"Everywoman's Husband"

To every woman is presented the big problem of how to handle a husband. The theories are many and varied. Their application are successful in some cases, and dismally unsuccessful in others. Edith got married and proceeded to put mommer-in-law's ideas into execution. Hubby found another and more cheerful environment, and Edith and mommer-in-law awoke with a shock.

WOULD CONNECT CHICAGO WITH NEW YORK

The Type Used In One Year to Publish Endorsements of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Of the many kidney remedies on the market today, none other is recommended like Doan's Kidney Pills. Hundreds of thousands, literally speaking, testify in the newspapers of their own towns. Forty-five hundred American newspapers publish this home proof of Doan's merit. The type used in one year to tell this wonderful story would make a solid column of nickel inches as high as the world's highest mountain. Placed end to end the lines of type would reach from New York to Chicago. Those living in good health, and in 50,000 homes, could glad things to say. Cheyenne Chronicle sufferer who wants relief from kidney and bladder ills. Don't experiment. Use the remedy endorsed by people you know.

A. S. Cooper, painter, 1421 Mary St., says: "Some time ago my back gave me considerable trouble. It became lame and sore over my kidneys so that it hurt me to stoop. I was advised to take Doan's Kidney Pills and used one box. This entirely removed the trouble."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Cooper had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y. —adv.

JOHN KENDRICKS BANGS WILL LECTURE THURSDAY NIGHT AT HIGH SCHOOL

John Kendrick Bangs, author of "The Genial Idiot," "The House-boat on the River" and many classics of American humor will lecture at the High School Auditorium Thursday night at 8 o'clock under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association.

The lecture is the first of a series of lecture attractions to be brought to Corpus Christi this season and will be followed by The Orpheus Club, Arthur Wilson, Prince, Jerome, Hawthorn Players and Players and the Southern Serenade.

One of the broadest and most sparkling men in the last quarter-century has been that of John Kendrick Bangs, the inventor of "The Genial Idiot" and the illustrator of "A House-boat on the River." The author of nearly fifty volumes of humorous verse and prose has found time even in a period of such productivity to devote a great deal of energy to other things than writing and has been in turn managing editor of "Life," editor of its departments of humor for "Harper's Weekly" and of the "Metropolitan Magazine." In 1904 Mr. Bangs was the Democratic candidate for mayor of Yonkers, and, as he lamentably puts it, was by the grace of the electorate relegated to a comfortable majority. "To the lustre of his family, mayor, unknown and unknown," in the Presidential campaign of 1908 he was one of the most ardent supporters on the stump in New England. His experience as a platform speaker in the home-to-vote campaign days did one him a good stead in getting close to his hearers. His platform manner is intensely sympathetic and partakes more of the nature of a tête-à-tête with friends than of that windbag oratory which affects the fathers of the land rather more strongly than the hearts of the listeners.

Mr. Bangs most notable platform effort, "Sentiment I, Have Met," is a moving one about the more or less humorous men and women he has known in the course of his career. It includes amusing anecdotes of statesmen, poets, novelists, philanthropists and others, and it was with an exquisite presentation of the character of one of the members of Congress in a story entitled "A Silver-tongued Day at Dinner Time" of which a critic has said: "It is a gem of utility humor, than which nothing more enchantingly fitting has been produced in American literature."

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night . . . I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui . . .

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again . . . I decided I would try Cardui . . . By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133
