The Twenty-fifth District.

The Commercial Gazette publishes an article on the political condition of the Twenty fifth Congressional District, in which it says that an effort is being made to compose the unfortunate difference in the republican party, growing out of the heated campaign of last fall. It quotes Marshal Harrah as stating that it is his belief that the bribery cases against Tate, and Downing and Shaffer will be nolprossed at the next Court, which the Commercial Gazette states, will be the first step towards renewed harmony. In our opinion the first and most important step is to take early action on the system of making nominations. The present plan is a vicious one, well adapted to breed discords and disasters. It would destroy harmony in any majority district in two years.

Our only hope is to have it changed. What shall we have in its place? There is almost a universal demand for the popular plurality system like what is already in use in the several counties for the nomination of candidates. This plan, a plurality vote, is the same as that required to elect, and if it works well for the final, more important act, it ought to be sufficient for the nomination. Republicans, if you want harmony begin at the root of the evil and you will obtain it, but if you go on with the rotten conferee system, diminished or increased, you may patch up a make shift compromise and you may not, but you will never restore harmony and your nominations will never be free of the suspicion of bargains. Give the people a chance to nominate, without any go-betweens or playing with loaded dice, then there can be no use for bolting. When a nomination has been fairly secured that will be the end of all factional opposition.—Beaver Argus and Radical.

AT Cleveland, Wednesday, the Ohio Democratic State Convention nominated James E. Campbell of Butler, O., for Governor on a free silver or unlimited coinage platform, which will cause the election in that State to be one of National importance this year.

DR. McKINNEY of Beaver county is quoted as saying that the fish he was after has escaped and therefore he is willing to drop the prosecution of Tate, Shaffer and Downing if they pay the costs. The three men refused to testify against W. D. Wallace, Esq., were sent to jail for contempt of Court, and the case went to the Supreme Court and is yet there.

THE Democratic State Convention will be held at Harrisburg, on Thursday, Sept. 3d.

Leasureville Items.

To write or not to write, that is the question;
Whether tis prudent, wise or best,
For me to answer the Editor's request
For local correspondence, or better at the very start
To nip this budding aspiration centering in my heart,
Of falling into line and marching with the rank and file
Of those who write—Some from motives hardly understood,
Some for profit, pleasure or the public good;
For it remains an unchallenged, undisputed fact
That it requires observation, talent, skill and tact
To write down in a clear, concise and pleasing way
The news and happenings of the day.
But I shall give way to the impulse to write of Leasureville,
Although lacking the necessary talent, tact and skill;
For if we never try then how shall we succeed,
And if there's nothing written how shall others read?
There's nothing wildly funny to make your readers laugh,
And they'll have to search for grains of sense in the midst of all this chaff.
For new news items are not plenty as blossoms on a tree,
For the ruralites are busy as ruralites alone can be.
The men are working at their grain, the women canning cherries,
Sweltering, stewing o'er the stove, jamming up raspberries.
The different wells on different farms are drilling right along,
And the hills and woods re-echo to the sledges merry song;
But what the indications are for either oil or gas,
I really cannot say and will let the subject pass.
Miss Annie Beckett has but lately closed a two months term of school
At School House No. 2, where I suppose, with gentle rule,
She taught the young idea how to shoot.
Conquering ofttimes the desire which comes to marm and pedagogue alike,
To shoot the young idea and go off on a strike.
Mrs. O. S. June of Butler, visited, last week, in Leasureville.
And Mrs. M. J. Kepple at her mother's home is lying very ill.
Charlie Leasure of McKeesport, who stands high in his class,
Is staying at his grandpas, till the summer months shall pass.
The air is hazy, sky is murky, showing signs of rain,
J. J. Hesselgesser and sons are hauling in their grain.
D. C. Kirkland, now at home, a sapling swing has made,
A cool retreat from summer heat swinging in the shade.
Found—by J. P. Morehead on Monday morning last
A Hymn Book, lost the night before, by the man who drives so fast.
The owner can obtain the book by calling on the finder.
So we will drop the subject now, perhaps it would be kinder.
As times are dull and items scarce we with this final rhyme
Will say good night and hope to write more at another time.

RURAL SCRIBBLER.

ENGLAND has another aristocratic scandal on hands—the eldest son of the Prince of Wales is accused of monkeying with the wife of Lord Churchill who was a New York girl named Jerome. Royalty seems to have the divine right of doing what it pleases with other men's wives.

A CASE which will attract attention in medical circles is reported from Lamar, Ark. Eliza Ryan, a widow sixty years of age, who has been totally blind for thirty years, had a tooth pulled from the upper jaw. The root of the tooth was nearly an inch in length. When it was extracted Mrs. Ryan complained of intense pain in her eyes, and later cried out that she could see, her sight having been restored.

Important To Collectors of Taxes.

The following act of Assembly which passed the Legislature at its last session is one of importance to all Collecters of Taxes. The idea has heretofore prevailed among Collectors in this county that they had two years in which to settle their duplicates, and some of them have believed that they were not required to pay over a cent until the expiration of the two years. It is very likely that the following amendments to the act of 1885 were passed for the purpose of correcting that impression. At all events Collectors will now understand how long they can hold public money in their hands.

AN ACT

To amend section nine of an act approved the twenty fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five entitled "An act regulating the collection of taxes in the several boroughs and townships of this Commonwealth, by providing the time in which tax collectors shall pay over taxes and make settlement.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted etc., Th at section nine of an act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred eighty-five, entitled "An act regulating the collection of taxes in the several boroughs and townships of this Commonwealth which provided as follows to wit:

"SECTION 2. The collector of taxes shall collect the taxes charged in said duplicates and pay over the same to the respective treasurer or authorities entitled thereto, after deducting his commission for the collection which is hereby fixed at two per centum on all taxes paid to him on which an abatement of five per centum is allowed and at five per centum on all taxes afterwards collected. Provided, That where the total amount of taxes charged on a duplicate is less than one thousand dollars the said collector shall receive three per centum on all taxes paid to him on an which an abatement of five per centum is allowed," be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows to wit.

The collector of taxes shall collect the taxes charged in said duplicates and pay over the same to the respective treasurers or authorities entitled thereto after deducting his commission for the collection thereof, which is hereby fixed at two per centum on all taxes paid to him on which an abatement of five per centum is allowed and at five per centum on all taxes afterward collected. Provided, That where the total amount of taxes charged on a duplicate is less than one thousand dollars the said collector shall receive three per centum on all taxes paid to him on which an abatement of five per centum is allowed. Provided further, That all taxes collected within the sixty days as provided in section eight of this act shall be paid over as foresaid within fifteen days after the expiration of said sixty days, and all taxes thereafter collected during his term of office shall be paid over as aforesaid at regular intervals of one month, and a full and complete settlement of all taxes collected shall shall be made by said tax collector with the respective treasurers or authorities entitled thereto not later than three months after the expiration of his term of office. Approved June 2, 1891.

AT Pittsburg, Saturday, the Republican County Committee endorsed the three Judges appointed by Gov. Pattison—i.e. two Republicans and one Democrat as the candidates of the party for ten year terms, and there will be a "kick" over it.

Prospect Items.

L. R. English has been disabled for some time by catarrh in his hand, but is coming around again. Lee says he doesn't like such pets.

Miss Eva Roth, who has been sick for a couple of weeks, is about well again.

Miss Cora Albert, of Franklin, Pa., is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Shaffer.

The Presbyterian young folks, under the leadership of Mary Martin and Aggie Kennedy, are preparing a special children's service for Sunday, July 19.

Miss Anna Keefer, of West Liberty, visited her sister Mrs. Howard Kelley last week.

Harry Howard and family, of Beaver Falls have returned home from a visit to J. H. McLure.

Miss Lin Grine and her sister, Mrs. George Webber, of Lyndon, Kan., are visiting friends in this place and vicinity. The ladies went West a few years ago from Prospect, and speak highly of the western climate and the people. They will make an extended visit in Butler, Lawrence, Allegheny, and Indiana counties, before they return home.

Rev. Mackey, of the M. E. Church, has returned from a visit to his home at Sewickley. The Rev. is talking of moving to Petersville, but we would be sorry to see him leave.

The Prospect boys who were at the festival at Mt. Chestnut, want it to be understood that they had nothing to do with the mobbing of those bicycle riders from Butler. To excuse the ones who did it, the blame was saddled on them.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

John Sheel of Sharpsville, Pa., went fishing in the Shenango the other day and captured a catfish that weiged ten pounds, and also a jacksalmon that weighed six pounds. Ernest Fast, of Porterville, Mich., was hungry, went fishing, caught a big pickerel, and died from the bite of his captive.

Fred Sheasley, a Sharpsville boy, pointed a shotgun at a valuable horse belonging to his father, a few days ago, and pulled the trigger. Fred didn't know that the gun was loaded, but it was, and the horse was killed. A boy like Fred is handy to have around the house.

John Clark, of Pittsburg, is the richest colored man in Pennsylvania, if the assessors are correct. Twenty years ago he began life as a blacksmith, and has since then hammered out a $200,000 fortune. Clark solved his share in the negro problem by the simple remedy of hard work.

Four boys of Birdseye, Ind., found an old coat near the railroad, and began tossing it about and beating each other with it. A bank note slipped from beneath one of the patches. The boys ripped the coat to pieces, and it panned out $1711.

Laura, nineteen months old daughter of Charles A. Brown, of Oil City fell into a zinc box a foot square, standing at the mouth of a drain in the back yard and partially filled with the drainage of the sink. When discovered the child's head was downward in the box and she was dead.

The Third Commandment is having a salutary boom in Oil City. The other day Jacob Goldstein, a merchant, was arrested for firing oaths at a committee who wanted him to join in the early closing movement. He pleaded guilty to 10 separate chunks of profanity, and was fined 67½ cents per oath, as by Act of Assembly provided, with costs. The Third is all right in Oil City, even if there isn't much doing there in the balance of the Commandments.—Franklin News.

The Rural House at Franklin was destroyed by fire last Thursday night.

It is "with an apparent feeling akin to 'ghoulish glee'" that we note the Greenville News' explanation of the farmer Mizener bunco last week, as noted then in these columns. It says: "By his own confession to the News editor, Mr. Mizener does not read papers!" 'Twas ever thus.

Shortly before noon Friday at the quarries of Piney Creek, Blair county, Robert Calbert and a gang of men prepared two blasts and fired them. One failed to explode. Calbert took a sixteen-foot bar and prepared to drill it out when an explosion followed. A twelve-foot bar was driven through his body and his screams are said to have been heard for half a mile. Twenty minutes afterward he died. The deceased was aged thirty-eight years and leaves a wife and five children.

A peculiar case of blood poisoning is reported from Harmonsburg, Crawford county. Mrs. Coon was stung on one of her fingers by a bee, and her condition has at last become so serious that the amputation of two fingers was decided.

There's but one prisoner in the jail of Indiana county, Pa., and he doesn't care to get out. The Messenger says: "He is charged with having three or four wives, and they are not on the best of terms with him; which fact, in connection with the additional fact that he has another in law for each wife has much to do with his disposition to stay where he is. Life is not so much a burden to him in jail as it might be were he outside, and he knows a good thing when he sees it."

The other day, two bright young girls were returning to Beaver Falls after a visit to this country. One of the girls was taking a dozen eggs to her mother. She laid the package of eggs beside her on the seat in the railroad car. Her companion, a daisy fat girl, came in and plumped right down on the package. Every egg was a total wreck and the contents ran all over the seat, the girl's dress and the floor of the car. It was a horrible mess, and the conductor had to get rags and wipe the poor girl off. It was fortunate the eggs were not yet old enough to need ventilation.

The greatest engineering feat in the history of the anthracite coal mining is about to begin. It is the commencement of what will be known as the Jeddo Tunnel, which will be driven for the purpose of draining the flooded mines of Jeddo and Harleigh. It will be constructed from Butler Valley, Pa., to the bottom of Ebervade mammoth vein, a distance of three miles, through solid rock, to be 8 feet square in the clear. The scheme of tunnelling through the mountain first occurred to John Markle, who is to be president of the company, which will bear the title of Jeddo Tunnel Co., Limited. It will open an inexhaustible supply of coal and furnish employment for thousands of people for many years to come. It will also serve the double purpose of draining all the collieries in the valley.

At Waterford, Erie Co., last Saturday, a woman was arrested for poisoning her neighbors stock. Sometime ago her son was sent to the penitentiary for stealing cattle, and she retaliated on his prosecutors by poisoning their horses and cattle.

Frank A. Robbins' show arrived at Huntingdon last Monday and was captured by the Sheriff of the county, on executions and attachments amounting to $4,000.

At Pittsburg last Friday, Fitzsimmons and Mrs. Clark were found guilty of larceny and Cora Wyatt was acquitted.

At Grove City on Wednesday night of last week the houses of Jos. Fitler, Geo. Reimold, J. D. Kirkpatrick, S. S. Bell, J. S. Kennedy and Rev. Merchant were burglarized.

At Franklin last Thursday a runaway horse, with a man clinging to his nose dashed through a plate glass window, and came to a stop at the other end of the store. Both man and horse were badly cut and bruised.

B. O. E's.

Inscribed to the Honorable Members of the Butler Lodge of Elks.

Transcendent, in good deeds,
Shouldbe the Lodge of many creeds;
Electrical, throughout the Clan,
Should be good will to every man,
And if one, in greed of gain,
Enroll a name that has a stain,
Thirty pieces of silver spare,
Let the exemplified Judas
Have his share.

For no raiment of purple, no jewels fine,
Can cover the guilt of any crime.
Honors, Crowns of praise
Is duteous in its ways.
The master key in the chief's command,
Should be equity of rights to every man,
A ruler of many creeds,
Must have justice in his deeds,
But in every social test,
Heart and brain will do their best.

One chivalrous, like of old,
The chosen chieftain of the fold,
He asked that one be sent afar,
To find among the sons of man,
A jewel worthy of his clan,
Not to bring a tarnished gem,
But one resplendent among men,
Each and every stone,
Had a signet of its own,
The first was marked be true,
Or else the gem is not for you.

And one, a sister's prayer,
One, a wife's devoted care,
Diamonds, fashioned as a dove,
Emblems, gift, from one of love;
Valued gems is not our store,
The chieftain said, we ask for more,
That every member in the fold,
Be true of speech and clean of soul,
And may the signet of the lodge,
Be the merciful gifts of God.

Oil Notes.

The well of J. Q. A. Kennedy & Co on the Eicholtz farm 1 1-2 miles north of Harmony in Lancaster twp. came in last Thursday, and from present appearances will be good for 100 bbls a day. It was making 5 bbls an hour, Tuesday.

The Findlay & Co. well on the McKirdy farm, adjoining the Eicholtz, is down 700 feet.

The well on the McKinley place north of town is down 1200 feet with an excellent showing in hundred-foot. She was shot Monday and is being tubed.

Dale and Thompson have struck a good well on the Oswald Rader farm.

The well on the Hare farm near Harmony is expected to come in today.

At Jefferson Centre—Reed & Co's No. 1 on the Tillie Logan is looking good and Snee & Co. 8 on the Seibert is showing for a small well.

The well on the E. Thompson farm in Middlesex twp. is reported dry.

The Webber brothers well on the Webber farm, near Saxonburg, reached the sand last week and is reported to be a good well, which will open some new territory.

The Forest Oil Co.'s well on the Johnson near Mars is doing 100 bbls, and their wells on the Barr and Longhurst will be fair producers.

Geo. Tate is drilling a well two miles south of Watter's station.

Gulfy and Queen's well on the Glascoe, Gold field, is showing for a good well.

Wick and Thompson have cased their test well on the Rasley.

At Muddycreek Rowley & Co.'s 2 on the English heirs is making 25 bbls; Innis & Co.'s 4 on the Hockenberry is a fair well, and Alexander & Co.'s 2 on the Ripper ditto.

Phillips' test well on the Keim at Bonnie Brook is down 400 feet. He is also drilling a test well on the Donahue in Clearfield twp.

Wise & Co. are drilling a test well on Lensner, 1-2 mile east of the Greenard heirs.

THE G. A. R. State encampment opened at Williamsport, Sunday, with about seven hundred members present.

—During the storm of Tuesday sheep were killed by lightning for R. B. Conn and Pres Bartley, of Clay twp; and the houses of Jos. Cumberland and John Coulter, of Concord twp. were struck.

At Franklin, Tuesday, lightling struck a wire clothes line in the yard of Mr. Stone, followed it into the house and killed his daughter.

DEATHS.

WYLAND—At its home in Oakland Twp., July 5, 1891,—child of Jacob Wyland.

BLAINE—At his home in Butler, July 8, 1891, E. R. Blaine, an old soldier, and member of the 18th Ohio vols.

CYPHER—At his home in Butler, July 11, 1891, Matthias Cypher, formerly of Clearfield Twp.

SANDERSON—At her home in Clay Twp. July 13, 1891,—wife of Philip Sanderson, aged about 65 years.

GREER—At her home in New Castle, July 11, 1891, Mrs. Mary Ann Greer. Her maiden name was Hamilton, and her body was brought to Butler.

CAMPBELL—At his home in Fairview Twp., July 8, 1891, Washington Campbell in his 69th year.

He was an old and esteemed citizen of the township and a prominent church member.

WILSON—Of apoplexy, Mr. John Wilson of Clay Township, June 22, 1891, in the 40th year of his age.

He returned from Butler in the evening, ate a hearty meal and retired in apparently good health. The Messenger came some time during the night, and he passed away. The stricken family have the sympathy of the neighborhood.

J. H. BREADEN.

SCHWEIGERT—The Rev. Michael Schweigert, of Kittanning, Pa., died at that place on the 9th inst. in the 82nd year of his age.

Rev. Schweigert was a prominent minister in the Lutheran Church and was a pastor at Kittanning for about 35 years. His history is a rather interesting one. Born in Germany, he came to this country a poor boy, and worked at his trade as a tailor. While Rev. Wm. A. Passavant was attending Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa., he one day found Mr. Schweigert sitting on his tailoring bench, and noting merit and worth in him induced him to seek an education. Soon after Mr. Schweigert walked all the way from Cannonsburg to Gettysburg, about 250 miles, and attended the Theological College there. Afterwards he was called to Kittanning and became distinguished for his usefulness and eminence in the Lutheran Church. His marked traits of character were fidelity to duty and great earnestness. His funeral last Saturday was very large, attended—many brother ministers being present, who held him in high esteem for his many virtues.

In Memoriam.

Hall of Coalville Lodge 2672 K. of H. Coalton Pa., July 11, 1891.

At a stated meeting of Coalville Lodge held in its hall on the above date the special Committee on resolutions reported the following:

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God, the Supreme Dictator of the universe to remove from our midst our beloved Brother E. Blaine, who was called from labor on July 8th, 1891, therefore be it

Resolved that in the death of Brother Blaine this lodge has lost a worthy member, a devoted husband and father, and a true and courteous gentleman.

That to the widow and orphans of our brother we tender our unbounded sympathy and we assure her and them that we of the brotherhood will be ever willing and ready to extend the protecting arm and hand should such ever be needed.

Resolved that this lodge be draped in mourning for 30 days that these resolutions be spread on the minutes that a copy be forwarded to the widow, also one to the K. of H. Reporter.

Out of Sorts

Is a feeling peculiar to persons of dyspeptic tendency, or it may be caused by change of climate, season or life. The stomach is out of order, the head aches or does not feel right, appetite is capricious, the nerves seem overworked, the mind is confused and irritable. This condition finds an excellent corrective in Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by its regulating and toning powers, soon restores harmony to the system, and gives that strength of mind, nerves, and body, which makes one feel perfectly well.
