

From Washington.

The latest information from Washington is to the effect, that though no joint conference of the democratic caucus was held on Monday last, as had been announced, the House end of the caucus had been discussed the previous day.

Cooking's Discovery.

In his late argument on the army appropriation bill, the distinguished Senator from New York, distinguished in many ways and for profound and solid lying much renowned, committed himself to the proposition, that $221,594,808.88 of the national taxes of the last fiscal year were paid by the Northern States and only $17,627,192.90 were paid by the Southern States.

Mathematically Formulated.

In illustrating the absurdity of the arguments made by the advocates of the Millitary Interference Bill and repeated by the President in his veto message, Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, in his late speech in the Senate, furnished the following propositions:

Proposition first: Theorem.

The troops of the United States are two thousand miles away on the frontier and could not be used to control Louisiana if they were wanted.—Senator from Maine.

Proposition second: Theorem.

The necessity for the presence of troops at the polls is also in proportion to the square of the distance of their present location, i. e. the greater the distance the greater the necessity.

Proposition third: Theorem.

The revolutionary and dangerous to liberty and the purity of elections to pass this bill forbidding such use of troops.

Proposition fourth: Theorem.

The revolutionary and dangerous to liberty and the purity of elections to pass this bill forbidding such use of troops.

Proposition fifth: Theorem.

The revolutionary and dangerous to liberty and the purity of elections to pass this bill forbidding such use of troops.

Southern Md. Railroad. From the correspondence following, summarized from the Tobacco and the Southern Md. Railroad, dated the 23rd of May, 1879, it will be seen, that the Southern Md. Railroad project has never been fully done but only sleeping and that it has nearly been revived and continued and another which will be both useful and early results. Says the writer in the Globe—

Your readers will recollect that the Southern Maryland railroad, which is to run from Washington city to St. Mary's city and Point St. Ignace, at the mouth of the Potomac, has been for the last two or three years in the hands of receivers. In fact, the road, of which a considerable portion had been graded, was to be sold by the Circuit Court of Prince George's county, at the instance of its creditors. These creditors have now joined the present company, and are asking the court to vacate the order of sale and discharge the receivers, so that the present directors may assume and proceed with the work of construction.

Blackwell's Magazine for May, published by the Leonard Spott Publishing Co., at 41 Bay Street, N. Y., contains the following:—

The Life of the Prince Consort. The Policy of the Budget. The new and every a considerable portion of the Magazine. In "Dante" there is a marked contrast between the descriptions in the first and second chapters, but the writer seems to get somewhat confused when he speaks of the "Canadian vine, that most beautiful of tropical creepers."

The discussion on the present condition of France, and what can be said against the Republic, concludes that "it is not a good specimen of a Republic, as Republics go," and ends with some speculations regarding the future.

Quite a long description is given of the French, as well as of the mountains of India. Their dress, mode of life, and characteristics are graphically portrayed, and they cannot be very agreeable neighbors or subjects.

The fourth volume of the "Life of the Prince Consort" contains less of political and more of social life than the third. It is strange to read of the Prince and the French Emperor being anxious about their after-dinner smoking.

The "Policy of the Budget" refers to England's political, and "Public Affairs" to her relations with the outside world.

AM EASY way for Ladies and Gentlemen TO SECURE A HANDSOME INCOME. The Ohio Scale Works of Cincinnati have just patented and are now introducing to the public a Handsome Scaled Family Scale, an article that has always been needed in every household, and in a commensurate address to the public.

James J. Long, trustee, sold on Tuesday last at the Court House door, Leonardtown, a tract of land called Cole and Suttler's Real, containing 200 acres, for $1,000. Purchaser, Z. P. Mattingly. The same trustee sold at the same time and place Hayden's Discovery, containing 63 1/2 acres, for $138. Purchaser, I. B. Mattingly.

The residence of Mr. Catherine Morgan, in our village, caught fire on Thursday morning last but by prompt assistance rendered by Jim Sewell, a colored man, was extinguished.

The intermediate term of the Circuit Court begins here on Monday next. It is expected that the only cases of interest will be the mandamus cases, lately sued out against the County Commissioners.

People who delight in good books are rejoicing in the good work being done by the American Book Exchange, 55 Beekman street, N. Y. By introducing the plan of publishing and selling books direct to purchasers, instead of giving the large discounts usually allowed to dealers and agents to sell them by working on the basis of the present cost of making books, which is about one-half what it was a few years ago, and by printing very large editions, which also greatly reduces the cost as compared with small editions, they are able to furnish books at prices which, to most people, seem truly astonishing, but which they say are only reasonable.
