STOCKS AND BONDS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The volume of business on the stock exchange today was much less than for the past three days, but speculation was steadier and none the less strong. At opening a higher range of quotations was established, but the market met with some selling orders at the outset, which caused a reaction in which only part of the improvement was lost. The market was soon again on the upward track, the improvement continuing until afternoon, when realizing sales brought about another reaction, of belief durgtion, to a removal of the advance. Toward the close a sharp purchasing movement developed, which caused a recovery and final sales were at an advance over yesterday's closing figures of 1-2@2 3-4 per cent in the active list and extreme rise to 6 per cent in specialties.

The railway bond market was strong and fairly active.

BENEFIT CONCERT OF THE LADIES ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

Arrangements have been completed for the benefit concert of the Associated Charities, given on Tuesday, Oct. 31.

A most excellent program has been arranged including the finest local talent.

As winter approaches the demands for help for the needy of our city increases, and with an almost empty treasury it will be impossible to relieve the wants and suffering of the poor without the liberal aid of our citizens. A heavy response to this call is anticipated. Tickets sold for 50 cents.

The latest feature introduced in a realistic drama is a passenger elevator.

HOLLIDAY NEWS.

HOLLIDAY, Tex., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Mr. John Jackson, who several days ago was stricken with paralysis, has improved somewhat and there are hopes of his recovery. "Uncle Johnny" has passed his 74th birthday and has hale and hearty up to his present misfortune. He has been a citizen of Archer county for several years, and is one of our most progressive men. He is reported to be worth from $12,000 to $20,000.

C. E. Hammond of Archer City was here yesterday on business.

F. A. Arnold has qualified as assignee of T. H. Norwood, who failed here in the lumber business.

Fifty-four cars of wheat have been shipped from this station within the past three months.

INDIGNANT CITIZENS.

TYLER, Tex., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—The indignation of citizens consummated in a mass meeting at Lindale, in consequence of the burning of the gin there yesterday, thought to be the work of parties known. County Judge Reaves, County Attorney Edwards and Sheriff Smith went up this morning and have been in private counsel all day. No particulars of their work can be learned, though, it is said, things look squally for certain parties.

ASK HIS REMOVAL.

PARIS, Tex., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—Indian Agent Wisdom has received a complaint from the Choctaw nation against J. L. Schenck, a newspaper correspondent who resides at Caddo, I. T., charging that his reports are sensational and calculated to provoke personal strife, and asking for his removal from the nation. Schenck has been at Tishomingo during the session of the council, representing the Kansas City Times, St. Louis papers, and also other papers. Wisdom has forwarded the charges to the commissioner of Indian affairs, and it is not yet known what steps will be taken in his case.

MANY ROBBERIES.

PARIS, Tex., Oct. 27.—(Special.)—There have been four robberies and burglaries in this city in the past twenty-four hours. The robbers secured a number of articles of jewelry and clothing from the Central hotel. They entered Hannah Shaw's house and got $25 from a trunk, and went into several business houses and obtained numerous articles. Last night a negro went into Jones' store in the suburbs with a log chain, and after getting Jones' money, beat him in a frightful manner.

The designer refused to have the hall of the Valkyrie photographed.
