THE SUN FOR 1879.

The Sun will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past. To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though it leaves fall.
The Sun has been, and will continue to be independent of every body and everything and the Truth and its own convictions of duty. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than was ever enjoyed by any other American Journal.
The Sun is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though it leaves fall.

It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though it leaves fall.

The Sun has fairly earned the hearty praise of readers, friends, and humbly of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that praise not less in the year 1879, than in 1878, 1877, or any year gone by. The Sun will continue to shine on the wicket with unimpaired brightness. To the respect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

The Sun will continue to shine on the wicket with unimpaired brightness. To the respect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, The Sun does not propose to make itself in 1879 a magazine of ancient history. It is printed for the men and women to-day, whose conduct and character are the affairs of to-day. It has both the disposition and the ability to afford its readers the promptest, fullest, and most accurate intelligence of whatever in the wide world is worth attention. To the end the resources belonging to well-established property will be liberally employed.
The present disjunct condition of parties in this country, and the River of the future, lend an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the movements of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a direct bearing on the Presidential election of 1880—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political ideas or allegiance. To these elements of interest may be added the probability that the Democrats will control both houses of Congress, the increasing febrility of the Administration, and the spread and strengthening everywhere of a healthy abhorrence of fraud in any form. To present with accuracy and clearness the exact situation in each of its varying phases, and to expound, according to its well-known methods, the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will be an important part of The Sun's work for 1879.
We have the means of making The Sun, as a political, a literary and a general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before, and we mean to apply them freely.
Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the Daily Sun, a four page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, postpaid, is 55 cents a month, or $5.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.
The Sunday edition of The Sun is also furnished separately for $1.00 a year, postage paid. The price of the Weekly Sun, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free. Address

OLD, TRIED, AND TRUE.

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment, FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 25 years, until now it encircles the habitable globe. It cures every external ailment of horses, such as lameness, scratches, sprains, swellings, founder, wind gall, ring-bone, etc., etc. The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners. It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure. Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.

THE WORLD

FOR 1879. SPECIAL OFFER. THE NEW YORK WEEKLY WORLD, AN EIGHT-PAGE NEWSPAPER, Will be sent (postage prepaid) From Now Until January 1, 1879, FOR TEN CENTS.

This Special Offer is made to enable the Southern people to see for themselves how good a paper The World is, and how worthy it is of their support.

On the 1st of May, 1876, the ownership and control of The World passed into the hands of the undersigned, under whose absolute and untrammelled direction The World has ever since remained and now remains. It has come to pass during the whole of this time The World has labored patiently and perseveringly for the accomplishment of two great objects in politics of paramount interest to the Southern people. I. The restoration of Local Self-Government at the South. II. A Real Reform of the Civil Service, in such wise as to destroy the political machine under the operation of which it has come to pass that the people are taxed to support political parties, whereas political parties have no other reason of being except to lessen the burdens of government.

The first of these objects has been triumphantly accomplished. All intelligent Northern men now admit that all parts of the country were as deeply interested as the South in seeing it won. A corrupt and anti-Democratic government in the South was a permanent peril to the ascendancy of true American principles in the Federal Government, and therefore to the peace and honor of the whole people.

The second political object for which The World contends still remains to be fully achieved. The actual Administration bears its career with excellent promise in this direction of which it is sufficient to say that they have been as yet only in part redeemed. The World for its part will resolutely support the policy which constantly increasing power upon the conduct of our national affairs, in the interest of truth, justice and of harmony among our people of all sections.

It is no desire to keep The World in a living relation with the best thought of the South, to the end that the best ideas, wishes and feelings of the Southern people may be clearly and fairly made known to the North, the East and the West. Alike in private and in public affairs the understanding of men by one another lies at the root of so much evil that the word itself has come to be a synonym with quarreling and strife. It was a wise saying of Lord Elgin, at the time of one of our sharpest disputes with Great Britain, that two intelligent gentlemen alone on a raft in the Atlantic with plenary powers could adjust the whole matter honorably in an hour.

The World simply asks its friends at the South to aid it in bringing about a complete meeting of minds on all public questions between the intelligent citizens of all parts of the Union. WILLIAM HENRY BURLEIGH.
