LOCAL AND GENERAL.

"Mary had a little wheel,
And she went out to ride it;
The bike, it gave a balky twist,
And Mary sat beside it."

—Potatoes in low ground are rotting.

—It seems strange that a man should get hot over an ice bill.

—Even the mosquito become a pessimist when he realizes that life is a bore.

—Our weather lately has been better for marketing hay than making it.

—A drowning man clutches at straws. So does a thirsty man this kind of weather.

—The constitutionality of the act to protect livery-men has been sustained by the Superior Court.

—W. H DeArme is having a clearance sale at his Bargain Store on S. Main St. He handles almost everything.

—Treading on a tack ought to tone a man up. At any rate it puts iron into his system, and lets profanity out —It is not difficult at this time to find some kind soul who is willing to enlighten you on the money question.

—Oats are a heavy crop this year and the price will be low, as many held over last year's crop in expectation of a rise.

—Base ball this afternoon, Imperials of Allegheny vs Butler. On Saturday afternoon our club will play the P. A. Cs. in Pittsburg.

—Says a Chicago paper: "If you don't like to read politics, we advise you to stick to the Bible and the almanac for awhile."

—Beware of the flowered parasol; when the sun shines through it the face has a mottled appearance suggestive of measles.

—Our grocers are paying 12½ for butter, 10 for eggs, 35 for potatoes, 20 to 25 for apples, 3 cts. a head for cabbage and 4 cts. for blackberries.

—Up to last week the roll of membership of the League of American Wheelmen footed up 57,625. Of these, 7,661 are Pennsylvanians.

—See new schedule of the P. & W. The only change of any importance is in the Chicago express which now leaves Butler at 3:35 P. M.

—The bruised stalk of the "touch-me-not," and also the "lady-slipper" and wild jewel weed are said to be antidotes for ivy poisoning.

—The Butchers run district of Allegheny was again flooded, Monday—the second time within a week—and the work done on the plank road—repairing the damage done by the flood of last week—was swept away.

—The pure food inspections which are being carried on in Pennsylvania, reveal the fact that vinegar is adulterated more than of any other articler. Of 23 samples of cider vinegar recently sent in, 22 were not pure.

—Since Mr. Richard Fisher located in Butler, a year or two ago, he has built up a nice trade in cleaning and dyeing all kinds of clothing, curtains, etc. He does good work and that always brings business. His place is on Centre Ave, near the bridge. See card in another column.

—The fellows who stole Ed Sproull's horse stopped at Annandale and broke open McCoy's safe, getting nothing for their trouble; stopped at West Sunbury and broke into Hindman's drug store, and got four or five dollars from the money drawer; and then drove on to Butler and left the rig at the Berg farm, north of town.

—An appeal for the observance of a "Bird Day" in the schools throughout the country has been made by the agricultural department at Washington. The object is to devote the day, to be set apart once a year to be combined with "Arbor Day," to instruction in the value of our native birds and the means of protecting them from want and destruction.

—Do you know those gentleman? asked the colored porter of the sleeper, of a way passenger, as ten men got off the car at Callery one morning not long ago. Yes, said the passenger, they belong to Butler and they are returning from the Chicago convention. Well, said the porter, I shined ten pairs of shoes for them this morning and I got just one quarter—No free-silver in mine.

—A large number of men, with mules, scrapers, etc. arrived in town last Saturday, and camped on the flat just below the Fair Ground. Monday was a rainy day and they did nothing, but on Tuesday they went to work and made a ditch or canal on the low land this side of the Fair Ground, owned by Judge Bredin, and where one would have supposed they would make a fill, but they were probably excavating for the foundation for trestle-work.

—The fifth annual picnic of the National Transit employees was held at Conneaut Lake, last Thursday. The attendance was large and the weather was all that could be asked for. The ball game between the Oil City club and our boys ended in a kick, the score being 7 to 11, in favor of Oil City. The music for the dancing was furnished by the famous orchestra, of Titusville. The management is to be congratulated on the success of the affair.

—Frank Whitmire, son of John Whitmire, of Oakland twp, and who was reported to have been bitten by a mad dog is improving, and will probably be well soon. He is not a very stout boy, and his strange illness was due to a disordered stomach Some three or four weeks ago, while Frank was out in the field with his dog, a strange dog came along and attacked his dog and bit him and also snapped Frank's leg, but did not break the skin. Frank's dog sickened and died a few days after; and last Sunday week Frank began acting strangly and wound up by falling in a fit or spasm in the garden. While he was sick he told the dog story, and that made some people think he was liable to hydrophobia, but the doctors say there is nothing of that.

"An elderly man at Weehawken
Said: 'I'm durned if there's any use talkin';
There's so many on wheels
That an old fellow feels
He's a kind o' back number when walkin'.'"

—Special train to Alleghany Sunday July 26 via P. W. Fare for the return trip 75 cents.

Fires.

The barn on the Doerr place, on the hill south of town, with all its contents excepting the live stock, was destroyed by fire, last Saturday night. It contained a large lot of old hay, some new hay and considerable grain, and made a great blaze. It was built by John Doerr about twenty years ago, and Mrs. Doerr holds $1,500 insurance upon it. Louis Hoffner, her son-in-law, and who has the place rented, holds $2,000 insurance on the contents of the barn and house, but this will not cover his loss. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Accidents.

While Mrs. McKee Scott was picking blackberries near her home on the South Side, Tuesday, she slipped and fell, breaking the bones of her left leg near the ankle.

Edward Bracken, an employee of the Bell Telephone Co. and who lives on Mifflin St., fell from the pole at Boyd's corner, Wednesday morning, caught and hung for a few moments on the guy wire of the electric light, and then fell to the pavement. His head is cut but he was not greatly injured by the fall. He is subject to epilepsy and was attacked by it while at work on the pole.

P. Conerty, of Millerstown had an odd experience a few nights ago, while on the way from Kittanning with his son Henry and M. B. McBride to his home. The storm came upon them and in the darkness they lost the road. Mr. Conerty got out of the buggy to hunt the road and in wandering around slipped into a hole filled with water, which came up to his neck. He called to his companion but the noise of the storm prevented their hearing him and he stood in the water for half an hour or more until they accidentally found him by the aid of a lantern which they borrowed from a farmer.

State Teachers' Association.

The State Teachers' Association which met at Bloomsburg State Normal School on Tuesday of last week was one of the most successful in the history of our state conventions, although the local enrollment was not up to the average.

Gov. Hastings addressed the assembly on Wednesday evening, speaking of schools and of school legislation.

Dr. D. J. Waller, Principal of Indiana State Normal School was chosen to preside over the convention to be held at New Castle next summer.

A woven souvenir, "The School Ma'am Abroad," was probably the most interesting of the mementos received by the visitors, and the mountain excursion up the Fishing Creek R. R. was participated in by about four hundred visitors.

With few exceptions (aside form those engaged in summer school work) the representative school men of the State were at the convention.

The State Normal School, How to Improve Teachers already in the Profession, and The Teaching of Primary Reading, were the most interesting and suggestive subjects discussed by the convention.

Butler county ought to be well represented at the meeting in New Castle next summer for as iron doth sharpen iron so doth one teacher the countenance another. These conventions surely combine both pleasure and profit.

OIL NOTES.

PARKER TWP—The well on the O'Donnell, adjoining the Rosenberry, owned by Keck, Sidler et al of Butler cause in last week and started off at 600 bbls. DILKS—Smith & Co's well on the Deer farm near Dilks station reached the sand Tuesday, and began flowing, but it will be some days before its production is known, as there is no tankage. This well was begun two years ago.

Negley Geo Reiber, Mrs. Mackey, Lew Wick, McDowell Campbell, and others. The Co., seems to be anxious to settle with everybody they can and is purchasing some property in fee. The attorneys o Mercer Co., will keep their offices closed till August 31 st.

The corner stone for the new bridge at Freeport was laid on Wednesday of last week.

A monster snake said to be thirty feet long and a foot thick has appeared on the hill near Bray's Bend. It is said to be the same snake that crushed a mule to death some years ago.

"A detail from Co., E. 2nd Penn'a Infantry B. B., in command of Lieutenant Edwin J. Heberling will go to camp on the Slippery rock Creek about August 1st. The detail is from a regiment located in Allegheny, Pa."

John Fisher of Wilkes Barre had an odd experience a few nights ago. He was on a lonely road on his way come when three masked women who were in the bushes ran out in the road and seized him After securely tying him they took his watch and pocket-book and then fled.

Chambersburg, Pa., July 19.—Two children of Martin Drury, a farmer living near Chambersburg, died from the bites of copperhead snakes, and the mother, who was also bitten will probably die The snakes entered the house during the night first biting the children whose cries wakened the mother, who was then attacked by one of the snakes and twice bitten. A physician came from Mercersburg eight miles distant, but his skill was of no avail, both children one aged 6 and the other 3 dying within a short time and no hopes are entertained for the recovery of the mother. During the excitement both snakes escaped into the cellar of the house.

Harry Adams, of Sugar Grove Mercer Co., a young man about 21 years of age who was charged with a murder and robbery which was committed in Kansas some time ago but managed to escape was captured a few days ago by a detective who has been on his trail for some time. After committing the murder Adams went to Toronto, Canada, where he was discovered and in order to escape the detective he jumped into the lake and swam under the docks, and as the detective did not see him again he was thought to be drowned. From there he came to this part of the country, where he has been for about three weeks. He became bold and visited Franklin where he was captured. There was a reward of $1500 offered for him dead or alive. He was taken back to Kansas Tuesday.

Mrs. Louis Foltz, wife of Richard Foltz, of New Castle and a sister of J. J. Davidson, Republican candidate for congress in this district, committed suicide last Saturday by taking a large dose of laudanum She took the poison about midnight, but her husband did not send for a physician until after dinner next day thinking that her long sleep was caused by some whisky she had taken during the night. When the physician arrived she was past recovery and she died at 4:30 that afternoon.

It seems that the laudanum bottle was handed her by her husband, who believed she was jesting when she said she wanted to commit suicide. She took the poison while he was out of the room.

Mrs. Foltz was once married to Sergeant Hoopes, of Beaver county, and some years after his death she married Richard Foltz. She was largely interested in Beaver county industries and property.

A few nights ago a gang of burglars entered the office of the Park House at Parkers Landing and after tying the front door to a post on the porch and all the doors inside, they moved the safe in front of the office door and began their work. One man was stationed picket on the side walk in front of the hotel. They poured some powder down a hole they drilled through the top of the safe and blew the door off and by the aid of a fuse ignited the same. A loud explosion followed, breaking the glass in the office windows and throwing the door of the safe about ten feet across the room hitting against the side of the chimney it bounced back deeply cutting the floor. The robbers then took all the drawers etc., out of the safe and left. Mr. Adams who heard the explosion came running down stairs to find the doors securely tied, he then returned to his room and dressed, but by the time he again returned the marauders had fled leaving no trace behind. They received for their trouble about $5 in old coins, and several oil leases and other papers that were of no value to any one except the owner.

ZELIENOPLE

Getting Ready for Another Great Real Estate Event.

Big Auction Sale of Lots July 25.

PITTSBURG & WESTERN RAILROAD WILL CONTINUE SELLING HALF-RATE EXCURSION TICKETS FROM ALLEGHENY, NEW CASTLE, FOXBURG AND ALL INTERMEDIATE POINTS, GOOD GOING ON ALL TRAINS DURING PRESENT MONTH.

Many of the buildings for the great industries at Zelienople are now under roof and almost ready for the machinery equipment, but there are no homes to live in. The Zelienople Extension Company was anxious to make some practical, eye convincing showing of what would be the actual industrial magnitude of the new town that it permitted all its energies to go in this one direction to the extent that the first public sale of lots for dwellings did not take place till July 15th. Therefore the building of homes has been thrown so much backward that there will not be residences sufficient to house a very small proportion of the workmen who will find employment in the new town's manufactories early in autumn. To rush the planting of dwellings, another big sale will be held on Saturday, July 25th, when the lots will be sold at auction. Every lot put up will go to the highest bidder, no matter what the bid.

Lots will be delivered on the most liberal easy payment terms—you may pay just about as you please provided you will build.

So, the man or woman who is enterprising—who scrutinizes for facts; evidence and opportunities to put in a dollar and turn out two, three, four or five—will, on July 25th, have such a chance as has never been recorded in real estate annals.

The Pittsburg & Western railroad will continue selling excursion round-trip tickets from Allegheny, Foxburg, New Castle and all intermediate points, good going on all trains during present month, at the usual fare one way. Trains stop at the Pittsburg & Western's handsome new depot, in the new town, the station in the old town having been abandoned.

Visitors are amazed at the grandeur of the scenery which clothes the new town in natural beauty. Butler county and Western Pennsylvania does not contain a more healthful or pleasant spot for home life. Living is cheap, and everything is being planned with a view to metropolitan improvements. The streets are level, the drainage perfect and there are sanitary provisions in accord with every fancy which is the outgrowth of modern civilization. All the lots are 40x120 feet, and in the rear are 20-foot alleys. Zeigler, the main street, is 90 feet wide, while the other thoroughfares are 60 feet. No industrial town was even built upon a safer foundation. No location was ever secured where homes could be built in the midst of such picturesque surroundings. No land company has ever put lots upon the market at such prices and on such terms as ruled for the 191 sites which have thus far been sold in the new Zelienople, and, during the balance of this month this great sacrifice in lot selling will be continued with but one object in view—to get the people to buy lots quickly and put dwellings on them so that 700 workmen (which means about 3,000 people) may have some place to eat, sleep and enjoy the blessings of a life of prosperity in a section more suited for it than any anywhere.
