, in which he agrees to furnish counterfeit money of all denominations at low rates. He claims that the 'queer' is made from genuine plates stolen from the Treasury department by a former employe, and that there is no possible danger of detection, as the money cannot be told from the genuine until the notes are worked back to Washington.

GOOD MEAT.

Man's best and choicest provender is the subject of our story:—And it is an article for the production of which Butler County has as fair a reputation as any county in the State. It is raised by the farmers of the county, and it is selected, killed, dressed and manufactured by the butchers. Good judgment is required in its selection, and the greatest of care and cleanliness in its preparation for the market, and of all the men in the business in Butler, none so excel in these particulars as does our friend, Mr. H. M. Clark, whose market is at No. 25 S. Main St. He buys none but the best of live stock, he has it prepared for the market by the best of butchers, his market is always neat and clean, and his prices are as low as good meats can be profitably sold at and as low as those of any other firm in Butler.

His slaughter house is in charge of Mr. George Kummer, than whom there is no better, cleaner or more particular butcher in the town. Geo. takes a great pride in his work, and is an exceptionally capable butcher, as is well attested by the condition of the meat he sends to the market, and also by the quality of his smoked and plain sausage, his pudding, head-cheese and bologna in the manufacture of which he is quite an artist. Thirty pounds of his smoked sausages were shipped to Texas lately a fact that he is very proud of.

The very next time you want a juicy and tender steak, or supply of toothsome sausages, try
