
District Women's Club Convention Has Adjourned

By The Associated Press.

BROWNSVILLE, April 10.—The ninth District of Texas Federation of Women's clubs today adjourned its annual meeting to meet next year at San Marcos, the unopposed choice. The final sessions were taken up with conferences and the only one that called forth any great amount of discussion was one urging the federation to go on record as endorsing such resolutions as were "when properly stated for good fair methods of election and suffrage, and opposed to those who favored child labor and more efficient enforcement of child labor laws." Fearing that the proposed resolutions might be misunderstood as to the position the federation was asked to take. The ninth district of Texas forms the election to hold officers of the state and men and women are urged for state politics.

Other resolutions adopted advocated the teaching of the elements of nursing in public schools, endorsing the work of the international of women and the work of the Y. W. C. A. in the work of the Y. W. C. A. in the work of the Y. W. C. A. in
