LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Forget the recent dire defeat,
Forget to fume and scold
And let us all prepare to eat
That fat Thanksgiving fowl.

—Plant your Holiday advs.

—Turkeys are reported scarce.

—Next Thursday is Thanksgiving.

—Less than five weeks till Christmas

—New schedules on the Pensy, next Sunday.

—Advertise your holiday goods in the CITIZEN.

—The railroad companies are ordering more steel cars.

—"Poverty Parades" have again become fashionable in London.

—Hunting accidents are being reported from all over the country.

—The change in the county officials will take place on Monday, January 1st.

—A cannon ball was found in one of the graves of the old cemetery, last week.

—Some of the Pittsburg dealers are advertising "milk-fed ducks and chickens" for Thanksgiving.

—There are quite a number of dangerous sidewalks in Butler that should be repaired before the first snow.

—It is a wise provision that neither turkeys or human beings can foresee what is going to happen to them.

—Women send many a good man to the gutter, especially when they insist on walking three abreast on a five-foot sidewalk.

—On Thursday last F. D. Myers of Greensburg purchased the Hotel Lyndora from Mr. McCool and Mr. Kohler for $24,000.

—Some boys smoke pipes on their way to school, and some smoke cigarettes. Which is the best for them, we do not know.

—The Octogenarians meet on the last Saturday of every month—and their next meeting is therefore on Saturday coming, Nov. 25.

—The B. R. & P. roundhouse was the building the worst injured by the explosion of last Sunday—70 panes of glass and a bulged wall.

—A special train will run from Greenville and Kaylor to Butler next Wednesday evening, for "The Office Boy." Frank Deshon's funny play.

—All nitro-glycerine explosions have their odd features. That of last Sunday afternoon was the imbedding of an axe handle in the trunk of a sturdy oak nearby.

—The roof and other frame work of the foundry connected with the Evans Machine shop was destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon. The loss, about $2,000 is fully covered by insurance.

—A farmer mistook the bunch of frame buildings on Federal St., Allegheny, that now constitute the Fort Wayne station for the stock yards, the other day—and he wasn't from Butler county, either.

—It seems that one can train one's face as one does one's body You can exercise daily for expression, but it would be terrible to be caught at practice. Fancy being watched while one practiced a "happy smile."—Ex.

—If patrons of rural mail-routes would provide themselves with a supply of postage stamps, and stamp their letters before placing them in the mail boxes, they would be showing a kindness to their carrier who finds coins difficult to get at with cold fingers.

—Cases of typhoid are reported from nearly every township in the county and the attention of the State Board of health has been called to it. The water supply is the primary source of typhoid, though it may be caused by decaying animal and vegetable matter in and about the premises.

—The W. A. R. R. is completed down the Muddycreek to the Falls, and last week the iron for the high bridge that is to span the Slipperyrock near the Falls went over it. The bridge will be a long one, and will be built a hundred feet above the level of the creek. The new road will enter New Castle over the B R. & P. tracks, just east of Cascade Park.

—The films used in the moving-picture machines are made of celluloid. In a show room in Pittsburg, last Saturday, these films got too close to the strong light placed immediately behind them, and an explosion occurred followed by the firing of the drapery of the room. The children at the show became frightened and rushed out, and a number of them were injured.

—Farmers' Institutes will be held in Butler county next week as follows: At Eau Claire on Nov. 27 and 28; at Connoquenessing Nov. 29 and 30; at Prospect Dec. 1 and 2, and in Butler the following Monday, Dec. 4 (one day). Prof. R. L. Watts of Cambria county; J. S. Burns of Allegheny county; F. G. Wagner of Westmoreland county, and T. E. Orr of Beaver county will be the speakers.

—While the responses to the call for donations for the Butler County General Hospital were not as large as in former years, the managers of the hospital regard it as generous, and wish to return thanks to all the donors. The association thanks the grocers for the use of their wagons in collecting the donations, and is grateful to the newspapers for space devoted to advertising the annual event.

—Some slight changes have been made in the B. & O. and B. R. & P. time tables. The evening train for the west now leaves at 5:45, and the morning Sunday train to Pittsburg at 10:33. —A woman rushed into a telegraph office the other day and informed the operator that her husband had gone to the city to get a banner for the Sunday school, but she had forgotten to tell him the inscription and how large the banner was to be She then wrote a telegram containing the needed information and handed it to the operator. It read: "My Dear Frank—Unto us a child is born, eight feet long and two feet wide." The husband is still in the city and it is rumored that he is not coming back.

—A certain Butler man who has owned a good many barrels of oil and one particular barrel of whisky, has reason to believe in dreams by contraries. Not long ago he dreamed that he went to the cellar to draw a little whisky and found the barrel dry, and almost at the same time received word that a well he was drilling had come in a rank duster. Awaking in great distress of mind, mainly over the whisky, he at once started to investigate and a trip to the cellar proved the barrel still contained some of the great tickler. This gave him a little hope for the well, and a day or two later he received word that the pay had been tapped and he had a nice producer.

—Quite a bunch of money has been subscribed in Butler for the persecuted Jews in Russia. There is every prospect that the sum of one million dollars, which it is hoped to raise in this country, will be shortly available. This magnificent subscription should teach the peoplr and government of Russia a lesson of great value. It should indicate to both the feeling in this country concerning the outrages committed on the Jewish people of Russia and the abhorrence in which those guilty of them are held by the American people. Money in this case is liable to talk much louder than any utterances through diplomatic channels.

When Mrs. McQuistion sent her son with a $20 bill to pay the balance and get the cow, Cousins had sold it to Liddrells, and Mrs. McQuistion then replevied the animal, but was knocked out of court because she could not show possession, nor establish a clear right.

Rural mail boxes are under government protection, and it should be generally known that no person but the owner of the box or an authorized letter-carrier has any right to put anything into a mail-box or take anything out of it. The people who stuff advertising matter into rural mail-boxes are almost sure to get into trouble.

Slater, are under bond to appear before the criminal court of Clarion county, next Monday, to answer charges of conspiracy made against them by John Keener. Chauncy Pitt, a man named Thomas, and a hotel keeper of New Bethleham named McCallip. The Butlerites were stockholders in the McGuire Metallic Vacuum Casket Co., and a number of other Butlerites stockholders in the same concern have been subpoenaed to appear against them. McGuire, the promoter of the concern, and holder of the patents, went to Clarion county and unloaded about ten thousand dollars worth of stock on the four complaints and other citizens of Clarion county. Then the affair went up in thin smoke and the Clarion people looked for revenge. McGuire and Al. Butler have already had trials at Clarion, but the prosecutors are not satisfied with that and are going after all the Butler stockholders, who lost just as heavily as the Clarion people did and who knew nothing of McGuire's conduct of the affairs of the company. The local men take with them Attorneys A. T. Black, Brandon, Forquer, Goucher, Greer and McQuistion. After the trials damage suits for false arrest are contemplated against the prosecutors, and one or two criminal prosecutions on a matter outside the McGuire company's affairs are also probable.

It is estimated that there are five young men to every young woman in Muskogee, Indian Territory. Hence the girls do not lack for callers and sometimes three or four young men bunch up before the throne of a single tootsy-wootsy in the same evening. One Muskogee girl has partially solved the problem by leaving a life-sized portrait of herself in the parlor when she is not at home in the evening, and the young men are ushered into the parlor by the young woman's mother and allowed to call upon the picture.

Council Doings.

At the mid-month meeting of the Town Council the Pittsburg & Butler Street Railway Co. asked permission to extend their lines eastward on Cunningham St. to McKean, and to build a Y at the junction of those two streets to enable them to turn their cars. The Y would extend in front of the Cratty, Chattin and Krug properties. After motion to lay on the table was lost 5 to 6, the proposed ordinance was defeated 6 to 5. Another ordinance was at once laid before Council by J. D. Marshall, representing the Pittsburg & Butler Co. asking for leave to extend their lines over Chestnut, Mifflin and Main Sts. to their present terminus at Cunningham and Main. This was laid on the table until the regular meeting. In exchange for the passage of either ordinance the Pittsburg & Butler Co. offers to open Sullivan Ave. through the Gold and Sutton properties from Shore St. to West St. If either of the proposed concessions are granted the street car company will value it at $5,000 or $10,000 in their list of assets, and there is no reason why they should not pay some cash into the borough treasury for it, as well as Sullivan Ave.

James McClung asked Council to build a storm sewer across Church St. near Amy Ave., he to continue it through his own property.

Concert.

The Ithaca Conservatory of Music Company will give a concert in the M. E. Church, Butler, tomorrow, Friday evening, at 8 p. m. It is one of the strongest and most popular concert companies before the public. It has been received everywhere with marked favor. The natural talent of each member and the artistic finish of the company are far above that of the average concert company.

But "the proof of the pudding is in the eating." Go and hear it.

MAJESTIC THEATRE.

MISS BOB WHITE.—NOV. 24.

An excellent scenic investiture has been accorded Willard Spencer's pretty comedy opera Miss Bob White by Nixon & Zimmerman, and the production has been painted entirely new for the present season. The scenery and effects are carried in two large cars specially built for that purpose. None of the stock scenery belonging to the theatres where the opera is presented will be used. The advance manager gives instructions that the stage must be entirely cleared as all the room is needed so that the large equipment of the "Miss Bob White" Company may be properly accommodated. Price $1.50, $1.00, 75c-50c-25c.

SIDE TRACKED —NOV. 25.

A truly merry entertainment and one evoking continuous laughter, and here and there a slightly serious vein almost as soon turned into merriment as it has appeared. A merry tramp, the seeming creature of an hour, appears at constantly opportune times; and continually protects two pretty sisters from annoyance, by thwarting the villain's attempted attentions. Matinee 10c-25c. night 25c-35c-50c.

PRINCESS CHIC.—NOV. 27.

Mr. Frank Kelly, who sings the role of "Charles the Bold" in the Kirke La Shelle Opera, "The Princess Chic," has justly won the title of "matinee idol." This is an honorary degree not always sought after by actors, yet since the taste of the matinee girl dare not be disputed, it should be a title of honor. Mr. Kelly has the soldierly bearing which fits the role and is the fortunate possessor of a wonderful baritone voice, which is heard to advantage in the beautiful music in the role. Prices $1.50-$1.00-75c-50c-25c.

THE OFFICE BOY—NOV. 29.

"The Office Boy," under the management of the Nixon & Zimmerman Opera Company, with Frank Deshon, the well known comic opera star in the title role, will be presented for the first time here at the Majestic Theater, Wednesday, Nov. 29th. While the piece is built along the lines of musical comedy, in some instances its score is said to rise to the dignity of light opera. The piece was one of the hits of last winter in New York and the East.

Prices $1.50, $1.00, 75c, 50c, 25c.

For this attraction the Bessmer will run a special train starting at Greenville and Kaylor.

THE MISSOURI GIRL.—NOV. 30.

The unvarying success of Fred Raymond's comedy, The Missouri Girl, has become proverbial among members of the theatrical profession, and along the Rialto, or any place where actors collect you will hear the usual remark, "hasn't he got a gold mine." The reason is plain. The companies presenting it are composed of the best people in the profession and the management insists on their best efforts at all times. Matinee and night.

Creston Clark and his big production of "Beaucaire," the comedy romance, are announced are among the early coming attractions in this city.

Beef and Iron Wine.

Extract of Beef, Citrate of Iron and Sherry Wine.

This preparation is famous as a system builder and general tonic. Our preparation differs from all others of the same name, because we use predigested beef, the best sherry wine, and the iron is in such form that it is quickly taken into the system. It is pleasant to take and prompt in action, making rich, red blood.

Do You Require a Tonic?

Are you weak, worn out, run down and nervous? Is your blood thin and impure? Are you pale and haggard, lips white? Do you become exhausted from very little effort, your sleep restless, your appetite poor? If you have any of these symptoms use our Beef, Iron and Wine.

If the result is not satisfactory we will gladly return your money.

Price, 50 cents a pint.
