C. P. CHURCH PRESBYTERY.

Lewisville, Tex., April 13.—The Guthrie Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church is in session here now, and last night was given to the ladies, it being the occasion of their missionary anniversary, and they rendered the following very interesting program, to a crowded house:

1—Scripture reading by Mrs. Gamewell of Whitesboro, Tex.

2—Prayer by Rev. Cunningham of Pilot Point.

3—Song by the choir, "Tolling On."

4—Report of secretary, Miss Effie Julian of Pilot Point, and a recitation by Miss Metta Newton of Valley View, then an address by Mrs. Mary G. Bane of Greenville. Mrs. Bane is state president of the missionary band of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The balance of time was occupied in recitations, speeches and songs, and finally closed with a collection taken by Rev. De Witt of Denton. The service was highly interesting, and resulted in a large collection.

A GLORIOUS RAIN.

Nacogdoches, Tex., April 13.—This section was visited by a glorious rain last night. About 7 o'clock the wind commenced blowing, bringing with it quite a heavy hail storm, which did some damage to the gardens. This storm was soon followed by a heavy rain, which fell steadily till 11 o'clock. This morning the ground is well soaked, which insures plowing and crowing of the oats, which last week's wind had so severely dealt with. This rain seemed to be general, and from reports most of the county received copious showers. This morning a broad smile can be noticed on the faces of all the merchants and the bane of hard times will soon be forgotten.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE LANDMARK—Published at Rush Springs, I. T., is a good advertising medium for the business men of Fort Worth. An effort should be made to secure the trade of this section.

NOTICE is hereby given that the regular meeting of the stockholders of the St. Louis, Southwestern Railway Company of Texas will be held at the general offices of said company at 9 o'clock a. m., on Monday, the 29th day of April, 1895, for the purpose of electing a board of nine directors to serve for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other and further business as may properly come before said meeting. And on the same day and at the same place, immediately after the adjournment of the said stockholders' meeting, the regular annual meeting of the board of directors of said company will be held for the purpose of electing a president and secretary, and such other officers as is provided by law and the by-laws of said company, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said meeting. The stock books of said company will be and remain closed from this date until after the adjournment of the said meeting. R. W. Fordyce, President; R. D. Cobb, Secretary. March 27, 1895.

TRUSTEE'S SALE of D. Weiss & Co.'s stock and business—I will offer at public sale at 11 o'clock a. m. on Monday, April 22, 1895, at D. Weiss & Co.'s old stand, corner Main and Exchange streets, in the city of Fort Worth, his late stock of merchandise, fixtures and outfittings complete. These consist of one elegant bar complete and one restaurant outfit complete, dining tables and furniture, each big mission dining room furniture, table linen, etc. All of this furniture and fittings are in first-class condition and invoice $2413. I will also sell the liquor licenses of said business good to June 1, 1895, invoiced at $153. I will also sell all fixtures in hotel of every nature and character. It is desirable that the fixtures, both saloon and restaurant, be sold together. I will therefore offer them for sale in one lot. Weiss & Co. have a lease on the basement and first floor of the building in which the business is conducted by them at the rate of $75 per month, the lease good to February 28, 1897. Arrangements can most probably be made by a purchaser to occupy the property. The inventories to be sold aggregate $4464.52. This is a first-class stand and a fine opportunity for any one desiring to engage in the business. The rent is low and the business established. Sales of this property will be made in quantities and in such manner as will suit the respective purchasers. Opportunity for inspection of the property will be cheerfully afforded by calling upon the undersigned at the Powell building, rooms 22-23. George H. West, trustee.

P. S.—This will not deter any one from purchasing the store property or any part thereof at private sale in the meantime if satisfactory offers are made. G. H. W.
