JURY COMMISSIONER,
A. Dale Thorne,

A Notable Address.

President Roosevelt made a notable address at the corner-stone laying of a new government building in Washington, last Saturday.

His proposition that "we shall ultimately have to consider the adoption of some such scheme as that of a progressive tax on all fortunes beyond a certain amount, either given in life or devised or bequeathed upon death to any individual—a tax so framed as to put it out of the power of the owner of one of these enormous fortunes to hand over more than a certain amount to any one individual," is something new, and would involve an amendment to the National Constitution.

The principal points of his address were: We can no better afford to condone the evils committed by the man of capital than those by the man of no capital.

We should discriminate between fortunes well-won and those ill-won. No charity, however great, can compensate for misconduct in making any fortune.

He favors a progressive tax, levied by the National Government, on all fortunes beyond a certain amount—a tax that will put it out of the owner's power to hand down more than a certain sum to any one individual.

The National Government must adopt some sort of supervision of the operations of all great corporations, for they are all engaged in inter-State business.

He believes that rate regulation, if properly framed and enacted, will be the beginning of the correction of our economic evils.

The efforts of men of wealth, will not succeed in preventing control of their business by the proper Government authorities.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

On Thursday last the House, for the fourth time in recent years, passed a resolution favoring the election of President, Vice-President, and U. S. Senators by the popular vote, and members of the House every four years. "The proposition to amend the Constitution for the election of Senators by direct vote has been passed by the House of Representative on four different occasions by a practically unanimous vote. Many State legislatures have at various times adopted resolutions in favor of the change. In response to the movement started by the Pennsylvania Legislature in 1899 to secure the application on the part of the necessary two-thirds of the State legislatures for the proposal of the amendment by Congress a third of the States have since taken favorable action. In the South the expedient of submitting senatorial candidacies to the vote of the primary of the dominant party has been adopted as a substitute for direct election. Arkansas has just nominated a Senator in this way and Tennessee, Illinois and Michigan will try it in their coming campaigns.

POLITICAL.

With but seven weeks intervening between this and the State Convention, it is remarkable that there is no prominent candidate for Governor. The men mentioned to date are Chas. W. Stone, E. F. Acheson, G. F. Huff, John Stewart, W. R. Andrews, R. S. Murphy, Lewis Emery, L. A. Watres, Mayor Weaver and several Congressmen of the eastern part of the state.

G. M. Hosack of Pittsburg is talked of for Lieut. Governor, R. K. Young for Auditor General, and I. B. Brown and J. H. Craig for Secretary of Internal Affairs. It looks as though this "condition of uncertainty" would continue up to the date of the convention—June 6th.

The latest argument for increasing the terms of Representatives in Congress from two to four years set forth by the House committee is the novel one that with the elections every two years "the political grafter who thrives on the nervous uncertainty of candidates is able to live from one election to another by the boodle secured at his unholy business."

A great deal has been heard of late about political and other grafting, but it has not before been seriously asserted by authority in position to know that the ward heelers and managing politicians extract enough boodle from the nervous candidates to furnish them with food and raiment and presumably liquor to last from one election to another.

Worms.

As there is no politics, this year, let us talk about something cheerful—worms for instance.

After a late rain a certain stone of a sidewalk on N. Bluff St. was covered with angle or earth worms. They came out of the ground and crawled over that particular stone in numbers. To some of them the stone must have felt cold, for they backed off. An angle worm can go forwards or backwards, but cannot circle, at least there is no evidence to that effect. The yellow belt in the middle seems to be the controling force.

Earth worms are found all over the word, ranging from a fraction of an inch in length to 5 or 6 feet. Some of the earth worms of South Africa are very large, and if the robins are of proportionate size no one would blame the people there for considering the robin a "game bird." The earth worm is the lowest form of animal life; the earth is full of worms, so is the sea, and hundreds of books have been written about them. Some writers go so far as to assert that the whole scheme of animal and vegetable life would be a failure without them.

AT Springfield, Mo., last Saturday, a mob wrecked the jail, and lynched three negroes accused of a crime. Gov. Folk sent the state militia to the town, and offered a reward of $300 each for the names of the leaders of the mob.

Oil and Gas Notes.

The Market—after standing for many months at $1 58 the market made an advance last Thursday and the price is $1.61.

Destruction of San Francisco.

Early yesterday morning while most of the people of San Francisco were yet in their beds, the central or business section of the city was destroyed by an earthquake. The first shock shook the entire state, and was followed by several minor shocks.

The water and gas pipes were broken, fires broke out in all parts of the city, unsuccessful efforts were made to stay the flames by using dynamite, and then those who could fled to the country, and the whole city is reported to be a mass of ruins.

It was a city of about 400,000 people, and is reported burned to the docks and suburbs.

The loss of life by falling buildings is put at 5,000, and will increase as the days go by.

It is the greatest calamity that ever befell a large American community.

At 6 o'clock last evening the city was yet reported burning, and the flames could be seen at St. Jose, thirty miles away. The loss of life was estimated at 20,000. The central part of San Francisco consists of high business blocks of stone and brick, whose fall at so early an hour probably destroyed but few persons excepting in the hotels. In the residence sections the houses were mostly of wood, and as there was no water, it was probably these that were seen burning at a distance. All the wires were broken, and all the trains stopped running. The shock was felt over the whole of the states of California and Nevada.

This disaster probably parallels that of the destruction of Lisbon, the capital of Portugal, one hundred and fifty years ago, (Nov., 1755.) The city is built along the Tagus river, near its mouth, and it was destroyed by an earthquake followed by fire; and the loss of life there was put at from 30,000 to 40,000.

There are hundreds of theories regarding the cause of earthquakes, but no rational explanation. All we know is that they come. The Western coasts seem to be more subject to them than the Eastern; though the last one felt in this section was that of Charleston, S. C., about fifteen years ago.

Another shock at midnight, last night, toppled over more buildings; the city was burning all night with nothing to stay the flames; the estimates of the killed, wounded and homeless were wild.

The property loss, yesterday and last night, was estimated at 200 millions; which will hit the great insurance companies very hard.

This morning the Central portion of the city is a mass of smouldering ruins, guarded by soldiers, who are ordered to shoot all thieves caught robbing the dead. Some people were caught in the falling buildings and burned to death. There are eight square miles of ruins. All the towns within a radius of fifty miles suffered from the shock. The Stanford university is in ruins. The Cliff House slid into the sea.

Town Council Meeting.

The Town Council stampeded Tuesday evening and gave the Pittsburg & Butler St. Railway Co. all they asked, and seemed very anxious to give them a great deal more. The Railway Co. got Chestnut St. from Cunningham to Jefferson in exchange for releasing rights which they never possessed over Mifflin St., ninety feet of an alley running parallel to West St. in exchange for opening and paving Sullivan Ave. to a width of 30 feet between West and Shore Sts., and the right to lay switches and a V on West St., in exchange for paving 150 feet west of Sullivan Ave. Property holders on West St., who appeared and protested against their street being taken for a switching yard were ignored. The Committee of Council appointed to confer with the citizens and street-car people reported in favor of keeping the switches off West St. and then the Chairman of the Committee, moved that the Railway Co's proposition be accepted. Capt. Hays presented a minority report asking that the Railway Co. pay $500 a year for the Chestnut St. franchise. Regardless of their former action limiting all franchises to 30 years. Some of the Council wanted to extend the grants given for an indifinite period.

Hays and Aiken were the only members who voted against giving the Railway Co. all they asked.

A petition was presented asking for the paving of E. Penn St.

F. P. Bucklin asked for sidewalks on Standard Ave.

A. H. Cohn asked for leave to cross E. Cunningham St., with a switch to his junk yard.

Property holders on West and Shore Sts. say they will fight the closing of the alley vacated in the courts.

Someone interested in the trolleys is reported to have made the remark during the past year that they did not give a ——for public opinion so long as they had eight men on the council.

CHURCH NOTES.

On account of Thursday, June 28, being Lutheran Home Day at Zelienople the date of the Butler County Sabbath School Convention to be held at Zelienople and Harmony has been changed to Tuesday and Wednesday, June 26 and 27, 1906. Besides the State General Secretary, W. G. Landes of Philadelphia, we will have with us another able speaker from the Pittsburg School of Methods which will be in session at that time. COR. SEC.

At the Communion services at Grace Lutheran church Easter thirty-nine new members were received into membership, in the evening the children rendered an instructive and pleasing program on Church Extension. The audiences at both services was so large that that the Sunday School room had to thrown open.

The spring meeting of Butler Presbytery of the Presbyterian church met in the Second Presbyterian church, Tuesday, Rev. Hugh Leith of Zelienople preached the opening sermon. Rev. T J. Gray of Clintonville was elected moderator to succeed Rev. J. A. Lawther of Parker, who resigned his charge and office several months ago. Rev. Willis S. McNees of North Hope was re-elected stated clerk and Rev. W. J. McConkey, D. D., of Grove City, treasurer, each for a term of five years.

Rev. L. M. Kunzler of the Columbus Presbytery and Rev. C. O. Anderson of the Kittanning Presbytery were invited to take part in the session. Rev. Geo. J. Timblin of Portersville and Wm. P. Braham of Harrisville were elected delegates to the General Assembly at Des Moines, Ia., May 17. Rev. A. J. Sauerbrunn of Jefferson Centre and Elder S. Q. Blair of Evans City were elected alternates.

No students presented themselves for license and no pastoral changes were reported.

Tuesday evening Rev. Gray spoke on work among resident foreigners; Rev. Leith on Temperance and Rev. Timblin on "Systematic Beneficence;" Rev. McNees read his report as stated clerk. It showed that the contributions of the Presbytery for foreign missions during the past year were $5183, an increase of $363 over the previous year.

Presbytery adjourned yesterday noon.

ACCIDENTS.

W. J. Pacoe of Middlesex twp. has a very sore hand, caused by breaking a locust thorn in it.

Oscar Otto, aged 13 years, was killed in Jno. Weigle's blacksmith shop, Harmony, last Saturday night, by the explosion of an improvised boiler, used to test a new engine that one of the boys boys had built. He was a son of Frank Otto.

A Slav called "Jumbo," on account of his size who was hurt at the Car Works, last week, died at the Hospital, Sunday night.

Mrs. W. L. Christy of Slipperyrock twp. had her face burned a few days ago, by an explosion of gas in an incubator.

Edward Kerr was instantly killed at a gas well near Worthington, last Thursday, by being struck on the head by a piece of metal from an exploded connection. The well has a pressure of over 1000 pounds to the square inch.

Gil. Moser and wife were poisoned by eating limburger cheese, a few nights ago, and went into a comatose state but were resucitated.

J. M. Black of near Emlenton was lately seriously injured by the fall of an iron smokestack upon him, at an oil well on his place. He had an arm and a leg broken, the latter in two places. He is a native of Marion twp.

George Alexander Fleming, aged 61 years, of Culmerville, died in the Hospital last evening from injuries received in the explosion at North Bessemer, April 10th, in which he and four others were injured. Fleming was the boss of the gang. After being taken to the Hospital his left arm was amputated, blood poisoning also set in. The others are recovering.

Mrs. Alf Black of Cherry twp. had an arm broken, last week, by a fall from a sled.

By an explosion of powder in one of the turrets of the Kearsarge, while at target practice in the Carribean sea, last Friday, seven men were killed, and several more injured. The dead were buried at Guantanamo (near Santiago), Cuba.

The Hun. Parade.

The Hungarians and Slavs of Lyndora made a Holiday of Monday, and their parade up Main St., Butler, was a very creditable one.

The parade was headed by a squad of men in fancy uniforms, followed by the members of four beneficial societies, with flags, two bands and a group of girls dressed in white. The two silk, American flags were very handsome ones (costing $350. each) while the badges were Hungarian colors—red, white and green.

They made tremendous preparations for the holidays—Sunday, Monday and Tuesday—and it took about fifty barrels of whisky and two hundred wagon loads of beer to see them through.

They seem to be great observers of the Religious Holidays, and yet they are excelled in that line by the people of some of the Latin counties, where they have 385 of the kind each year.

The Strike at Kaylor.

The situation at Kaylor, says V. P. Jas. Clark of the miners union is as follows:

"There are 1,200 men out at the five Kaylor mines of the Great Lakes Coal Company and not 500, as has been reported. They are standing firm to a man and will not return to work until ordered to do so by myself, President Feehan and the district executive board. The only men remaining in the five collieries affected are the pumpmen, engineers and firemen, who have been permitted to remain at work to prevent the mines from being flooded.

"The cause of the trouble does not seem to be clearly understood," continued Mr. Clark. "The company refuses to pay any dead work scale except a little for yardage. The men have to do dead work, including working with bony coal, with strips of slate in the middle, averaging from eight inches to a foot, and to take up from one to two feet of bottom, for all of which the company does not want to pay a cent. This statement sets forth the position of both the miners and the company in the controversy and shows which is in the right."

FOR RENT,

The Maizland heirs' farm in Clinton township, two miles below Saxonburg on the 3-deg. road, and one mile from the "Bessie" is for rent, with immediate possession, 162 acres—good farm.

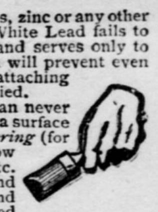
Pure White Lead and Pure Linseed Oil should always be used for the first or priming coat. No other paint has the same affinity for the surface—marrying and becoming a part of the wood.

Yellow ochre, barytes, zinc or any other substance than Pure White Lead fails to unite with the wood and serves only to form a cushion, which will prevent even Pure White Lead from attaching itself when finally applied.

Satisfactory results can never be obtained so long as a surface is coated with a veneering (for that is all it is) of yellow ochre, barytes, zinc, etc. Such a coating is bound to crumble, crack and peel, and must be burned or scraped off, down to the wood itself, before a good job can be done—an expensive process, and not without danger of fire.



A house owner can scarcely make a more costly mistake than to use a substitute for Pure White Lead in the priming coat. Avoid all risk by using

The New York World

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

The Thrice-a-Week World hopes to be in 1906 a better paper than it has ever been before, and it has made its arrangements accordingly. Its news service covers the entire globe, and it reports everything fully, promptly and accurately. It is the only paper, not a daily, which is as good as a daily, and which will keep you as completely informed of what is happening throughout the world.

The Thrice-a-Week World is fair in its political reports. You can get the truth from its columns, whether you are Republican or Democrat, and that is what you want.

A special feature of the Thrice-a-Week World has always been its serial fiction. It publishes novels by the best authors in the world, novels which in book form sell for $1.50 apiece, and its high standard in this respect will be maintained in the future as in the past.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subcription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and The CITIZEN together for one year for $1.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.

LOOK AT THE LABEL

Pasted on your paper, (or on the wrapper in which it comes,) for a brief but exact statement of your subscription account. The date to which you have paid is clearly given. If it is a past date a remittance is in order, and is respectfully solicited, Remember the subscription price, $1.00 a year in advance or $1.50 at end of year.

COME AND EXAMINE Our New Goods

Even if you're not quite ready to buy, it will give you an idea as to what's going to be worn and how much it will cost. Some of our best customers come in two or three times before making a final decision.

THINKING IT OVER assists their selection in a more satisfactory manner. Some prefer deciding at once, and either way pleases us. We're sure you'll like the new suitings we're now showing and want you to get in and get an early pick.
