GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly . . . Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then . . . it would last . . . two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three . . . I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children . . . Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years.

Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

Old Timers Have Family Reunion

By E. T. Merriman.

Two of the oldest conductors of Corpus Christi, C. E. Graves of San Antonio and Mrs. Louisa DeCamara of Lavaca county and sister, arrived in this city Tuesday evening to spend a few days together knowing that the other was coming, as their meeting here at the home of their brother, L. D. Henry in the court house, was a surprise to both.

Mr. Graves first came to Corpus Christi in January, 1846, arriving on the 23rd day of the year, with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. P. Graves, brother, Frank Graves and sister Susan. The family moved here from Austin to make their home in Corpus Christi, then known as "Kinney's Ranch."

This was 74 years ago, when Mr. Graves, who is 78 and looking well from his outlook, was but five years of age. Undoubtedly he is the oldest of the five former white children living here.

Mr. Graves moved away from Corpus Christi in May, 1862 when he married Miss Molly Gatch and went to Memphis to engage in the stock business, going from there to San Diego in 1874 and moving to San Antonio in 1890.

Mrs. DeCamara, the only sister of Mr. Graves and who moved to Lavaca where her home now is, in the cultured company, was born in San Antonio, was taught in Corpus Christi by her mother, who was a Fordham, Dallas county pioneer, and married Mr. DeCamara, the oldest native born woman in Corpus Christi today. Her husband served Nueces and other counties in the Confederate army. The other living children of Corpus Christi, in the second white child born in Corpus Christi, Joseph Henry, who resides in the first house erected in Corpus Christi, and Lee Berry.

The father of Mr. Graves died and was in the sand dunes of the waters covering the site of Corpus Christi, he was one of the pioneer whites of Texas living with Capt. Ewen Cameron at the battle of San Jacinto, was his brother, Chas. Graves, who was the gunner who fired the first cannon shot at the battle of San Jacinto. Graves, he fell among the men who died at Goliad in the Fannin massacre.

On Wednesday evening, Mr. Graves and Mrs. DeCamara, the only surviving members of the old Graves family, and L. D. Henry and Lee Berry, only sons living of the pioneer Berry family, held a family reunion.

Lost Child Found At Country Home

A 2-year old girl, lost from her parents and wailing in her loneliness was found early yesterday morning at the home of Mr. Iebel, on the old Isenberg farm, approximately seven and a half miles of Corpus Christi, according to report brought to the city last evening by Mrs. C. E. Purdon, 1120 Chaparral street. At the time Mrs. Purdon left the farm on which she is employed yesterday afternoon, no one had come to claim the baby, she said.

Mrs. Purdon, who said she had been told of the incident by others, said that Mr. and Mrs. Iebel returned at the usual hour Tuesday night but were awakened several times during the night by what they thought were the yelpings of a hearty coyote. Finally deciding that our pets emitted noises like those of a child in distress, they went outdoors and after a short search found the badly frightened little girl, apparently about two years old, but either unable to talk or too badly frightened to do so.

Inquiry was being made through the country district yesterday to see whether anyone had lost a child but no one had claimed the waif when Mrs. Purdon came into the city, she was informed, Mrs. Purdon said, how the child was dressed.

In one day, last May, 9,000,000 marks were placed on bets on races in Germany.
