Deadly Work at the Wireless Station!

Now and again in a William S. Hart picture the friction gets too close even for gun-play, and it's then that you see this great Western actor at work with his bare fists.

In "The Border Wireless" he shows one way of canning the Kaiser, or at least those who do the Kaiser's dirty work.

A picture that will GET YOU.

TWO HUNDRED GIRLS ATTEND COUNTY CONVENTION ON SATURDAY

Members of Girls' Home Economics Club Manifest Splendid Interest in Meeting Arranged by Mrs. J. L. Landrum of State Department of Agriculture

STYLE SHOW IS PRESENTED BY MISS LILLIAN PEEK

More than two hundred school girls, members of the various Girls' Home-makers Clubs organized throughout the county by Mrs. J. L. Landrum of the State Department of Agriculture, attended a quarterly meeting held Saturday afternoon in the Sun Parlor of the Nueces.

Despite the fact that the muddy roads kept Corpus Christi influence account a large attendance from the county schools, the number of delegates attending exceeded in number all of the previous meetings and a very lively interest was manifested in the well-arranged programme.

Aside from the club activities that were discussed in detail by Mrs. Landrum, and that included the presentation of plans for work for the ensuing year, Miss Lillian Peek, of the College of Industrial Arts of Denton, presented a style show setting forth the proper dress for school girls that made a great hit with the girls. Three Corpus Christi school girls assisted in Miss Peek in demonstrating the school dresses that the ministry said were of the kind that the girls should wear.

Governor Hopkins of Louisiana, who is a guest at the Nueces Hotel and who was to have addressed the convention, was indisposed and unable to talk to the girls but he sent word to his desire to fill such an engagement at a later date.

On the convening of the convention Edward H. Atlee, secretary of the Commercial Association, delivered a short address of welcome which was responded to by Lorraine Putman of the Edward Furman School Club.

The programme in full as carried out:

Invocation—Reverend Hugh Carroll.

Address of welcome—Hon. Edward H. Atlee, secretary of Commercial Association.

Vocal solo—Mrs. W. L. Freeman.

Response to address of welcome—Miss Lorraine Putman, Edward Furman Club.

"Mr. Crinkleboro Overhears"—Sketch Tomott Crossman.

An outline of the Club Work—Mrs. Landrum.

"Home Economics in Public Schools"—County Superintendent Nat Benton.

"Opportunities for Our School Girls"—Miss Jessie A. Pompeny.

"Hygiene for School Girls"—Miss Lillian Peek.

Round table—members of the different clubs participating and with Miss Lillian Williams, of the Orange Grove Club, presiding.

Mrs. Landrum and Miss Peek will leave this morning for Kingsville to attend the first meeting of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins after which they will go to the Rio Grande Valley for a week's stay, visiting Brownsville, Edinburg, Mercedes and a number of other points.

Mrs. Landrum will not night that it is her intention of returning to Corpus Christi during the latter part of March or early in April, and on that trip she hopes to visit each Nueces County school for the purpose of reorganizing the club work. An effort will be made to have the College of Industrial Arts assign Miss Peek here on the same work, accompanying Mrs. Landrum on her trip throughout the county.
