—Forest fires did considerable damage in different parts of the county, last week.

—Eighty-two people were treated for sickness and accident at the Hospital, last month.

—Greater Pittsburg may be a reality within the next few years, but a Dirtier Pittsburg never.

—A new trolley line connecting Allegheny with Harmony, Zelienople and Ellwood is projected.

—The Knights of Malta held a reception in the Y. M. C. A. hall, Tuesday evening. It was one of the finest.

—The barbers and their employers got together, Tuesday, and agreed on a scale of wages for the coming year.

—Springingitis" is the new name for a disease to which the human race is said to be liable at this season of the year.

—The Islanders attacked the Council in force, Tuesday evening, but could not budge them. The garbage plant will be rebuilt on the old site.

—Butler real estate is looking up; the Odd Fellows lately refused an offer of $35,000 for their lot at corner of Main and Cunningham Sts., and intend building this summer.

—Our calender year begins during the Holiday season in mid-winter, but our real awakening, the resurrection of nature, the beginning of the year comes with the advent of Spring.

—The Prudent Patricians of Pompeii will hold a box social, Monday evening, April 10th, in their hall in the Reiber building, at which the Three P orchestra will make its initial public appearance. All invited.

—"Bill had a billboard. Bill also had a board bill. The board bill bored Bill so that Bill sold the billboard to pay his board bill. So, after Bill sold his billboard to pay his board bill the board bill no longer bored Bill."

—The bill forbidding the use of high-explosives in this state has become a law, and the toy pistol, explosive cane and some of the fire-crackers will retire to innocuous desuetude. A penalty is attached for the sale of the same.

—The graduates of the Butler High School have formed an Alumni Association, and will adopt a Constitution and By-Laws to be prepared by C. E. Cronenwett, John H. Jackson, Prof. Gibson, W. B. Purvis, C. A. McElwain, Miss Siebert and Miss Evans.

—Nelson O. Nelson, is the name of the St. Louis millionaire, who recently stirred up a Chicago audience by the assertion that getting rich was merely a habit, and a bad one at that. Mr. Nelson's dictum was delivered in the course of an address on "Need a Captain of Industry Get Rich?" His answer to the query was an emphatic NO.

—According to the Allegheny health authorities, the first indication of a scarlet fever epidemic there will witness unique and original efforts to combat the malady. Fumigation, or a process very similar, of the whiskers which adorn the faces of every resident of the affected districts will form art of the work of the health officers in the future when the dread disease appears.

—Every town has a young man who thinks he is the best in the burg with the mits or at fisticuffs in any form. They are telling a good story of such a one who dosen't live a great many miles from Butler. At a social gathering one evening a certain young minister was induced to "put 'em on" with the champion, and before the first round was half over Mr. Champion had enough, and then some.

—The hot-air engine that the Commissioners have placed in a little brick building back of the jail is quite a curiosity. The gas fire cooks the air, and it passes back and forth under the two cylinders. The engine pumps the water from a well, 150 feet deep, up to the tank, lately built on top of the jail building—high enough to supply both jail and Court House. The tank is what is known as a 100-barrel oil tank, and holds about 180 barrels of water, as a barrel of water consists of 32 gallons while an oil barrel holds 45.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

Babes in Toyland—April 11.

There are so many very delightful incidents occuring during the action of Babes in "Toyland," Victor Herbert and Glen McDonough's great musical extravaganza, that one has to see this play, which was the one conspicuously brilliant success of N. Y. last year, to properly appreciate it.

Among the stage pictures which have attracted universal attention is the scene of Allan and Jane lost in the woods.

For this attraction the Bessemer will run a special train starting at Greenville and Kaylor.

Girls will be Girls—April 12.

That glorious musical comedy of Wm. A Brady's "Girls Will Be Girls" with Al Leech and the three Rosebuds is coming back to this city on Wednesday Apr. 12 at the Majestic and to say the theatre will surely be crowded to its utmost capacity is putting it mildly for there is no denying that the performance made a big hit on its former visit here.

The Gayety—Pittsburg.

The Smiling Island—next week.

While it is true there are a number of other musical productions under different names and titles, still, be it known, that there is but one series of Geo. W. Lederer's productions and their names and reputations are household words. "Smiling Island" which appears at the Gayety Theatre next week with its hundred people, mostly girls, a contingent of great comedians, magnificent scenic and calcium effects, beautiful costumes and a host of pretty faces, is Mr. Lederer's latest effort.

THE NIXON—PITTSBURG.

BEN-HUR next week.

The Grandest Spectacle of the Century to be Staged in Pittsburg.

The Klaw & Erlanger Co. have, in their time, made many notable productions and thereby earned for themselves an enviable reputation. The most ambitious effort of their career is "Ben-Hur", which scored a brilliant success in Pittsburg three seasons ago and which is booked for another engagement of two weeks at the Nixon Theatre, starting Monday April 10th, with a matinee on Wednesday and Saturday of each week.

The Alvin—Pittsburg.

"The Two Escutcheons" next week.

Following "The Crossways" at the Alvin, a week will be devoted to a production of the bright and sparkling comedy entitled, "The Two Escutcheons," which fairly bubbles over whith wit, humor and delightful amusing situations.

HENRY BIEHL, of 122 N. Main street, will have a special sale of New Royal Sewing Machines on the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th of this month.

FIRES.

Forest fires burned all around town, Saturday and Sunday and came near destroying some houses at west end of W. Pearl St. also the Lick Hill, nitro glycerine storage house east of town.

While Joseph Orbison of Donegal tp. near Millerstown, was away from home, last Saturday afternoon his house took fire, probably from a defective flue or a spark on the roof,

It burned quickly, and his daughter who was lying sick and helpless in bed expected to be burned to death, but the fire was noticed by neighbors, and Philip Callahan rushed into the burning building and saved the girl

The house with all its contents, was destroyed, Mr. Orbison lost his all in it, and the people of Millerstown raised a subscription for him.

A box of clothes belonging to Mrs. M J. Bellis of Fairview twp. took fire from a gas jet, while she was moving, and burned.

DRESSED IN HIS BEST

is well dressed, indeed, if we make the clothes. Every man worthy the name takes pride in his apparel. Only multi-millionaires and tramps can afford to be otherwise.

LET US MAKE YOU A SUIT. You will be as proud to wear it as we are to make it. It will be a suit which will fit you perfectly, become you exceedingly well, and cost you but a moderate sum.
